

Lord Jesus speaks to you

A ' Daham Navodaya ' Publication

First Edition : August 2022

' Daham Navodaya ', is the congregation, which is an instrument in the hands of Lord Jesus; remaining within the Catholic Church itself, endeavouring to raise the Catholic Church to the status which Lord Jesus needs it to be.

The activities which unfolds in this regard will be a "New Dawn of Dharma" (Daham Navodaya) for all people and religions.

Printed by :
STAT FOTO
1st Floor,
Meemaduma Building,
Rajapaksha Broadway,
Negombo.
031 2233210

Lord Jesus speaks to you

A ' Daham Navodaya ' Publication

<http://dahamnavodaya.com>

Lord Jesus speaks to you

01. People of the world! Awaken!! Because, unknown to you, you have been encircled by sin. 29th January 2020

“I request you to listen to this message of great depth and content, which has been given by the Heavenly Father, the creator of the universe and proclaimed by Lord God. My beloved children, children of the whole world, there is no religious conflict in the words that I announce now. Children, belonging to all these, including gods of all gods, in spite of your religious affiliations, if you are a real man, you will all become a single race, devoid race, cast and creed differences. That is ... you are real humans. You are humans belonging to the human race, sons and daughters of the human family. You are composed of a complete person, complete with a set of organs, made of flesh, bones and sinews, formed by God himself, resembling a big tree, capable of doing anything, through wisdom. You humans, never ever get angry with anyone. Because, turn to yourself and look into you. All what I ask of the so called learned and knowledgeable is “Turn and look into yourselves.” When a person sees himself, and examines himself true to his conscience, he will have a self-awareness where he is. Break away from the yoke of selfishness that binds you. Free yourself of all what you aspire and yearn for. Be a death to all your rights and claims. It will be possible to make the world a pleasant place to live in when all men correct themselves, reform themselves. From the point of view of any religious leader, or any religion, matters relating to cast, creed, race related differences have not been brought down from the very beginning. You enter into the realms of sin through the influences and what you get through them while you are formed and grown in the world. I am a God who loves the universe. There is no conflict among gods. There is a divine council, where all of them are united in peace and harmony. But this message of mine is directed towards all those who live - owning those gods to themselves, broken into parts and separated, and divided over cast and creed. People of the world, awake, because unknown to you, sin has encircled you. Search your conscience, inquire your soul – spiritually where you are? What type of a soul you are? Gaze on to yourself and ask ... if you are a person capable of guiding another person towards salvation and go forward?”

“Leaders of all churches and all religions! Turn to you and look into you through the religious leadership you hold. Firstly, before becoming a religious leader, ask yourself to what purpose do you yearn to be so? Are you a true leader? How many lives have you uplifted through your choice and your vocation? How many have you saved? To how many lives, have you become a good, righteous religious leader? Even being aware of the dangers within this world, what have you done to save the people of the world, to deliver the sons and daughters from those dangers? Turn for a while towards you. Have you been a victim of selfishness, a victim of your own dreams and desires? Have you gone after your own rights and dues? Do you live free from all those, emptied and having none? If so, meditate and see whether you have these things within you? Do you live like a worm having, no mouth to speak, no hands to hold and possess, no feet to walk or flee, no skeleton to walk erect, no teeth, no nails to attack? If you are a true religious leader, if you are a true son, a true daughter walking along the path righteousness, if you are like worm having, no years to listen, no mouth to speak, no feet to walk, no skeleton to move, you will be pleasant character before God and in accordance with your religion. Have you chosen the place due to you, after your exile from this world, having completed the time assigned to you?”

“Political leaders, Government leaders, Leaders of the divided nations, this message comes to all of you. This is a message coming from God of the upper realms, who created the world so beautiful, who provided all what humans needed through the marvelous eco system and the beautiful earth, who created in all fullness with no blemishes, the heavens, the earth, the sun, the moon and the stars, the rivers and streams, the fauna and the flora and man. I thought of delivering this great message to the world, using human life as an instrument. Now is the moment, for all to be awakened and on vigil. Now is the moment for each one to see himself. The one who lives, empty of all desires, rights and claims, giving a death punch to all self-centered desires and motives, joining hand with others, accepting other's grief as his own grief, sorrowing with those who sorrow, and rejoicing with those who rejoice will be the person who will have true humanity in him. The kingdom of God is there. Whatever fights you may wage over any leadership position in this world, whatever the riches you may amaze, whatever the name and fame, recognition you may earn, whatever honour and glory you receive, all of them will be confined to this very earth. Because there are two places to choose, in spite any religious adherence when you leave this world. You would have to definitely go either to heaven carrying all your good deeds on earth or to hell burdened with all your bad deeds on earth. Definitely you would have to be subjected to that great purification process in accordance with the divine law, amidst great weeping and punishment. The weighted exerted by sin on this earth will be reduced if you cast aside all pleasures and cravings and walk correctly along the path shown by God or other deities, if you choose wisely the correct religion and live righteously. You will be able to earn a place to live peacefully for all eternity when you leave this world. My beloved children! It will not be a real, righteous act, if you endeavor to proceed along the path of your own success, stirring up cast and creed-based divisions and discord among neighbours and burn with jealousy and cruelty on seeing someone attains success over and above you. Seeds of genuine humanness boom forth in you when you feel happy to see someone's success, you are gracious enough to recognize and respect someone over and above your status. You will be a true follower of God and pleasant child of God when you could share in some one's grief, treating as your own grief. If you endeavor to accumulate all your earnings and other assets such as lands, houses and vehicles, the evil spirits will encircle you and enslave you, as a united force. Then, the domain of devil will be there, around you. Let's not give into the devil. Let's defeat the realms of evil. Let's not harm or hurt another. I request you to be united as children of one family, by loving each other, joining hands with each one, and by refraining from breaking the universe into segments and sections.”

“A true leader is the one who fulfills all what he promised to everybody in accordance with all pronouncements and promises made by him. Had he fulfilled as referred to above, had he diminished himself in the process of becoming a leader in the cause of others, then he would indeed be a true leader. If he intends to go forward on his own way, despising and destroying others, then there will be no leadership, nor learned; the result there would be, is an activity of an unrighteous, evil master, rejecting all gods and rebelling against all deities. Those actions will never succeed. Definitely, the Satan will be turned into ashes.

Therefore, my beloved children, there is no division and dividing among races, no dialogue against or no divisions and discords among religions. This is a message coming from above, making no divisions among religions, following all religions, even speaking on behalf of those religious leaders, which you have never seen, you have never heard and never expected. It will be possible only to those human sons and daughters only to see themselves as worthy of being called wise, capable of communing and living together with others by listening to this, by owning this, and by rectifying one's defects via constant self-examination. Even if you come to know many things through education, what is there in the education, you boast of, if reap evil upon evil through wisdom you have developed, if you live in an unrighteous manner, inimical to another's interest? What intelligence do you have within you? There is nothing that the world can gain from you. There is nothing the world can benefit from you. When you meditate upon your doings, you will realize that you have been instrumental in creating a regime of wickedness and unrighteousness. To be delivered from this evil, I proclaim to my beloved children, to meditate upon all what I have said, turn back, and change your life and come forth. I in the great and almighty power of the mighty king, I speak to the whole universe and send forth my blessings to the whole universe.

I,
Jesus Christ, your redeemer

02. I the Lord God love you all without any race, cast and creed related differences.
9th February 2020

“A deadly cyclone will blow across the universe, in great speed, trembling the very foundation of the universe. There will be a great loss in life and other assets. The repercussions of the cyclone will be felt by this small island too. Therefore, all should live in prayers. The cyclone will blow across, around 200 K.M per hour. Sometimes, it may exceed this speed. The cyclone is near and fast approaching. Therefore, now is the time to stay awake and pray. This is not a moment to deliberate over the shortcomings of others. A moment that everyone should look into themselves. The great purification process of the Father has now begun. Therefore, there are many openings for the downfall of many nations. There are many occasions for the weeping of many. Along with, many new diseases will keep on coming, with relentless vim and vigour. There will be obstacles causing difficulties in maintaining the breath of life of people. Now is the time for a diversion in life towards a better direction in accordance with one's belief, not finding fault with the defects of others, and changing one's life style speedily, for the sake of children and parents. The children and parents of each family and all should give priority to Lord God the Almighty.”

“I now at this moment request all and all religious leaders, to lead the people righteously in line with the religious precepts and to unite them and to reap the fruits of their calling to leadership. No one should amass material things for himself. Amass only what is good. My beloved children! I now at this moment proclaim to the people of the world that great message, received from the Lord God, the creator of the universe. I AM WHO I AM. I am the Lord God.”

“All of you listen to the message received from the Lord God. I, the Lord God love you all casting aside all differences and discords caused by cast and creed, race and religion. I am the bridegroom. The bride is you , all of you. If the people of the universe are the bride then the owner of the whole universe, as the groom keeps on looking at his bride, till she is attired in bridal garments and ready. Therefore, my beloved children! In spite of the class you belong to turn towards you and look into you. Go forward, changing all what you have to change. It is possible for you to be incarcerated in very dangerous things through all what you amass greedily. Therefore, know that all things that appear beautiful externally are not righteous. Free and purify yourselves of all impurities, evil inclinations and imperfections that are found in the interior of everyone. Face this as children, fortified with spiritual, mental and physical blessings and healing. Get ready now itself. This is the message delivered, to the people of the whole universe by the Creator who owns the universe, and who formed the universe.”

I,
Jesus Christ, your redeemer

03. The Way to your Redemption is Repentance 12th March 2020

“To all the Leaders, representing the Nations of the whole World! If you are a Leader of a Nation, think! What have you done for your nation, for your people? What are you doing now for your people? For what, have the people appointed you as a Leader? Have you responded well to the trust which the people have placed in you, in choosing you as the leader? Leaders of the Nations! I declare to you now..... examine yourselves, true to your own conscience, irrespective of your religious beliefs and following. Because just turn around and look at the People of the World today. Listen very attentively to what I declare now to the People of the World. The way to your redemption is Repentance. If you are to be saved from this, turn back and look into your past life; Repent and Change your life and through this you could receive salvation.”

“Government Leaders, Religious Leaders, all Leaders, and Children you who take the initiative to Lead, great is the calamity that is inundating the world. Because perilous is your fate unless everyone turns around and looks into themselves, during the period of calamity, experience a conversion of heart and change the course of life. Don't be nonhumans among humans. If you are a human, if you have come with humanity embedded into yourself, then be aware that you are a true human being within that humanness. Outwardly, you might appear adhering to a specific religious faith. Now is the time for you to realize who you are, within your interior self and within the life you lead. Free yourself from the shackles of selfishness. No nation has gained a clear picture of this calamity, even though many a such calamity has come and gone. This will not end with this. Now the process of Universal Cleansing is developing through this - destruction. Therefore, reflect and see as to what you have to do to save yourself.”

“Oh! People of the Nation of Sri Lanka, Government Leaders, now you have to assemble, not for the purpose of gaining power for yourselves. Put that aside. People have reposed their trust in you and elevated you to the seats of power. If you are conducting yourselves now, worthily, true to that trust, cast aside everything, your concern for political future, your greed for power and position, and turn around and look at the people. Take whatever the steps you should take. Firstly, you examine yourself as to where you are? This is not place from which you can extricate yourself with the influence of money. Nothing can be done through the influence state power, politics or money. Look at the universe around you. This the moment of purifying your house of conscience which is within you and being subject to decay and deforming now. Be awoken! Do Repent! This message is common and applies to all religious faiths. This is not a message that is spoken related only for a single religious faith. This is the Great Message delivered for entire Mankind. All Government Leaders, All People of the World join together, and shape your lives in accordance with tenets of the religious beliefs and faith you follow and adhere to.”

“Leaders of the Church, where are you? If you have dedicated yourselves truly and totally to announce the Word of the Lord to the world, point not your finger towards none at this moment. Because all of you are now immersed in sin. None has reached to the correct point. Don't fall in to tally of nonhumans. Shine as a true man blessed with the great gifts of humanity.”

“If you are strong in your body, if you are correct, if you are composed of a correct mind, if you are appear as a correct figure you will be saved from any calamity that may befall on you. Father the Lord of the whole Universe keeps on watching over the universe. You therefore awake! Don't amass wealth for your descendants. Don't amass wealth for your sake. Embrace your commandment of love, within what you are aware of. That great love will cause no pain to anybody. That love is the transformation of whole universe into a Single Nation through unity among all, through all becoming one in mind. If you love one another wisely and patiently, using that great power, those noble characteristics and humility in you, you as well as others will be saved. There are no divisions, no differences, based on race, cast and creed. You all will have to turn around and look back if you are to save yourselves from this brutal calamity which has gripped all of you. You all will have to undergo, experience Repentance. The One who has waited on you, forgiving your trespasses from time to time, will test you. In the face of your repentance, Father might call back all these torments and all what he has sent against the world. It will happen only through your repentance. The process of purifying the 2/3rd has now begun, speedily. It started last year during the same time period. At that time I proclaimed that what follows thereafter would be more catastrophic. Day by day people will face the most difficult time period. Many things will be lost. It would not come to an end, with this. As against the comfortable life style to which you are used, you would have to face a life of suffering. Because, what come next is a time where you would not be able to purchase your daily needs including food items, even if you have money in hand.”

“The great tempest has just begun. Many events, causing difficulties to men would arise even in the belly of the heaven, part of the universe formed by the Heavenly Father. It is now happening. In some more years in the future, I command the Government Leaders to remove and relocate people living in the coastal areas in Sri Lanka. Because 1/3rd of the land mass of Sri Lanka is to be encroached by the sea. It will come to pass, definitely. My beloved Children, a decisive, destructive situation is being developed, gradually. If you listen carefully, and own this message, if you meditate as to whom this message is addressed, you will be able to disseminate this message to others in your own language, to call them to repentance and save all.”

“Religious Leaders, Church Leaders, I ask you all to feed the people with your words and redeem the people from these dangerous developments (waves). Inflaming religious conflicts, setting one against another and causing conflicts, criticizing each other, and protesting with battle cries is not what you have to do as a nation, as a country, as Religious Leaders, as Government Leaders and as those holding Leadership Positions. See into yourself and examine as to whether you have fulfilled your responsibilities, fittingly and perfectly. Have you done anything for your own benefit while carrying out those responsibilities? If so I announce again 'Repent', if not even you will not know what would happen to you.”

“Unite, all of you, to save from the calamity that has engulfed the whole world. There is a decision which has to be taken by you, collectively and cooperatively if you are to create a good image about government leaders in the minds of the people. This is not a time to debate about power. Cast it aside, postpone everything and discuss about what you have to do now to save the whole human beings from this. Awake now. A decisive moment has now come. Listen, intently. Turn around, look at the world. Calamitous days are now coming. Therefore, be ready now itself. This is what, I expect from all of you.”

“Lay Children, take up your Cross and go. Fall again and again, but rise. Are you put aside the Cross and move away through your life journey? If not, are you carrying it even, if amidst fallings over and over? Children, following all religion, what is the path taken by the God whom you represent? Just meditate. Now is the time for everybody to hold hands together, forgetting all cast, race and creed related differences. Do not fear diseases. The world will have redemption through Repentance. Remain at home and start praying and raising up your cries to the Lord. What is the nature of life which you have to lead, as per your religious precepts while locked in your houses? Are you ready? Meditate upon what takes place around you, away from you. Do not be a nonhuman among human. Be a man amongst men. Be a human being. Let there be no hostility between you and another. Let there be no skirmishes among you. Love one another. Show goodwill to all. Share with others what you have received. If you are in such position today, the world will be safer than now. The annoying, perilous part of this is that Father, the Creator of the Universe continuously watching over those who appear for the people and those who have prospered along by the power of the people. Father who keeps on watching will punish the Leaders who fail to do good for the people. For, Oh!, the heaviness of sin, Government Leaders, who criticize each other, who expose others nakedness, you yourself have become naked, without you being aware of it. Awake now! All those who came to power by the people would suffer under these terrible calamities more than the helpless people. Therefore, discuss amongst yourselves and take whatever the steps that have to be taken. Offer your songs in praise, your prayers in faith and incense in adoration to your Father. The Great Purification will happen speedily through all these. Amen”

I,
Jesus Christ, your redeemer

04. That great torrential, outpouring of the Holy Spirit is coming to the world.
16th August 2020

“This is the voice and the command of Mine, the Lord God, being sent forth for the people of the whole world. My beloved Children, at this moment the whole universe is in a state of tension, being shattered and shaken up; mired in chaos and confusions and battling against storms and hurricanes of different hues and colours. It is the Father's plan. The Father is looking forward to the awakening of the people. In spite of all My messages, only a few are endeavouring to mend their ways, after having understood the gravity of My messages. My beloved children! It is from the Father that the people of the world receive love, in its abundance and grace. That great torrential, outpouring of the Holy Spirit is coming to the world. Many are becoming worthy to receive that great blessing. Also, the Father expectantly looks forward to make all worthy. God, who does not interfere with free will of the people keeps on still, waiting for the people to return back. God, the Creator of the universe, is enlightening the world and getting ready for the Second Coming. At this moment, the world and its people, are forming their lives in to a new, different pattern, through their present lifestyles. The Father keeps on looking, with open eyes till the people return back to the correct path, prepared by Father. The time for the descending of heavenly beings for the defeating of might of money and power, and for the building of the Kingdom of God on earth is very near.”

“My beloved children, I am the Lord God, who loves all the people of the world. I am the owner of everyone. The time for the dawning of the Kingdom of God on to this world, destroying into smithereens, the different kingdoms, built by them with the money and power in their possession is at hand. All the religious leaders, all children, a time will come when all of you will join together, as members of a family and think alike, all of you will get ready one day to live together, to walk together, and to lay claim to a single nation. As grains are separated through the process of winnowing, your God, the Lord Almighty is engaged in the process of separating and you have been separated and chosen. Beloved Children, the whole world, being shattered and shaken is getting ready from different angles through that great process of purification. The battle of the good and evil has been already started.”

“Sinful people! You, ask yourself. Become aware of your path. Be ready to see yourself. There are no cast, creed, and nationality-based differences. Your responsibility is to unite all nations, to unite all churches, to help each other, to love each other and to enable all to live as one humanity in one world. You have no right to harm others, to envy others, and to retaliate in vengeance against others. You owe love and compassion to those who envy you. You may pretend to have owned God in the eyes of the world, but in that, God keeps watching you. One may deceive another, but in that, The Lord of Heavens keeps on watching you. You will earn your own judgment against all vain things you pretend to own. Therefore, turn back and look into you. Love each other. Love from the bottom of your heart. Then, you will become a generation of people blessed by God. Your generation will go forward amidst great blessings of the Lord. Live like a true Christian, as a true member of the Church, true to your Christian Faith. Whatever be your religious faith be love each other, embrace each other and help each other in accordance with your faith. Then, a kingdom of God, so unique to yourself, will be established within you.”

“My beloved children, do not deceive yourselves. Whatever you demonstrate to the world through whatever you do, God who sees the interior of yourselves, will respond to that without fail. My beloved children, in all what you do, you cause pain to God, the Creator. Your Lord God who watches over the entire human race, would keep watch over you too. Leaders of the Churches, Leaders of the Governments, Leaders of other different religions, aligned to faith, be awaken all of you. Do not confine yourselves to a single faith and criticize each other; join hands with all others and unite and deliver a message to the world. Bring consolation to the Father. Be worthy to be seated at the right hand of the Father. My beloved children, build within you a realm of real Humanness. Receive the great blessings of the Heavenly Father. Don't let Satan come near you. All what you see as beautiful in the world, are not beautiful. Come out from the delusion that surrounds you, emerge out from the dark cloud that blinds you. Enter to live in the gleam of the divine Lord. Immerse yourselves fully in the power of the precious blood of the Lord God, who paid the supreme price in order to make your heart a heavenly place whiter than snow. Be purified by the precious blood. My beloved children, I announce this manner, not to shed blood by cutting and chopping. I announce this moment in order to soak yourselves in the precious blood of the divine shepherd who was crucified and died on your behalf. My beloved children, soak all your inabilities, and all your weaknesses in that precious blood.”

“The people are terrified because of a Virus which shook the world during this short period of time. Along this, the moulding of the Lord has begun. But, it's not over. My beloved children, this is an invitation extended to the people of the world. Turn back and look into yourselves. Be used to the task of finding your own self. Amend and correct all falls and failings. Receive the favour and the power of the most mighty-one. Let me in to be the great tree that helps you to build your life. Be ready to be a fruitful vineyard. Turn your life into a meaningful, fruitful life. You have years to hear, you have mouths to speak; eyes to see, hands and feet to move and work and a mind, a heart to think and plan. My beloved children, use all these for the righteous purpose. Stand on a noble vision. Listen to all what is good; possess all what is good; be filled with noble thoughts. Then, you will be able to bring in good produce to the world by developing good fruits in you. My beloved children, still you lack in preparations and listening. A dangerous time will come in the future. Therefore, inquire into what you do and ensure that all is well and fine and perfect. Then, you will be safe in spite all calamities that may crop up. You will receive safety and salvation. Your generation will be saved. This is indeed would be a great guidance of the Lord God. Be ready to be a unitary world where all races and all religions will unite as one. Be the spotless symbol of fulness and perfectness of the unitary world and win that world. My beloved children, this is my message to you.

I,
Jesus Christ, your Redeemer.

05. The whole universe will vibrate violently and the earth will be shaken wildly for a few minutes as the moment when the Lord God, the Most High and Almighty King sets His foot on earth comes near.
16th December 2020

“People of the world, I address you, hereby. This is the manifestation of the deepest love, which I who am the almighty Lord God, the creator of the universe and the one who loves all the people of the world immensely, show to you. I seek your assistance to enlighten the whole universe. My beloved children, at this moment, you are witnessing how the cleansing of the world, as described in sacred scriptures are set in motion speedily, as it had been preplanned. What a man cannot understand is how to discern between the righteous and unrighteous people and identify them properly. I invite you for a great repentance, beseeching God the Father for forgiveness against all the evil and wickedness of the unrighteous. It is time to transform from all those evil and wickedness.”

“Oh, people, you who are divided into different races, it's to you that I am speaking. All leaders, holding different leadership positions, it's you whom I address. Are you worthy of being a leader? The very motive of leadership should be providing justice to all fairly and squarely. My beloved children, you will become worthy of becoming a leader depending only on how you act in accordance with your conscience; inquire into the needs and wants of the people; dispense justice fairly, exhibiting traits of a great Judge. A judge when dealing with a trail should investigate matters fairly and equitably and deliver a right and impartial, victorious judgement. If you are a true leader, be a leader winning the trust and the confidence of the people. That's what I request from you. A person who keeps watch over all these things is watching over you too. I, the creator, the creator of the whole universe, listen to many things at the same time, at the same moment and keeps on watching the whole human society.”

“My beloved children, there is no end to the love of God. All what I, the almighty of the world ask from all of you is that you fill yourselves with heavenly treasures, but not with earthly riches. Stop going after others but look into your own self, you will be able to see your soul's defects and shortcomings. My dear children, the people of the world do not know how the world moves on. Because the Lord who created the universe, at times speeds up the purification process of the world and at times slows down the process and leads this movement through a great process of purification, while keeping his watch on all in the world. A ray of light in the firmament will bring light on the earth. In like manner, it will suck up into the sky the waters on the earth, vaporizes it and then gives back water and fertility to the whole earth. My beloved children, the world will face great calamity when the sun stop shedding its light on the earth. It will happen within a short period.”

“Also, within that great bond which binds the waters of the world with the heaven, a flow of electricity, running within the skies will impact the earth as a flash of bright light and on a certain day the earth will cease its movement. The point of this great calamity exploding into a violent, wildly flaming conflagration is very nearby. The vapour emerging out from the boiling waters will turn into a great cyclone; disorient the earth; and the people of the world would have to face a great trial and testing within a short period. The man yet does not know who God is. He who does not respect the One True God or fails to pay reverence to the creator of the universe, indeed is cursed. Who does pay obedience and reverence to God? He will become rich through graces endowed by God. God does not look at you the way the man look at you. The great heavenly shepherd looks at you as a shepherd who guards his sheep. My beloved children, there are no divisions and demarcations based on cast, creed, and race. The time has come for nations to rise against nations, and races to rise against races in hostility. In like manner, warnings have been sent to you in the past. Different kinds of diseases, different kinds of dangers are assailing you, and attacking the world. What has come down now is a frightening era. My beloved children awaken! Don't stay glued in the darkness. He who addresses you now is the one who loves you; who embraces you; and whom you do not recognize. Oh, sinful people, you who despise, reject, disrespect the word of God, I am watching you. Because I tell you again and again that the frightening time has now come.”

“Sons and daughters, leaders, heads of governments, church

dignitaries, I speak to you again. This is the time for you to meditate on your responsibilities. Firstly, you awaken yourselves. Then inquire of yourselves whether you have fulfilled your obligations towards the people. The world is a stage, it is an act. The whole world has turned out to be a prostitute. The moment has come for you to see that nakedness. See your own nakedness. Awaken! Walk through the voice of the Lord. My beloved children, the air gives you the breath of life. Water will enliven you. Breath of life has been given to you by your creator. If that is removed from you, you will fall as a chopped-out tree trunk. Therefore, now is the time for you to leave out all what you have been holding on to. God resembles a fire which burns with passionate love and violent rage. It is like a furnace burning with intense flames. This is the time for unfolding of these words which have been revealed to the Son by the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, the trinitarian God in all his power and glory. Many things revealed by the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, the trinitarian God are now being unfolded to the world by the immaculate Virgin Mary. Messages coming from heaven have been sent to the world through many prophets. My dear children, you cannot see God by praying aloud to be heard by the world. Prayer should indeed be your food. The word of God should indeed be your food. Prayer as well as your lifestyle, your internal being including your mind, your actions, and your behaviour should resemble a deep, intense prayer. My beloved children let your life flow down as a silent, motionless river. At times, violent tempests might rage within you without being felt by you. You will feel a great furnace, burning within you. Even if an attempt is made to make the loving of the world externally visible, no such thing could be done in God. The Lord who sees everything, will judge everyone and compensate fairly and equitably.”

“My beloved children! People of the world! The time that the groom comes to the bride is very near. Then the sky will burst out in thunder in loud noise. The world will burst forth in rejoicing and singing. The entire environment formed by the creator will rejoice and be happy. All and everything will rejoice and be glad. The world will be full of all riches and resources. The whole universe will vibrate violently and the earth will be shaken wildly for a few minutes as the moment when Lord God, the Most High and Almighty King sets His foot on earth is nearby. The entire world will continue with the vibration and the shaking for a few minutes. These divine commands, and information will reach the animals first. The animals know God more than the humans do. For once, the world will see their silence and motionlessness. Because of God's immense love, those who reject God's laws and commands will be thrown into burning furnaces and purified. Duration of such purification cannot be ascertained. Therefore, my beloved children, extend your hearts of love and hands of mercy, not only to those around you, but to the world at large. Love others, with a heart filled with mercy and compassion. Help each other. Stop serving yourselves only but help the others too. The bride is still unaware of the likeness of the groom. The bride is still not dressed up in proper manner. There are lot of defects, numbers of shortcomings.”

“My beloved children, your Lord is vigilant and stands with fixed attention on you, at all times, at every moment, at every second. As I revealed to you earlier, the time for a race to rise again another race, for a religion to rise against another religions, a nation against another nation is at hand and now therefore there is no room for prayer and offerings in the churches. Up to now trials are being conducted over an incident of this kind, commencing from the day it happened. The angels have descended to the world carrying their cups. One angel carries the cup of diseases. Another angel carries a cup full of destructive earthquakes and furious cyclones, to be leased out at different places. They have been stationed at different locations. On a nod from the Father, the world will stand still at once. This terrible time is on. My beloved children, this great revelation is for the whole world. This should be made known to the world through different languages.”

“Leaders of the Church, priests, and nuns awake. Because, the church too is seen in her nakedness, today. Because of this, a few from you will find the ways of the Lord and walk along with a burning thirst. It is necessary that you diligently and devotedly feed the sheep while dearly loving the vocation to which you have responded, while adoring the Lord God. Terrible will be your punishment if you have chosen the religious life for money and gain. Because I have appointed you to carry the poor sheep, groaning and crying in pain and misery. There will be no excuses for those who have chosen their profession for personal gain and glory. You may fool the people, but no one can fool the Lord. It's true and an absolute truth. It will be a disaster, if you assumed power and authority for the sole purpose enjoying earthly benefits and pleasures, accruing from them. If the words you utter are loving and pleasant, then you should live as true shepherds in accordance with those words and set an example. Then only it will be easy for you to lead others in correct ways.”

“All leaders, the poor people have chosen you for the performance of tasks entrusted to you to fulfill their needs and wants. You have been enshrined as leaders to provide a positive response to their expectations. You are appointed as leaders to do justice for the trust they have in you. Oh, the ferocity of the tragedy that awaits you, if you fail in your responsibilities. Because at the time of departing from this world, you will be confronted with numerous issues. Many people remain ignorant of the fact that they would have to undergo severe punishments in this very world in accordance with what they have done. The natural order of things and the environment itself would ensure that you are dealt with through that terrible trail and testing. Awaken! Ensure the words that you utter do not float and fly away in the wind. The words that come from you should be enlivening and life giving. Let no burning fires enrage within you by holding on to words that simply float and fly away. Let not the words which are capable of feeding you and also feeding others fly away from you, but hold them, own them.”

“People of this world enjoying all comforts and conveniences, the pleasure that you derive from those fortunes are temporary. But the suffering, poor people who continue to suffer devoid of all these fortunes, amidst all these misfortunes will be rich and rewarded in heaven. The poor and the marginalized people will enjoy rewards and riches in heaven. That's why it has been said that blessed are the poor. Because the Lord knows all hearts.”

“My followers whom I have chosen for these undertakings of mine, your call is not to sit aloof and isolated. You will test me, and I'll test you. You will criticize me. I'll forgive you. Followers! A journey, gathering people around me, in parts and parcels is not what I'm expecting from you. Remaining aloof and isolated, criticizing each other is not what I expect of you. Unite and come together, see your own nakedness, and come forward, at least now. Years ago, I have chosen you not to accept defeat, but to take this endeavour to the world, victoriously.

Awaken! I am Son of the Father. I reveal myself as commanded by the Father. I see my followers, who sit cornered, aloof, and isolated, criticizing me but expecting to see me performing miracles. What has now dawned is the time which you have been eagerly awaiting. Fires will start burning within you as you keep on watching. The time for crying and beseeching the Lord for mercy and forgiveness will come nearer to you.”

I see a character who was brought to this world in human body, in the form of a woman. I see her being criticized, being rejected, being laughed at by the world through these words revealed by the Father through this very character. Then, the number of times forgiveness is given will be numerous and countless. This character, chosen from a poor slum, in a village like lowly environ to lead a life amidst much misery and grief, has allowed me to speak aloud to the world in this manner. She is not the lovely woman whom the world sees, but she is the immaculate, flower filled with sweet fragrance who sees the Lord. She is that beautiful flower blooming in mud. As it blooms when being taken from one place to another, then that land becomes fertile. Fertile and prosperous days will dawn on many people who are sent before her. The Lord who listens to their woes and agonies will shower blessings upon them. I will let them who come to test Me to drown in their own testing and allow them to criticize, mock, and vilify Me to proceed along in their own wild behaviour. The Lord does not perform miracles. But the Lord's words remain the same. I am who I am.”

My beloved children don't be misled by false values and ideals and confine yourselves in utter gloom and darkness. Do not desire to live in outwardly, apparent joys of the world. But hasten to acquire heavenly treasures, meditating on the words of the Lord when they come to you. You, yourselves, look into you, and purify yourselves. Free yourselves of worldly desires. set aside all these; be prepared to burry even your body in the soil. At a certain time, The Lord will send His angels to take your life breath' your souls. At a certain time, the Lord will send his angels to take up your life and soul. That's the very treasure which you should preserve purely. Awful and great will be the tragedy that befalls on the people who remain immerse in sin while criticizing each other. Now you cannot say that the Lord has not revealed this to you, that He has not given any prey-indications regarding these. I announce these through this last message.”

“Man has no rest. He runs as he is in a running track. Stop for a while. Rest for some time. Enjoy the beauty of the world. Rejoice in the Lord. Be aware and be inquisitive of what happens around you. Turn back and take a look on to your thought. Though you have many treasures in the world, you are poor in the Lord. You have nothing. Though you are poor in the world, you are rich in the Lord. Do not bow down before wealth and power. Just think a while. Were you able to escape from the virus which is now on rampage, even though you have wealth? Wealth and power cannot solve any of them. One who lives in the Lord and His grace will escape. Meditate with spiritual fervor over what's now happening in the world. You should necessarily be a person, filled with fear of the Lord. When you fear the Lord, the Heavenly Father will bless you. It is not only praying loudly that the heavenly Father expects from you but leading your life in accordance with the prayers you pray. When you provide some guidance to someone, ask of yourself whether it is proper to do so. Just before providing guidance and counselling to redeem a person, just stop and think whether you have saved yourself. My beloved children, the world has turned out to be a prostitute today. Few are those who are pure. Therefore, listen attentively to this powerful message. Take whatever that should be taken. Decide, to come forward with the living God. Do not live with worthless, vain, and mean ideals. Seeing the defects, failings in others, do not criticize them. If possible, extend your arms to redeem them. Forgive them. If you hate someone, holding on to some dark, grave matter against them in your heart, reject them and unable to forgive them, then you are not a child walking in the ways of the Lord; you will not become a heir to heavenly riches.”

“This is the message of the Lord God, who is almighty, most powerful; who has descended down to be with you; who loves you all in the same manner with no divisions or differences; who loves all mankind with least regard to religious limitations. Lead a religious and righteous life, in spite of the religion you profess. Do not confine yourselves to any belief. Enjoy your freedom, without malice and ill will. You will be confined within the walls of Lord's protection and saved. Listen to the Lord. Desire after the acquisition of heavenly riches. My dear children, the message that I give you is this. A father admonishes his children not because of anger, but to correct them and reform them out of love, care, and concern. The love which the heavenly Father shows to you far exceeds the love of an ordinary father by leaps and bounds; it's abundant and knows no boundaries. My beloved people, all my children, I love you all; exceedingly I love you. Therefore, I say to you again, awaken, the days have become frightening. Turn and look at your life again. Try to rebuild your life. This is the messages, you receive from me. When ordered by the Father, I'll return to you again. I the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit bless you. I will fill you with divine graces. Amen.

I,
Jesus Christ, your redeemer.

06. Feed your body with the blood which I shed on Calvary.
21st February 2021

“My beloved Children, I the Lord God, hereby speak to you to redeem the world from the dense darkness which has engulfed whole universe. My beloved Children, by now the forces of evil and unrighteousness have descended on earth to wage war against justice and righteousness. The Great War between righteousness and unrighteousness has begun. Your creator whom you have possessed and in whom you believe declares to you: 'Come to me, by looking into yourselves through all your thoughts, deeds and conduct, and correcting yourselves always and at every moment'. My beloved Children, this very moment is now in a very precarious situation. Every moment that begins from now onward will be very dangerous to the humankind. The world is heading towards a very dangerous juncture. My beloved Children, everything that had been foretold from time immemorial is now happening. The Evil spirit has now penetrated the Holy Church, doing many things to destroy the Church.”

“Leaders of the Church, leaders of the countries, all leaders, this announcement is to you. Do you look into yourselves and fulfill the responsibilities that have been entrusted to you, faithfully? Every step that you take, right throughout your earthly existence should be taken in accordance with your conscience and then do what is good always. You will be rewarded according to the good and evil you gather. Now it has begun. Good and evil, you will reap through all what you do. Therefore the world is passing through a dangerously decisive moment now. By now, the one who is very dangerous has entered the world to fight and engage in war.”

“My beloved children, I the universal creator keep watching over you with loving and merciful eyes to save the lives of all human beings. Be awaken! A few days from now, food and drink will become a rare commodity to many. My beloved children! be fed through the Lord. This earth will become barren so as not to give you water. Water is essential for human existence. In future there will be many droughts. As they intensify, the droughts will lead to fires. Today, in many places, throughout the world, Heavenly Father is engaged in purifying the world, venting out his anger in a dangerous manner.”

“Awake my dear Children, the whole world has been shaken by a virus, today. But this is not the end. Many more things will come in the future. This is what I ask of the people. My beloved children stay away from the vaccination that has now come. Because it will be harmful to you. This is a dangerous conspiracy, my beloved Children! Because of greed for power many things will be caused using this i.e., to bring the world to very critical, dangerous situation, to remove people, and to set nations against nations. People will scramble to receive the vaccination, thinking that there is no other remedy to save men. Awaken, my beloved Children. This will lead to many other diseases and illnesses. Therefore, be on your guard. Feed your bodies with the blood that I shed on Calvary. Get immersed in that blood. Receive your salvation through that. You will receive an abundant power, when you look back and adjust your life. You will be freed of many illnesses. You will receive protection.”

“The moment has now come for embracing each other, lovingly, unitedly, forgetting differences and casting out caste, creed, and race-based divides and divisions. Be united. Be of one mind. Political and State leaders awaken, at least now. Stop pointing fingers against each other. Meditate on your sins. Turn and look back. Now is the time to enter that great moment of repentance. Confess the sins you have committed. If not, a great force which you can neither see nor comprehend will take you to be moulded. You have no escape from this. This is the truth. This is the most dangerous revelation. Be ready to explore the truth and rectify your life.”

“People of the world! Open your eyes covered by darkness, and see. Turn towards light, away from darkness. Be alert. Meditate on what you must do to bring about a happy day tomorrow. Live in the Lord to light up tomorrow's world in love. In spite of your religious inclinations, stay firm in faith. Victory could be achieved in life. My beloved children listen to the message I reveal to you. Possess the truth of the message and be ready to be victorious in life. AMEN!

I,
Jesus Christ, your redeemer.

Lord Jesus has fulfilled that message of 21st February 2021 in a very perfect manner, when He addressed the 'Daham Navodaya' community on 19th July 2021

“...During these terrible times, I entrust you all to Infant Jesus. All of you invite Infant Jesus, come to me and enter into me, become my sigh. During this time, it has become necessary to be vaccinated against the virus (in every country of the world). Earlier, before I have told you not to be get caught by this vaccine but avoid it. Therefore, many helpless people including those engaged in jobs are inquiring from me, 'Jesus, what should we do now?' This is the suggestion that I make to defeat the Satan. If you are called to face such a situation (compelled to be vaccinated), then what you would have to do is to invite Infant Jesus. Tell this. “Infant Jesus, be my sigh and enter into me along with my breath. If there is anything in this vaccine that is against You, against me; Infant Jesus, remain within my body, gather them all and expel them as I exhale.

Remember well, my profound message. That is the man must first obey the divine laws. Secondly, they must obey the state laws. Fear not, therefore to take these vaccines. You will feel that no harmful effects travail you, as Infant Jesus is within you.

When that vaccine is received under the first phase, you will be issued with a card. Receive it. Next comes the most dangerous vaccine. Then you will be able to evade it. What is necessary is to have the card, you received, Isn't it? The vaccine that comes next is from Lucifer. This is the plan. It is a conspiracy. They try to draw the people towards that, it starts from America. Along with that, plans are being made to insert men with a chip and 666. Now the book of Lucifer is being opened. Therefore, everybody should remain on alert. I have come at this moment, especially to give this profound message to my children.

...It is at the end, that the Lucifer's vaccine comes. That's why I told you to receive it for now. When you take it now, no complications and adverse side effects will occur. But, later will. That's their plan too. Now it has become public all over the world, through revelations. They know it. So, they are clever, cunning and secretive. But God is more secretive and prudent. Failure to get vaccinated contravenes government rules. Admission to hospitals will be denied if the card is not produced. No foods, drinks etc. could be purchased. Sick children will not be able to obtain treatment. The card should be produced for that. These will come in the future. That's why, I permit you, at the first phase. Even there too, do it, (seeking refuge in Infant Jesus) and get vaccinated. It will not be a problem. Is it not the card that's wanted at first? Later during the last stages, you can evade it. There is no need to fear as you have the card.

07. Here is the Message given by the Lord God to the Nation of Sri Lanka
23rd July 2022

“This is a divine decree. This is the message given by the Lord God to the nation of Sri Lanka. This is directed towards all leaders. Where does your leadership stand? This the revelation which each one of those leaders should know. If you are a part of the government administrative setup, now you should inherit this and hold on to it deeply and firmly. The message is... Leaders of the government, your destruction resembles a raging fire in hot pursuit after you. I will execute the process of cleansing the nation in this manner. It will come, at times like as a wild fire, at times as a devastating storm. Beloved children, I love you. But, I do not see an emergence of fear of God in you even amidst the great mercies of God. Oh the great magnitude of the devastation that awaits you, who are filled with selfishness and greed for the power. Now, one will fall over the other, engaged in fighting. It will not stop. Because the people have violated the divine decrees and commands, the earth has been spoiled and made polluted. I, the Lord God, therefore with a view to cleanse and bring about a clean and a righteous nation, will make the young sons and daughters, elders and the whole population united and stringent.”

“All government leaders, the great woe that awaits you who have adorned yourselves with status power and selfishness. The number of the living will gradually come down, for they will be laying their lives for the sake of justice. Blessed are those who suffer on account of justice, for the kingdom of God is theirs. The joy and contentment has deserted the nation. A long fight and hard striving is necessary to re-establish it. The earth is burdened with sin. The weight of the burden of sin has increased to such an extent that the earth is on the verge of exploding and ending up in total destruction. The severity of sin is such that its time that powers in heaven punishes rulers on earth. There is a limit to God's patience. Lord God is love itself, but also wrath. The gaze of the Father is now upon this Land. It is in this Land that in ancient times, the divine plan, regarding Adam and Eve has begun. The task of cleansing this nation which has been desecrated by unrighteous influences has now fallen on the shoulders the Lord God. It indeed a task owned by God. Now the time has come for the commencement of the workings of God. Children, now you have to lead a righteous life. My duty is to teach you the lesson on My righteousness, from time to time. The ocean may erupt up violently at times, and may remain calm at other times. So is the wrath of God. I the Creator gaze upon the entire creation and all happenings patiently and on observing disobedience will mete out punishment with mighty, violent waves, coupled with strong winds as the oceans do and purify all. So, what happens now is the rolling out of Lord God's process of purification.”

“I speak to you, Children at the protest ground. I bless you all who have forsaken everything, all your desires and rights to fight for justice for the sake of all the people. Be not afraid, you will win. Truth will triumph rising defeating all lies and fabrications. You will continue fighting, even if you fall one upon another while fighting, bleeding profusely, soaking the sin in your blood, until the righteous head of state of this land is brought forth. I will establish that leader from amongst you. At a time like this, where everything has rotten immersed in lies, and deception, I have sent the friends of My kingdom to you. They will make stringent all and every young sons and daughters. My powerful forces of Angels have surrounded you. I hold you securely within that mighty grasp. I will make you an instrument in my hand to cleanse the Land. All people! Stay awake. Awake, not for your own sake only but on behalf of all and go out, assemble in groups, unite as one, be of one mind. Because, it is for your rights that they are fighting.”

“All religious leaders, this is the time to unite as one. This is not the time to worry about cast, creed and nationality barriers. All obstacles could be defeated and overcome when everybody unite as one, as the children of one mother. Let us hold hands together. I will pour upon you all powerful blessing in torrents. Gather as a commune and unite as one. Fear not, come forward. You will have a place in my kingdom if you have to sacrifice your life. Awaken all ye who fight in the cause of others, on behalf of the future generation, and clamouring for justice for the dawning of the righteous era. I have made you stringent. This struggle which is continued for building up a righteous Kingdom, amidst much bleeding, with no food for hunger, no water for thirst, sharing of sorrow, much dedication and whole hearted unity will not come to an end from this point. Let's continue fighting till the dawn of the true righteous Kingdom. It will reach it's successful culmination very soon. In this way, the new State will be set up. Let's provide a message to the world from this Land. This will be a mighty blow for all heads of states of the world. With awe and admiration, all people of the world will watch this. One day in future, all people of the world will talk about this small nation which will shine like a light unto the world.”

“All heads of State, delay not any further. Still, there is time for change, turning back and repenting. All what is defiled is unrighteous. It is diabolic force. Do not be victimized by it. Repent and retract entrusting all to the young sons and daughters, allow them to proceed. I will give you further time. Though you enjoy all comforts and conveniences now, a day will come when you will have to enter into great weeping and clamouring. Therefore, you rulers, awake! Direct your eyes of mercy and compassion towards all. Stop piling up things through unjust and covetous means. Let this be a turning point in your life. Entrust all and be silent. If not, alas! Great will be the woe that await you. The wrath of God will pursue you as a wild fire. At time it will surround you as a violent storm. Yet, you have not realized the gravity of your sins. That will be made to be felt to your conscience. This is the most frightening revelation which has been made by Me. Be awake, at least now. I bless you, all Children engaged in the Struggle. All my friends in heaven will assist you; Hosts of my heavenly Angels have surrounded you. They will guard you, strengthen you and become an effective weapon in your hands. Because, the Lord God turned you to be an instrument in His hands in leading you to cleanse this Land.”

I,
Jesus Christ, your redeemer.