

“My Second Coming is at hand. What happens now is the Great Process of Purification for the sake of that Glorious Coming.”

1. The experience, I have gained about the Holiness of God, on the 6th of June 1981 has been recorded in the 54th chapter of “Footsteps of the Holy Spirit”. 40 years have elapsed since 1981-2021 I gained that experience. During those 40 years, when I recited the prayer, taught by Lord Jesus, the words that escaped from my mouth were “Holy be your name”. After having been confused, broken apart, and suffering to the maximum within that, and then enjoying the sweetness of the fatherly love, contained within that experience of Holiness, I had no ability, whatsoever to shorten the words “Holy be your name”. Following the first experience I gained about divine holiness, the Lord revealed himself to me throughout those 40 years, up until now, through numerous experiences about divine holiness. But unlike the first experience of divine holiness, I do not break down on account of them. The reason for this is the fact that I had enjoyed the taste of the fatherly love, contained in my first experience of divine holiness. Therefore, however much discomforting be the experiencing of divine holiness, which happens over and over, what is contained therein is a hope. Because of this hope all inconveniences that the experiencing of divine holiness entails, is tolerable. Therefore, in the first experience of divine holiness that we happen to experience, it is very important to enjoy the taste of the Fatherly love contained in the first experience of divine holiness where undergoing to the maximum the attendant confusions and breakdown.

The gruesome bomb blasts, that took place in three churches during the divine service on the day of the Feast of the Resurrection of Lord Jesus which is the year’s holiest feast of the Christian people (Easter Sunday) is the first experience of the divine holiness, this country faced. The disaster even the whole world faces because of the corona virus is the first experience of divine Holiness the world is facing today. The world is in the process of understanding to some extent the positive signs taking place for rebuilding man’s spirituality through the Corona disaster. But this country still continues to be unable to understand the fatherly love contained in experience of the divine holiness this country experienced on 21st of April 2019. It is to make us understand the Fatherly Love contained in these events that Lord Jesus says the following words to us: you yourself deeply study and understand those words of Lord Jesus.

(Extracted from the Chapter 53 of Footsteps of the Holy Spirit)

2019 April 21- Easter Sunday

"... It was the groom (Jesus) who sacrificed his life on behalf of his bride (the humankind), then. During the festive mass on the day of my resurrection, the bride sacrificed her life on behalf of me at three churches...In accordance with a great plan The Father preparing the moment for My Second Coming by controlling everything... What must happen at this moment is not criticizing that politician or this leader but each one seeing himself /herself."

2019 April 24

"...Let all intercede through prayer on behalf of all with regard to all those calamities...A great, deep plan is due from this year...If it is the Father's plan that is implemented through each of them, no one can stop them. In the hearts of many the following query could crop up: "Why did this happen to these people as they went to express their faith in God?" No one can question this. It is a portion incomprehensible to man. It should happen if it is the Father's plan. Crucifying Jesus is a plan of the Father. Hence the cross was chosen let the son be sacrificed Himself. Jesus knew that at this moment the plan of the Father was this. Mother Mary knew this. She did not go on to argue about it. She willingly submitted to it. No one can say anything, in these events. If it was the plan of the Father, it had to be faced. If man faced it knowingly, he would be frightened. Then what should happen does not happen.

2019 May 30

"God created the humankind. The man divided mankind into races. Thus, the divides based on race, religion and cast emerged. Through those divisions, man suffers being unable to love each other. Within those divisions, men are caught up in strife and struggles. Thus, this happens, centered on a so created race, jointly with another group. There are many divisions within that group. In this there is a methodology by which when a section does something all the sections add points to their sides. They think that they would have a place in heaven and would inherit these things, if they wiped out a certain number of people on earth. This is what the lord of sins reveals to them. So, what's happening now is this. The great plan of the devil has begun. My second coming is at hand. Now what happens is the process of great purification, for the sake of that glorious coming. Grand buildings will come down. This is just a beginning. That happened on a date which you would not forget. It is the day of commemorating My victory of resurrection. Why was that day been especially selected? It is the day, which initiates the victory of the bride. Because from there is the beginning of the process of cleansing of all that is impure...The process of purification should reach its end successfully for the victory of the bride to become full...What happened on Easter Sunday was just a beginning. It was small indicator only. All those things will happen in the future. It is the victory of the bride (the humankind). Therefore, do not disregard these revelations. Those revelations are true. Mother Mary is suffering and shedding tears because those revelations are disregarded."

2019 June 04 - In our Community prayer of the Feast of the Holy Spirit

"Up to now, instead of commemorating the victory of the Holy Spirit, as the Festive Day of the Holy Spirit, the victory of the bridegroom (Lord Jesus) has been commemorated more grandly. Today, you are commemorating the victory of the bride (humankind), on account of the people who paid with their lives on that Easter Sunday, and on account of that Great Victory. Today, having gone to Catholic or a Christian church to adore God and having been called to sacrifice their lives looms large as a question to many. No one can change the plans of the Heavenly Father. God the Father had known that Judas would betray me. I, Jesus also knew, but we remained as if unaware and allowed that to happen, because in accordance with the plan of the Father it must have happened the way it happened; my crucifixion had to happen in that way. Even though Judas repented, wept, and committed suicide, Heavenly Father took his soul to the heavenly abode, because Judas was instrumental in executing the Father's plan. Then, they bore ill will anger against Judas, thinking as to why he who, stood by me and moved with me had to betray me in that manner. Even today that keeps happening, as in the past. Those bombers were used in carrying out the plan of the Father. They have the mercy and the forgiveness of the Father. God will carry out the purification of the two thirds, through whatever a manner deemed fit to Him. This is merely the beginning; many things will happen in time to come...A beautiful (splendid) world will be constructed again, through the sacrifices of many lives. Everything that happens in this regard is accepted as sacrifices in heaven".

2019 July 19

"Beloved Children, the whole universe is now in state of turmoil. It is a part of the God's test. In this moment, what God expects from every human being is great love, a universal love, becoming one with the universal love of the one who is love, is expected from all."

2. We have to understand, still further, and more deeply the fatherly love embedded in the great works of the divine holiness, which began and was found in the experience of divine holiness on 21st April 2019. I wish to present you again some points included in several chapters in the "Footsteps of the Holy Spirit", that understanding is important for this meditation.

i. Jesus has addressed the disciples of 'Daham Navodaya' and said the following.

"This is a journey reaching towards holiest of holiness, proceeding from holiness and further. I have a small number caught up in my plan. There is a big world which does not understand this. You therefore should develop a deeper relationship between this small group of you and me. There should be submission towards the creator, always." (46) If this is a journey going towards holiest of holiness, through holiness itself, it will be terrible for mankind; but it's very conducive for the spiritual upliftment of mankind. "The war between righteousness and evil will begin from this country." Through these revelations, Jesus has said so. It began on Easter Sunday in 2019. You might think why this started in this country. What takes place in this country are the great works of righteousness, conducted against unrighteous activities. That is the divine plan against this. The activities set on motion along with the Easter Sunday Bomb blasting will drag on till the dawning of the righteous era. All these sufferings are the birth pangs for the dawning of the righteous era. The revelations and warnings of Christ Our Lord and Mother Mary regarding these events are taking place in many places. What happen in our country are not only revelations and warnings regarding them, the Lord's great activities against unrighteousness takes place from this country. Lord Jesus has said this regarding this phase, which has now begun. "For then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, and never will be. And if those days had not been shortened, no human being would be saved; but for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened." (Mathew 24:21-22) (54)

ii. God, the universal creator, took human form under the name of Jesus and came into a sinful world. It is to a world going through a process of purification that Lord Jesus, who overcame death and rose again, will come through his glorious second coming. It is God who arranges all what's necessary to send His only begotten Son to this world. Therefore, this is a great purification performed by God the Father, himself. God the Father initiated this great purification on 2019 Easter Sunday, in our country. God the Father will carry out this great purification throughout the whole world. Even, Corona Virus, now raging throughout the world is part of that process. All the nations of the world will break apart and fall. The great mountains of pride will be leveled down. When Lord Jesus returns in glory, two thirds of the humans would have to depart from this world. The balance one third should be subjected to a process of intense purification. It is the divine plan for that. That whole process of purification will be carried out by God the Father. This is a fact of life which the whole humankind should experience. What Jesus asks for, to be saved victoriously from all these calamities is freeing of self from all forms material things and getting nearer to God the Father; to return to the correct and righteous path, preached by all religious founders; and to cry to the Lord in prayer not only for self-redemption but for the redemption of the people of the world. (53)

iii. "I think I must make matters clear as to the 3 ½ year period, during which the Evil One would have approval from the Lord Most High to engage upon his mighty acts. In this regard, I wish to quote from a letter written by Rev Fr. P. K. N. Adhikari, published in the 'Gnanartha Pradeepaya' of 9th June 1996. "...On 13th October 1884 Pope Leo XIII, during a vision he had, had listened to conversation between God and Satan and his devils. The Satan and the fellow devils have boasted and vowed to banish faith in God away from the world and to establish the power of the hell, all over the world. They requested that they be allowed to tempt and test the whole world, as they were allowed to do in the days of Job, as referred to in the Old Testament. The Satan received permission from the Lord. He used the twentieth century wherein men have reached the zenith of development through science and technology, for this purpose. Soon after this, the Pope requested the faithful of world to recite the prayer, 'O St Michael, the Archangel, defend us in the day of our battle'. Thereafter, Lucifer and his messengers took the people entrusted to them into their hands and made strategies to ensure their victory. There is no country that does not face struggles, earthquakes, floods, tempests and blood baths, toady. The adversary has placed his hands on Sri Lanka too...God brought forth people, who are committed to preserve and protect the faith in proportion to the degree that the Adversary has become powerful. The six Medjugorge visionaries have said that this battle would be a battle between the children of God and the Adversary. Mirjana of Medjugorge, one of the visionaries states that the Mother of God had told them that there are three things of which the Satan is unaware, even though he has been granted permission to persecute the world.

The first of them is...God the Father, has sent Mother Mary, the woman of the divine promise, to the world through her numerous apparitions, to warn and protect His faithful from danger.

The second is...God pouring down, all over the world graces and blessings, which never before have been granted.

The third is...God sending faithful souls, befitting seasons and times and strengthening them through His blessings to stand firm in the face of lies, fabrications and falsehoods presented by the Adversary. No sooner than the power of Satan is established, it is sure that his downfall and the victory of God will be established. (51).

iv. You might say that in the four Gospels nowhere is mention made about the preparation of the world for the Glorious Second Coming of Lord Jesus and the great purification carried out for it by the Heavenly Father Himself. That thought of yours is very true. Jesus says thus. "In spite of whatever I said, priestly sons Godfrey and Benedict believed that out of my love; there is a preparation for my second coming. Today many priestly sons do not have it in them. The two priestly sons referred to above, knew that many things I had said about my second coming were just a loving reprimand from me." (49) Why is nothing mentioned in the Bible about the preparation for the second coming of Lord Jesus? Lord Jesus explains that in this manner. "My Children, all those who hold conventional thinking of the world see this activity of mine as unconventional. But, the time for all these unorthodox things to become orthodox is very near...This mysterious activity of mine is not mentioned in the Holy Scriptures. At that occasion I prevented the person, who was to prophesize about this, because had it been mentioned, the people would have accepted this activity of mine with great piety and reverence. My Father's plan was that this phase taken place amidst abuse, humiliation and suffering. It is not mentioned in the Holy Scriptures that I would be acting in this way to prepare the world for my second coming. But, a very little bit of these have been mentioned. That is I'll deliver my revelations through little ones, hiding them from the learned and the able. (36)

"Children, it is regarding this time that Prophet Joel has mentioned. I, the Almighty and Magnificent directed him towards this. But it is only a few things that I have allowed him to talk. I arranged to contain many things that would happen, in those few sayings. I suppressed some things which were to be written down by the prophet. So, something that which has not been mentioned in the Bible is happening now. I did not allow the prophet to mention about my activities that is, establishment of the supreme congregation, selecting of its shepherd and the disciples and selecting of its servants and maid servants, leading to my second coming. The reason is Children! If this process has been mentioned in the Holy Scriptures, your journey will become very easy. When this happens, you will be acknowledged by people. This process, being unrolled for my glorification, should take place as a parallel journey to my salvific, Calvary journey. That's why I prevented it from being recorded. What I meant specially by the words, servants and maidservants, as recorded in the holy scriptures was my first handmaid, my young handmaid and my servant, also about the pattern of special revelations which I'll make using them. An individual, sent by me will record, in future, the process now being unrolled amongst you, commencing from the last blank page of the bible. (39)

3. The 2019 Easter Bomb blast and the Corona Virus epidemic opened up the terrible phase of God's holiness to this country and the whole world. But it had been appointed that this terrible phase be initiated about twenty years before. It's the Lord who has postponed the initiation by twenty years. This has been recorded on 20th August 1999 in this manner. "I still wait, on behalf of my sheep, because my compassion is boundless. Therefore I have lengthened the period of compassion for the sake of my sheep." (23) Most of the words uttered by Lord Jesus, as recorded in the publication "Footsteps of the Spirit" relate to this phase. About 20 years from now, in year 2001 the terrible phase of God's holiness was poured on Lord Jesus' first handmaid and the disciples of the congregation and thereby the works of the Lord was executed. This could be identified as a rehearsal for the terrible phase of God's holiness to take place in 2019. God unfolds the special features of the divine actions found in the terrible phase of God's holiness. Read chapters 25-29 of "Footsteps of the Holy Spirit" and come to know of it. I now wish to place before you, the special features of divine holiness of this phase.

1. The holy inferno of God, burning down the sinful fire of the wicked one which has engulfed the entire mankind of the world will soon erupt. It will be a terrible event.
2. As it unfolds, God will set in motion a series of events to direct people towards repentance and to build up righteous lives.
3. God will get certain tasks done through those who have already committed themselves in their free will for this cause.
4. Therein, the fruits of obedience and the affects of disobedience to God can be reaped.

5. If God's demands are forsaken and disobeyed, God will get his intent fulfilled, even by pouring down his contempt and displeasure.
6. When God extends his guiding hands to those who opt to yield to God's demands, even amidst difficulties, and when he rains down his contempt on those who disobey to what He says, the seeds will be sown for the re-enactment of Old Testament-day mighty deeds, things happened during the exodus, and those that happened following the descent of the Holy Spirit on the apostles, as referred to in the Holy Bible. It will be a time when the fires will be re-kindled, on earth. (Luke 12:49-53). I have recorded here, the relevant sections of Chapter 28 of "Footsteps of the Holy Spirit".
7. All nations will fall apart. The economy and the, high flying power centers will crumble and fall.

I now place before you a few sections, picked from Chapters 25-29 of the "Footsteps of the Holy Spirit".

"This is the time, the terrible time for the coming of all these 666, the Dragon and Beast. People are fast asleep. This is the time the traditional church should be awakened." (25)

"The future is the war between good and evil. All of you achieve victory, upholding the mighty weapon of My name." (26)

"The day of my coming is fast approaching. The days of collapsing of all and everything are fast approaching. Walk with me. I am engaged, in the process of preparing all those who yield a good harvest, and bear good fruits to build my kingdom... The time to walk through burning fires has come. A few days from now, the time will come when the nations of the world will break apart, and all hopes and expectations will be shattered. That moment is imminent. Develop yourselves, trusting in the promises relating to the divine kingdom..." "I am the God of love. My love as well as my wrath is alike. To whoever doth disobey my commands, to him my wrath will follow. To whoever doth obey my commands, to him my love will pursue." (27)

"This indeed is the exile. This is an incident, which I'll begin within this era. Holy things that happened in the former times are just repeating...I pointed out that my love will pursue, coming after you. I'll ensure that you fall in line with my wishes even when you hesitate to obey my commands, compelling you to come after me, leaving everything. The time for me to express in a similar manner to others is nearing. The future is very dreadful. The time for walking amidst burning fires keeps approaching. No one who got drawn in my hands can flee from me." (28)

"I am the love which pursues, and the holiness which pursues. I know that today a situation, which prevents men from loving, has arisen. Today the entire world is caught up in a race. I see a world, where no one is ready to empty himself... My children, I am Holiness. Whoever gets caught in my hands cannot flee away from me. My labours are many. I will get all of them done through them. I am the love, which pursues... If a person, who is in my fold, refuses me, then my wrath will follow him. I am the pursuing love and the pursuing wrath. I do all these things, as directed by My Heavenly Father. My desire should be to fulfill my Father's will till the day I stand before the Father with you. Your desire in turn should be to fulfill my will." (29)

Setting the world on fire [Holy Bible – Luke 12:49-53] “The most terrible stage of the Holiness of God the Father is setting the world on fire. It’s the fire of the Holy Spirit. It will be a moment of cleansing of the world, which stands divided as a result of lack of love between each other. It will be the moment when the mankind, caught up in division differences arising from maternal love, paternal love, filial love, matrimonial love, love of the nation and the race will be elevated to taste universal love; the moment at which the world will be set on fire of universal love. Universal love means extending the love a person shows to his parents, to his children towards the entire mankind. When a person is elevated to a higher level of universal love, conflicts and confrontations at levels and stages below that level of love cannot be avoided. There, he will have to submit to the will of the creator-the owner, exceeding the rights of the guardians (father and mother).” (28)

4. Lord Jesus has announced to us, through His young handmaid also the most terrible stage of the Holiness of God the Father which has now dawned. Please read Chapters 38-42 of “Footsteps of the Holy Spirit” and understand it. I wish to place before you a few sections, extracted from those of Chapters.

“For the sake of my return everybody should pay a price. In the past, thousands of children paid a price at my birth. The sinless Lord became a price on behalf of all people of the world...The time for your Lord God to act gloriously is at hand. I will show you the deeds of my mighty hands, as in the Exodus of the past. Therefore, this indeed is a fortunate as well as a ferocious period. I’ll show everybody in the world that there is no God other than I the creator...I will devastate everything soon. I will increase the intensity of the devastation throughout the earth by two fold, three fold. Not only I will devastate but I will provide the answers too. Now answers are required...I am rebuilding man who is at the pinnacle of my creation. Because of love I will carry on the process of rebuilding dreadfully. Now it should definitely happen. Children, my love has no conditions attached. My wrath also has no conditions.” (38)

“In this manner I’ll take you, my supreme community towards my plan. I myself do all what’s necessary in that regard. You must do only what I ask you to do. I’ll choose at least thousands from this country, and the world, enable them to see my visions, and lead them to the priests. Through that I’ll confound and confuse the Church; I’ll shake this country. I’ll also announce this activity of mine through my angles to each one. No one can stop the working of my hand. Because, I’m the Son of the Almighty. Who will ever be able to stop those who through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, witness my visions? I who am the Creator, am able to talk to the priests through visions. I’ll do even that.” (39)

“Look at this country. It is a small mass of land placed on a surface of water. Look at the destruction going on therein. If I allow this to happen to a small country of this size, to an ancient Island of Dhamma what would be the destructions which would cut across many other countries? When the day of the Lord’s wrath arrives everything will be surely destroyed, irrespective of their magnitude, wealth and power. Children, keep on watching the way I confuse everything.” (40)

In the Tsunami, Jesus told in this manner:

“...These are just minute particle in comparison to those things which you will see in the future. It is decreed for many more things to happen. The devastation comes at a time when no one thinks of it. A single moment is sufficient for the Lord to shake the universe. Now you are in the presence of the Holy One who shakes the foundations of the whole universe. You have established a friendship with the Lord. The Lord who shakes the world and causes it to reverberate. Who is the person whom you called as your Father? It is the Lord who causes Holy devastation...When everything happens meditates upon the words of the Lord. There is a time for eating, drinking and rejoicing, but this is not the time for that. This is the time to cry and make supplications on behalf of people who are suffering and made helpless under the yoke of grief and agony. This will be your mission even for the future. What is going to happen in future will not be pleasant. Because, the people have cried up for all these evil and unpleasant things to happen to the Lord of all evil an unpleasant things. That one therefore will ensure that those things come to pass. The Holy one will claim right all what is Holy. Who can tell how far this will proceed from this point? Let the able ones remain immaculate. The next devastation will take place within a second in a manner you never thought of. Definitely everything will end up pulled up and pulverized. But the Lord will bear responsibility for all these on account of all what belongs to him...Remember the Nineveh of the past. It was the land, which the Lord chose for destruction. It was just only one country. But by this time the world, which I created and the people on it resemble the Nineveh of the past. There is no use even if eyes are open to see around. No one engages in them within their heart of hearts. The devastation, which awaits to happen next will not be felt by even the shadow of a person. I bore up many things because of love. All are happening now because of love. Therefore everything has started to happen because of the Holy Love of the Lord...Cry unto the Lord, not through words but through your interiors. Because the next thing to happen will be more disastrous, it is sure. The Lord has arranged for everything to get confused in a manner never thought of. No one can say that nothing had been foretold, as the creator Lord has announced everything in presence of His chosen people...Everything keeps on happening; everything keeps on being formed on account of the day of the Lord. There is love at a time and anger at a time within the Lord and they emanate out under His direction. Therefore what is destined to happen will surely happen... Whatever be the religion, whatever be the vision a person follows he should lead an honest and sincere life within that. Allow the Lord the creator total position within your interior heart as the next moment is going to be very dreadful. Then even without your knowledge the Lord will cause things to happen within you.” (41)

“Keep everything simple! Because when all earthly matters slip away from men in future, they will not be able to cope with that. Search for real happiness, which is found in what's right; the true happiness which often is not sought by men. Because the happiness that men seek for today may turn into a tragedy in an instance...The Lord performs everything, instantaneously including the part that He has to do and that which you say cannot be performed, ever. Many things might happen. The things that disturb the mind will happen, very often. But what is required is to remain firm in faith in the Lord. (42)

5. I wish to place before you a meaningful few sections from an article on the theme “The concept of Loving Kindness (Maithree) in the era of Buddha” authored by Dr. Gunapala Dharmasiri (Senior Lecturer attached to the Philosophy Division, Peradeniya University) and published in “Thulana” (1988 October). I do so because it is deeply connected with the topic which we are until now speaking about. “The main characteristic of the modern period is the culmination of the decay of human morality. It is for this reason that it has been referred to as ‘Kaliyugaya’* (end times) by some. In short, righteousness has turned out to be unrighteousness and unrighteousness has turned out to be righteousness. The level of moral decay of the present era is such that no further decadence is possible. Father Chardin has stated that the mental state of humans is set to be transformed into a higher status in a sharp manner. Some are of the opinion that to take place a social background facing death and catastrophe are essential for this metaphysical transformation. The re-establishment of righteousness will take place in such an environment. Therefore, one of the intentions of this era should be the teaching of righteousness to people. For example....The relentless, powerful and the uncomfortable feeling that reigns supreme in all of us during this time, considered as the pinnacle of the end times is the fear about death.”

“If we think in line with righteousness, there is nothing which we should consider more than death. Because it is something which could occur at any time. A Tibetan teacher of the 11th century, named Gampopa has stated the following in a volume named “Moksha Manikabaranaya”. (Celestial ornamental jewel). “What comes first; is it tomorrow or heaven? It is uncertain. So, we must not aim at tomorrow but towards heaven and make preparations.” All those who speak about an era of this type, state that the only solution and safety about this era comes only through the morally clean behaviour. Living according to moral principles has been taught as the only way, aiding to find safety during the end times, and thereafter even to change the end times (Kaliyugaya) and to develop a Noble (superior) era. The focal point of morality is loving kindness (Maithree). Morality is the very nature of the environment. Environment is power, force. Therefore, it is only through development of moral values that real power could be generated, and arrive at a compromise with nature and the environment. All material powers and forces will face defeat without fail in the presence of the powers of righteousness.”

Professor Gunapala Dharmasiri says this too in his article referred to above. “A person is a minute particle of the cosmic aggregate. It is possible for the aggregate to influence the particle in the same way as the particle influences the aggregate.” He says that this could be done only through generating loving kindness i.e. ‘Maithriya’. He continues “‘Maithriya’ could be identified as the most important thing which, Sri Lanka as well as the whole world needs now. If there is anything capable of facing and eradicating the catastrophic times which the contemporary world is facing, it is ‘Maithriya’. The only answer to the problems of the end times is ‘Maithriya’. Because it is only ‘Maithriya’ which could generate the righteous force capable of defeating the end time woes. He says further about the force possessed by ‘Maithriya’. “An inspiring example is found about the protection obtained through ‘Maithriya’ in the ‘Angguththara’ nikaya (sect) ‘Attakathawa’. Once a cow had been feeding her calf while standing. A hunter, armed with a

* Kaliyugaya: According to one of the concepts, this is an Era or an Age in which values and virtues of people have declined or eroded. Another dictionary describes Kaliyugaya as an Era in which strangeness and unrighteousness are said to be prominent in the world. Kaliyugaya: Age of darkness.

spear saw this and thought. 'I'll attack the cow'. He threw the spear at the cow. It hit the cow's body and bounced back, like a palm leaf. It happened so... because a strong mental force ('Maithriya'), for the safety of her calf had been generated in the cow in that occasion. As such, the power contained within 'Maithriya' is great.

Swami Vivekananda says about the great power of Maithriya (Loving kindness) as follows: "Even if a violent person is covered with a huge veil of darkness, when the understanding arises that he is also a form (statue) of Paramesh, he will also be loved. When the great world soul appears where someone's micro-soul used to be, he will definitely become a great man rich even in the world's vibration. --- This is the great good that is done to the world by achieving the goal, understanding the situation, and realizing the religion. If the entire human race understands even a little bit of that truth, an era of peace will surely arise instead of these quarrels and riots. That is the great power of goal attainment (achieving the goal)... True love is so powerful that it does not need a whip to guide mankind afterwards. If only one person in preparation out of a million men and women living in this world were to say, "You are all images (forms) of God (Paramesh), human beings, you are all images of one and only God" for a few minutes, this world would change... The time will soon come when these thoughts will be sown all over the world. Then Dharma will be everyone's fair wealth. Then even the air we breathe will say that it is you in every breath.

('Vivekananda Sermons' by Sri Charles de Silva)

Giving due respect to all these ideas, I wish to state the following from a Christian retrospective. Love, shown and presented by Lord Jesus exceeds and surpasses 'maithriya' (loving kindness), karuna (compassion), muditha (unselfish joy), and upeksha (equanimity). By looking at Jesus, being sacrificed on the cross you can understand that Love. What is required now by all those who are identified as Christians is to burn with the fire of loving God, with whole heart, with the whole soul and with all the energy and to prostrate before the Lord God and pray on behalf of all the peoples of the world. Then, no evil force can approach you. Until now, I have endeavoured to explain the fatherly love of God the Father, immersed in the terrible stages of God the Father's holiness, initiated by the Easter Sunday bomb explosion and Corona onslaught.

6. Lord Jesus will come again in all glory to a world, which would have been purified. That purification will be carried out by God the Father Himself. The purification has begun. Two thirds of the world population will depart from this world during that purification. The balance one third will be subject to an intense process of purification. It is the will of the Heavenly Father. May these words of Lord Jesus be a source of strength for you to submit to the will of the Father!

Know that your Lord surpasses the evil one, in every aspect, by leaps and bounds, in spite of all his errands, and wiles. I tell you that even through the evil deed of the evil one my plan is completed, my goodness is established. (23)

The time for the splitting of the Church is nearing. Priestly sons, standing below, serving me with true devotion and total dedication, be careful of the words, emanating from those who are above you, especially during these days. (31)

“Children, a terrible period is near and fast approaching. The time is ripe for the fulfillment of what was revealed through Mother Mary and through Me. Now is the time for that. Now it is over and freedom has been granted to everybody. Now the moment has arisen for everybody to experience contrition and conversion. I am the greatest lover. Also, I am the Lord aroused in anger. But I’m love, love, and love, my Children” (37)

“My children, I have allowed the unholy fire to spread around before the coming of My Holy fire. Fear not, because all and everything go haywire because of Me, the Lord God and subject to my knowledge. (39)

“The Father is expectantly waiting to reestablish his sacred creed (righteous faith), by disseminating it throughout the world. All what I have to do now is to watch and wait. Whatever the Father wants would happen now. Therefore, my beloved children, it is out of love for you that I tell this. Let none of you fall victim to greed and voraciousness. See what is good only; wish what is good only, like Me who loved the world, stretched out on the cross. It is to this spot that you all have to come for the emergence of a righteous generation. The period of time coming ahead has been reserved for the elimination of unrighteousness by the Father. You may experience pain over those deaths, as you have love within you. Do not become saddened, if death occurs because of clinging on to wealth and power, and name and fame. Pray for them, beseeching the Lord to open up the gates of heaven to them” (46)

“The purification of the nation is now underway in great haste. Therefore, everything will happen in the future, as if never, ever happened before. Many would have to lay down their lives, thereby paving the way for the righteous era. The righteous ones will have to bid goodbye to their earthly life to pave the way for the plans of the Father. It is as a price paid for the redemption of others. The most devastating period of the nation will begin soon in the future. Those immersed in earthly pleasures will persecute those who are righteous. Amidst infighting and backbiting amongst all, the truth will come out. Do not pay attention to what you hear, and what you see about them, but cry to the Lord to have mercy on them. The evil will fall back on you if you rebuke and retort them harshly. Look at all beings, with eye of beauty. The world could be beautified by pure thoughts.” (49)

“The Father is taking back that which is in the hands of you disciples and teaching about the life of the moment. Thereafter, the Father will provide all what is necessary. Afterwards, this same thing will happen amongst all the people of the world. All these take place for the dawning of a righteous era.” (50)

From the Holy Bible

“In the whole land, says the Lord, two thirds shall be cut off and perish, and one third shall be left alive. And I will put this third into the fire, and refine them as one refines silver, and test them as gold is tested. They will call on my name, and I will answer them. I will say, ‘They are my people’; and they will say, ‘The Lord is my God.’ ” (Zechariah 13: 8,9)

“My Second Coming is nearby. The Great Purification for that Glorious Coming is now happening.”

Part II

7. We, identifying ourselves as Christians should ponder deeply as to why the holy fire of God, starting the most terrible phase of God's holiness that blazes the devious, sinful fire of the evil one, would come down on three churches? I think it is very correct that the burning down of the sinful fire of the evil one, covering the whole world, by the holy fire of God is initiated by the burning down of the sinful, cursed fire of the evil one engulfing the church which bears the His name. On 20th January 2019, 150th anniversary (Jubilee) memorial service was celebrated at St. Sebastian's Church. So, it became a mega show. Hoisting of the flag tree started with showering of flowers from a helicopter, hovering above. The feast was celebrated on 20th January. Exactly, three months have elapsed. On April 21st everything stood pulverized, in ashes. It is important to consider whether the Saints approve of such mega shows any further. The agony and the cry of St. Sebastian in heaven, over the loud noise caused by such festive activities have been recorded in the 17th Chapter of “Footsteps of the Holy Spirit”.

(A festive atmosphere reigned supreme around the church nearby, dedicated to St. Sebastian, as the annual church feast was being celebrated. Lord Jesus exclaimed through the mouth of his servant. “Now I will make you hear, in this manner, the prayers and pleas made to me in heaven by the person who was showered with your love and devotion during the last twodays.” (as a prayer in the form of a song)

“My Lord, my God! Passing through grief and sacrifices along the journey of my life I have come to you. In my youth I embraced you, sacrificing my own life. Oh, Jesus My Lord, I bore witness to your Holy Name and faced death in the process; then You drew me towards you by extending your holy and powerful hands. In the most profuse manner, bearing witnesses to Your Holy Name and proclaiming Your Holy Name as the Lord and the Master among gentiles and the non-believers and cried out Abba Elee, I embraced death. Holy Father, through the sacrifice of my life, I most appealingly request You to evict me and take possession of the excellent place which you had given me. Lord, erase off my name and my village; forget me and hide me within You; It is true that I'll receive perfection during your glorious coming. Till then I'm imperfect, and therefore Oh Lord, be revealed to your priestly sons so that they may not offer incense to my statues. Abba Father, destroy all honour and homage which they offer me. I cry unto thee Oh Lord, destroy me too and take me unto the company of your sinful people again. Lord, let them become doormats before you, let them toil under the pangs and pains of their suffering, only recourse unto you to have their wants and needs fulfilled. Lord, evict me out; keep me away from the holy and sweet melodies of your angels. Abba Father, Lord of creation of the universe, I am unworthy to tie the strands of your footwear. Do not allow me to come to Your Holy presence. Make them understand that their safety lies solely in You and not through any other created being in the universe – Your own creation.”

(When we reconsidered this publication Lord Jesus said thus, on this plea. "I arrange for the saint to see the anti-religious, meaningless festive cacophonies which take place on the feast day of him. Also, I show them the unimpressive atmosphere, void of all festive jubilations seen on the feast day of Myresurrection. Then the saints in heaven cry and beseech in this manner. They therefore become more pleasing to me on this account.)

(I remember the idea Jesus said through the young Handmaid on this) "The period, which starts with the next year, will be very dreadful. Facing it will be very difficult. My children, it is therefore, that I tell you to prepare for it through prayer and beseeching. I will let different types of disasters take place. Anthony do not ask Me now to stop any one of those disasters. Even amidst sorrow I have allowed different types of disasters to take place. Even my servant in Vatican (Pope John Paul 2) does not ask me now to stop those disasters. He begs me now to show the people the correct path, to lead them in the path of salvation even by allowing those disasters. Therefore, I will allow them to happen as they are." (2003.09.15) (39) Just consider whether the Saints will tell anything lesser than this, in the presence of God at this time. It is the hope of all saints, which John the Baptist has expressed in his own words as follows. "He must increase, and I should decrease." (John 3:20) All what he says is the Lord should become greater and he lesser. The more Jesus grows in you, the closer the Mary becomes to you; the closer the saints become to you. Every saint knows that it is only if Jesus becomes the foundation of your life that you would be able to face successfully the terrible times yet to come, in the future. It is the expectation of every saint to dawn Jesus, the ever-resplendent divine star (Sun) on the lives of people and fade away as the morning star (Venus), which dazzles bright adorning the eastern skies proclaiming the rise of the sun fades away. Therefore, refrain from saddening the saints by offering them material offerings furthermore.

Even the Annual Feast of St. Anthony's Church in Kochchikade is a Mega Show. Can we say the same about the Zion Church at Batticaloa? There are lesser number of Mega Shows in other Christian sects. It's something to be appreciated. Then why did God allow such a thing to happen in that church at Batticaloa? Had these things taken place in two Catholic churches only, what would have been the extent of the disgrace and humiliation which the Catholic Church, the most prominent church, founded by Christ himself would have to face in the presence of other Christian sects? It is well evident that the Lord wanted to prevent such a thing from happening. What some Christian sects conduct as Mega Shows are healing services, coupled with miracles. Just think to yourself, would Jesus approve such a thing? "Go to the sick and pray for their recovery. Don't do it, expecting prominence or publicity in return. The Father, who sees that in secret, heals." (16) "When you pray for an invalid, a sick, do not pray solely for his recovery for that the Heavenly Father has a plan for the one who is sick. The suffering of that invalid could be an offering for the redeeming of others. Therefore, pray that the will of the Father is fulfilled in that sick person. If the pain and suffering is unbearable, it is good to pray either to reduce that suffering or to give strength to bear up with that suffering." (49)

Think of the bomb explosions on 21st April 2019, during the divine services, especially in three churches. Who is the criminal behind that? Who is the mastermind who is behind that conspiracy? A number of texts in the Holy Scriptures help us to think about it. Once the disciples inquired Christ "Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign of your coming and end of the age?" (Mathew 24:3) "For then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, and never will be.” (Mathew 24:21) The following words too should receive your attention, when you search for the master brain behind Easter bombing. “The devil and his clan boasted saying that they would wipe away the belief in God from this world and establish the powers of the underworld throughout the world. They requested that they be allowed to tempt and test the entire people of the world as the Lord permitted them to test Job of the Old Testament. The devil got the permission from God to do so.” “This is a great purification executed by God the Father for the glorious coming of His son.”

God the Father initiated the great purification through the 2019 Easter bomb explosion in our country. “The war between righteousness and unrighteousness will begin from this country.” This is the beginning of the terrible stage of God’s holiness. It is the dawning of God’s holy fire, burning down the sinful fires of the evil one. St. Paul was compelled to speak about the end-time signs when the Thessalonians, even harming their livelihoods eagerly expected the glorious coming of Christ our Lord. In the introduction to the 2nd epistle of Paul sent to the Thessalonians, as found in the Holy Bible (New Revised Version in Sinhala Bible), it has been recorded...“Before Christ returns, evil and wickedness will reach a climax under the leadership of a mysterious figure, called the wicked one, who would be opposed to Christ.” In line with what has been discussed till now, it becomes clear as to who is the master brain behind the Easter bombing. That wicked one is the beast or Satan. The master brain behind the great struggle, launched to elevate unrighteousness to a prominent state is the lord of unrighteousness. All those who contributed and are contributing now to that great disaster are tools in the hands of the Lord of unrighteousness.

War between righteousness and unrighteousness thus begun, is described in the Catechism of the Catholic Church in this manner. Number 675 says “Before Christ’s second coming, the Church must pass through a final trial that would shake the faith of many believers. The persecution that accompanies her pilgrimage on earth will unveil the ‘mystery of iniquity’ in the form of a religious deception offering men an apparent solution to their problems at the price of apostasy from the truth. The supreme religious deception is that of the Antichrist, a pseudo-messianism by which man glorifies himself in place of God and of his Messiah come in the flesh.” Consider how the following words mentioned therein become relevant to the bomb explosions that took place in three churches- ‘Shaking the faith of many believers’, ‘persecutions that accompany’, ‘unveiled mysterious antagonism’, ‘in the guise of religious deception’ (Refer to Catechism of the Catholic Church in this manner. Numbers 668-682)

In the first publication of ‘Daham Navodaya’ – ‘Stay awake through prayer’, It is stated in it as such about the things which are happening. “They will attempt to confuse and confound the masses about the true faith of the Catholic Church, her teachings, celestial relationship of Jesus Christ and present a False Church, an Anti-Pope, an Anti-Christ [an imposter named Maithri portrayed as a redeemer.] ” The words mentioned below too, confirm the thoughts which I have expressed above. “The leader to be appointed next will not have the Grace of God. Could you understand, the precarious position into which My church and the world will flung into in that event? The events that will take place in Vatican will lead to drastic changes in all countries of the world and in all routine activities of the people. Identify the things that will happen when the fake pope assumes Peter’s position. Not only that, but it is also the army of Lucifer that will reside in Maithry who will appear as a friend of the pope.”(M. J. Iven 01 November 1998). Only two of the evangelists have mentioned, in this manner about Jesus’ thoughts, when the disciples inquired Him about the end time signs. "So, when you see the desolating sacrilege spoken of by the prophet Daniel, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand)" (Mathew 24 :15) "But when you see the desolating sacrilege set up where it ought not to be (let the reader understand)" (Mark 13:14) The world has now received the revelations, which the readers require to understand this. It is the same as what I have mentioned above.

8. Boasting his plan to eradicate completely belief in God, Satan obtained God's permission to test Job's faith, right into his skeleton. Similarly, Lucifer has sought God's permission to test the faith of the humankind, digging right up to their skeletons. God has granted him permission. This is a revelation of God about His love towards men. But it is a part of God's holy plan from time immemorial. That plan is..... paving the way for the lord of unrighteousness to bring unrighteousness to glory and providing the opportunity to the Lord of righteousness (God) to bring righteousness to glory during the end times. Therefore, the sentence inked down by Charles Dickens in beginning his novel 'Tale of Two Cities' becomes relevant to these times, just emerging. "This is the worst of times." "This is the best of times." The Lord of unrighteousness is preparing himself for these, using men as tools. The foremost amongst those tools are the namesake Catholics and Christians who work willingly to bring unrighteousness to glory and eminence. But even though many a people see the terrible activities of the lord of unrighteousness, they have failed to comprehend them as the works of his hands. Therefore, it has become an invisible hand for many. But it's a visible hand for many powerful politicians, international organizations, entrepreneurs, and most of the media organizations. But it is possible that most of them have failed to comprehend that hand properly, because the lord of unrighteousness (darkness) is coming for his future activities in the form of a messenger of light.

Still this hand remains invisible for most of the Catholics and most of the Church leaders. Though Lord Jesus and Mother Mary continue to reveal, over a long period of time many things regarding this, most of them have failed to give due attention to them. The reason may be the explanations given in sections 65-67 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. It says that by now Jesus has said all what must be said to the world; He has nothing more to say; and therefore, all revelations being made by now are mere so called, non-authentic revelations. For many in other Christian sects, this hand might continue to be invisible. The reason for this is that they discard revelations as most of them have been made by Mother Mary. But for most of those who control the media the lord of unrighteousness is a visible hand. From a long time, they are continuing to fulfill what he wants. All creative songs relating to the noble art of elevating humans to higher status are being shunned by them. Twined carnal songs that spoil and corrupt the mind are made available easily. They continue to build up an ever euphoric, carnival like atmosphere, entwined in lust and carnality. They take prominent places even in religious festivities; and eradicate the religious fervor therein; and contaminate them by converting them to carnivals. What I have stated is my observations regarding many radio and TV channels in Sri Lanka. Here, the Lord of unrighteousness is a visible hand to many leaders of states. He performs what he wants through the state leaders, having promised to develop the country in the future.

The lord of unrighteousness is coming as the anti-Christ or the adversary of Christ carrying the name Maithri. They say to pronounce that word as my-tray-ah. (25) My cup overflows. Is it not an expression of joy and amazement over that? The lord of unrighteousness comes promising material benefits in good measure. If he is to be welcomed warmly by the people, the poor masses should be made poorer and poorer. He is getting it done by using state administrative apparatus. During this great purification, God is destroying wealth, power, and popularity (Mammon). He is fulfilling that great promise in the Magnificat of Blessed Virgin Mother. "He has exalted the lowly, He has scattered the proud in the conceit of their heart, He has put down the mighty from their thrones and exalted the lowly, He has filled the hungry with good things and the rich He has sent away empty." Therefore, you must be competent enough to identify the activities of Lucifer and the activities of God separately. I told you that Lucifer is ascending to the stage, promising all material benefits in good measure. All those who continue to pray beseeching for material benefits only from God might fall into that temptation of the evil-one easily. Those who do not fall into that temptation are only those who embraced the way of the cross, the correct Christian faith.

It is said that attempts are made to identify the master mind, responsible for the 2019 Easter Bomb Attack and bring him before the courts of law to prevent a recurrence of such attacks. But is it the reality, pertaining to this nation at this juncture? Read my opinion, stated below, and realize it and understand by yourself. Similar opinions have been discussed in the publication 'Footsteps of the Holy Spirit'. The war between righteousness and unrighteousness will begin from this nation. It was initiated by the 2019 Easter bomb blast. It is in this nation that the activities, which are to proceed up to the dawning of the righteous era, for the purpose of glorifying righteousness against the grand maneuvers of unrighteousness will take place. It is a divine plan. Therefore, this nation is indeed the nation of salvation. Then, is it not in this nation that the maneuvers of the lord of unrighteous, launched against the glorification of righteousness would be located? Many nations of the world face numerous natural disasters. But what affects our nation most is the repercussions of the war between righteousness and unrighteousness. This does not mean that there are no wars between righteousness and unrighteousness in other countries and that our country is not affected by natural disasters. I mention all these to keep you awakened during future events.

I wish to quote from the last paragraph of the letter, titled 'A Theology honouring nature', published by Professor Aloysius Pieris (SJ). This is very important for your study in an era like this.

(Translated from Sinhala into English by the author himself) :-

"Theology emerges from apraxis of liberation, coupled with a critique of the antitheist and anti-religious currents in our society. One of things that I have provided above [in the article] is an intellectual weapon needed for this counter-struggle. Students of theology should realize that the current dehumanizing praxis of "big fish living on a diet of smaller fish" propagated by well-organized agents of wealth-worshipping technocracy is antitheist and immoral. It is our prime obligation to expose the sinister plot on the part of the agents of globalization to co-opt religion and ethical systems into the agenda not only of commercial companies which mint money by marketing the water that quenches out thirst, the earth that we walk upon and the air that we breathe, but also of weapon-manufacturers who promote wars that destroy human lives and their natural habitats, perpetually confining displaced masses in refugee camps ---not to mention also the business tycoons who financially profit by the use of chemical fertilizers on our lands covered with luxuriant vegetation. There is no doubt that they will try to achieve their sinister purpose by introducing into Religion and Ethics what we had described above [in our article] as “individualism” (self-service) and “instrumentalism” (parasitism). The individualism of “me and my soul” and “me and my God” as well as fundamentalist Christianity based on the “Prosperity Gospel” (i.e., an aberrant religiosity which associates prayer and worship with wealth-acquisition and fosters a pseudo-faith in a “Christ minus the Cross”) is one source of the dehumanization process mentioned above. It is a germ that is imported to Asia from the Capitalist countries. What I had proposed [in this article above] was a mental posture absolutely necessary to formulate a Christian spirituality stamped with an ‘evangelical daring’ (parrhesia) to resist such evil forces. Only concrete action prompted by that mental posture will emerge as an authentic theology; for theology is not based on philosophy but on a Spirit-led praxis; authentic theology, therefore, is a decisive warfare against the principalities and powers of this world.”

9. Jesus says the following, so that you may understand the war being waged between righteousness and unrighteousness.

“The evil one is tirelessly working now to break down my altar of sacrificial blood and build an altar of different design. Some day in future, even the evil one will gather people around him proclaiming that the Living Lord is here, the Living Lord is there. The evil one goes before you not in his own self, but acting in disguise in the form of an angel of light; he shines as a watch tower; he creates gimmicks of different shades and colours in the skies and plans to set the whole world ablaze... Without fear, proclaim the name of Jesus, which lies as a drop of honey in your anointed mouth... As a sacrament my living presence in the tabernacles of the world, in the form of the Holy Eucharist, and the numerous activities therein I am engaged in the tasks of preparing people.” (18)

“Satan is busily engaged in giving a new facelift to the ways of living embedded in materialism, merry making and lust and lewdness. You are a community chosen by God, and therefore continue with your prayers to them amidst all these calamities. Carry on with your work silently till that moment when the truth will triumph. With a view to destroy you the Satan will set the fires of wile and deception against you. The great fires of Satan are on and burning. The time will come for the birth of the cruelest, the most devastating system of government of the world... Direct all your praises, voiced through praying, singing and offering to the great heavenly incense offering. The sins of the world will burn away through that glorious incense offering. Offer unto the Lord all your efforts, endeavours and sufferings for the sins of the world... The entire universe is being dragged into a period of great suffering, intense crying, humanly unbearable burdens, burning infernos, and great abyss... Amidst all these, that all important, crucial moment for the dawning of sufferings, leading to light and radiance to the universe. I reiterate that through suffering, suffering, and suffering in love alone you can overcome all successfully.” (24)

“The moment of righteousness overcoming malevolence and evil is just at hand. The Lord of evil will come forward bearing my name. A great number of people in the world will be deceived, misled by him. Blessed are those who escape from this... The holy voyage has begun. The first step has now been taken to go through the burning fires. You will burn, internally in its entirety and externally from sole to head. Fear will engulf you. Yet, there is a depth therein. You will not see that depth. You must go nearer and nearer to see that depth... The time comes for the thug to come out bearing my name and deceive people. The people who are suffering will be enticed to opt for treasures, which he would offer. It is ruinous indeed. Only a few people will remain within me... "Now, the thug is doing everything; he assembles the people at different locations and delivers his sermons. It appears people are drawn to him. The thug is doing everything meticulously. The people are deceived by the healings witnessed and riches offered... The world has not awakened, yet. All these things will come to light soon. My children, the future is awful, very frightening..., the thug, the rogue is coming. The time for my children to be drawn to him, to be deceived by him has arrived. I have given him a free hand in this regard. At the end, with the breath that comes out of my mouth, I'll destroy him." (27)

"My children! The moment of cleansing everything is just beginning. Everything is just falling apart. That's how, those who ask, "Where is God?" should be answered. In future, there will be a drought. Epidemics will inundate the world. My children! Stay with me. Walk with me in faith. Those who listen to my words and live according to them will be saved. Their children too will be saved..."My wrath is raging against the entire universe. I'll continue purifying all until they consent to stay in the place, which I make for them, place them, having broken down everything, and purifying the entire universe..."I am the great holiness, loving and cleansing. I ask you to be filled with the wealth of poverty, not to be filled with wealth and riches. My disciples! May you all be filled with wealth of faith and hope! I do not invite anyone to join me to be filled with riches of the world. The Lord within that is Satan. I'll confound you who are my disciples, block and break all your sources of income and lead you towards poverty. When they walk with me, even a slight thought about wealth and riches should not haunt my disciples..."Cleansing of the entire world has just begun. During my purification process many lives may take leave from this world. I can change everything within a moment..."My Children! The coming days are terrible indeed. This is the moment of purification by the Holiness. The whole world is just one land for me. There all what should have been eradicated is being eradicated. I am the ancient, the primordial being and two thirds of the people will be dead in the purification process of my holiness. Just one third of the people will be left over. They are the people who are heading towards good. That one third, I'll purify in the fires of my holiness, and lead them towards the righteous era." (30)

"Today a mysterious confusion has taken place within the world acclaimed Christian Church. Someday, it will be revealed. This confusion is pushed forward surreptitiously within the world acclaimed Christian Church, like my activity, like I lead you under my shadow. The time for them to be revealed is at hand. It will be a great confusion, a great craving for power. I am the Lord of mighty mercies. I am the Lord of great tempers... My children, I will act in this manner to cleanse the world, which is immersed in dirt and decay. I am prepared, and ready to create anew beautiful world, identical to my first creation. Then, everybody will become happy... My cleansing act has by now spread all over the universe. Do not be a victim of my wrath. The time for the destruction of everything that which is based on pride is at hand." (31)

"My Children, I'll flatten hilltops; bring down all structures of sin. The moment for transforming the entire universe to dazzle in light and glory, resembling the original creation is at hand. I am waiting for the dawning of the moment of purifying all that is defiled and devious..."

There are people even within the recognized official Churches, who will be enslaved by the reign of Satan, who is to come.”(32)

“The time keeps on flying. The time is dawning for bestowing of divine protection for the chosen people of God and giving great wealth and comforts, along with destruction, hidden within those material things to the chosen people of the evil one. The hour is at hand for the people to realize the folly and futility, found in all material things.” (42)

In time to come, Lucifer will bring many powerful nations under his control. Thus, he is readying to rule over the world. 'In time to come, this country will become prosperous. It is caused not by Me, but by Lucifer himself.... Prosperity will come, surely. But it comes from the evil one. You therefore will not receive it. For I lead you in the way of the cross, only. Children! for this reason only that I told you that the time ahead is dangerous. You would have to live as the early Church did. What the Lord gives you will be, all you would have to eat.” (41)

We asked the Lord Jesus as to why Lucifer has been identified with the number 666 in the Book of Revelation. The message delivered then by Lord Jesus through His first hand maid is presented below.) “When the period of three and half years, allowed by me to Lucifer to test humanity intensely, dawns he sees the population of the world in the region 666 crores. What he tries to say is that he owns that 666 crores.” (What we understood was... The Lord says, “See, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands; you are mine”. This idea is mentioned in the Book of Isaiah. Lucifer says that you, the 666 crores have been imprinted on my forehead; you all are mine.” (44)

“Today, I shed tears of love and keep on burning the fires of affront and outrage. I, burning with universal love, shed tears, right throughout the universe. Why should I, the creator, keep on watching the destruction of my own creation? There is no end to forgiving. Sin keeps on becoming more evil. Now, the purification of the two thirds has become more expeditious. I shed tears of sorrow. Along with this the purification of the world the fires of anger and outrage has begun. I am not happy about this. I have to do this to save the righteous people, to overcome unrighteousness. Great purification has to be done. Now that is happening.” (50)

“The future is more perilous than this. From this moment onward, not only this country but the whole universe lies on the frightening foundation of the Father. Therefore, in this moment whole celestial community, the saints are interceding and praying, in the presence of the Father, on behalf of these sinful people and the creation. You too, living on earth, join together and pray incessantly, maintaining a state of internal calm and stillness within you.” (51)

10. The revelations made by Lord Jesus through His 1st handmaid are also made in preparation for the terrible stage that is being launched.

27th May 2020

“It is a loving game in which your beloved Father is now engaged with the world. The Father wanted to commence the process of purifying the world. Till now, people have been living in a competitive world. God the father had been watching this. It grew further and further and there was no development of righteous people. Therefore, the Father wanted to commence this game. Therein lies something which pleases the Father, even slightly. Irrespective of the religion being followed, all people are cornered into their homes and trained in love. Family ties which remained broken have been reestablished. Those who have been walking in the wrong paths are cornered in their homes and they have been led to think anew. Now it becomes evident that neither money nor power can do anything about that. Now it becomes evident, even to the heads of states, that something great which neither money nor power could do is happening in the world. The game started by the Father will be stopped by Him only on victory. Even you longed for the purification of the world. You prayed for that. Father's moment for that has now begun. The game has started. The father is all loving, ferocious and dreadful. By now, the game has just begun. What is ahead is very dangerous."

"Even if the world turns upside down, I'll not be discouraged. It is God who does this. Remain firm and steady in God in this manner. Becoming steady in God is true leadership. There is no leadership when the smallest of events discourages you, as in the case of children. It is you who called for these trials and tests. Is it not you who cried to me saying 'Father come now; cleanse this sinful world'? Now it has begun. What is needed is to empty yourselves from everything and remain steady. The world may turn upside down, but this is the will of God. If God has come to purify something, then it should necessarily happen. There, we should become steady. There are bonds amongst men. They are necessary. But there should be a greater bond with the creator. Father, even if the world falls apart, my soul will bond with you. I will go on that journey of faith. It is there that you should stand. Whatever terrible things happen, even if faced with no food and hunger, even if burdened with loads of problems, Oh Lord those problems would not be able to suppress me. I'm firm and steady in you. Because you are the Lord who created this world. This world belongs to you. This game of love initiated by God the Father is common to all. Children, understand this reality."

"I wish to make a special request from my priestly sons. Offer a mass monthly on behalf of the leaders of the Church. Why... to remove the dark layer that blinds them, that they pay attention to the people as true and religious shepherds, and that they fulfill their universal shepherding responsibilities in peace and with least regard to cast, creed and race-based differences. Even if we take the early Church, there is a big difference between now and then. The system that existed then was engaging and endearing, loving, and forgiving the sinner. Today is totally different from that. What's the difference today? It is punishment which is called for. People of the calibre of Annas and Caiaphas are about to come. The offenders are to be brought before the people, as the Jews did to me then and crucified me. It is to this abject level that they are going to descend. It was an innocent, faultless individual who was crucified then. It was a plan of God the Father. In this plan what the Church should have done is to extricate all from all what happened, to dedicate all to the Father and to unite all."

"Though silence is reigning apparently, work is on, and continuing. A terrible thing is yet to happen. Along with this, the inadequacies of the state leaders are exposed. A correct government administrative set up is still absent in this country. Though attempts are made to hide one another's defects and faults, a time, making hiding impossible will come. A time will come even to fight for leadership. Now, preparations are underway for a big war. Along with this, a time for one nation to fight against another will also come. As progress is made step by step, all the plagues referred to in the Bible will come down on earth. Every minute will become terrible, meaning that men will be pushed into a trying and difficult era.”

“If we look at the top leadership of the church’s establishment, a turning towards changing the positions, prevalent then and now, including rites and rituals has now commenced. The beginning of the activities of the adversary are almost complete. A word escapes from them, without their knowledge. Secret information thus comes out. The secrets which remained hidden are now coming out through revelations, made by the Father using everyone. Again, I speak to my priestly sons. Offer a holy mass monthly on behalf of your church leaders. It is important for the awakening and safety of all. A wrong step if taken by the church leaders will affect all people. With great patience and flexibility, he should arrive at this step. There are many priests who do not approve what’s going on. There are those who weep in their hearts. They are in a state of fear in the presence of what church leaders are doing. They weep and cry. Then they too will wake up. Do this to bring relief and consolation to them.”

“My beloved children! The evil deeds of the adversary are now spreading throughout the world now. Now, a heavenly army has been dispatched to the world to defeat the evil one. Therefore, there is a thing of which all of you should become aware. Death to one’s own desires, death to one’s religion, and death to one’s rights – it is the moment when everybody should experience those threefold deaths that have now emerged. The activities of the adversary are now subduing my Church. I have asked my priestly sons to offer a Holy Mass monthly to remove the dark mantles that hide some Church leaders and bring them to the light. Now I make a request to all of you. There is a custom where many people request a Holy Mass, even paying a certain sum of money to have their intentions fulfilled. In like manner, ask for a holy mass from my priestly sons on behalf of the church leaders. Encourage the people to do so. If not the evil activities of the adversary will expand more and more. The war between righteousness and unrighteous will become more terrible. Dedicate yourselves to prevent such expansion; invite and assemble the people to participate in the monthly holy masses. Pray to God during the holy masses, beseeching that the church leaders do not become victims of the adversary, but respond positively to their shepherding missionary call.”

“If you are caught up with problems, whatever they may be, ill-health, discomforts etc. say this. ‘Infant Jesus, come into me; you be the very breath that I inhale, and enter into me; Touch me wholly; Take away all my illnesses, my burning problems; my sinful condition; all what I do not want and expel them all as I exhale. Within me are slaveries, and habits which cannot be overcome. I want to be emptied of them. I want to be healed. Infant Jesus, be what I inhale and come into me. Like the exhaling which expels out all what is not wanted, remove them all. Cleanse me and purify me. This is the new message which all of you should take hold of. Because the world has now been entrusted to him. He can re-enter men again. Invite infant Jesus on behalf of your husband. Entrust him to infant Jesus. Your children could be ill. Even then receive the friendly support of the infant Jesus.’ (From a few years back, after having spoken to someone through His 1st hand maid, Jesus ended the conversation in this manner.) ‘I will place you in the grace of the Holy Spirit. I will place you in the glorious power of the most Eminent. I will place you under the glimpse of the Father. I will place you in the glimpse of the Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit, the Triune God. I will place you in the protection of all angels. I will place you in the intercession of all saints. I will place you in the mediation of Mother Mary. I entrust you all to the friendly nature of infant Jesus. May you be endowed with blessings of to live a virtuous life, pleasing to God during your earthly sojourn and win the heavenly crown,' Amen."

"My second coming is imminent. What happens now is the great purification for that glorious coming"

Part Three

11. If you have studied the matters, I have referred to under Nos. 3 & 4, by now you would have understood well, the special features of Gods' activities under the terrible stage of God's holiness, which has now emerged through the Corona epidemic and the Easter Bomb blast. There is no doubt that God would fulfill all what He wants, using all lay, religious, priests and others who have willingly submitted themselves to God's hand during this emerging phase. Here, there is no room for any problem regarding free will. One is compelled to fulfill what He asks for, even if it contravenes norms gravely. He has now told us about one of the ways, he will act in this regard. "When you are burdened with unbearable sufferings and experience a suffocating sweet fragrance of Oak around you, know that you also have been called by me for that." (28) (Lord Jesus was crucified on a cross made of wood from an Oak tree.) The purpose of His actions was to direct all towards repentance. "Oh the great peril that will fall on the people who wait for the end of the world to take place as foretold, trusting in what I and my mother revealed. The purpose of all this is only to draw men to repentance. If everybody repents, things could turn out to be as in Nineveh. Understand, that Jonah's disgrace will be the lot of all those who would connect with the revelations made by me and my mother." (49) If all people repent, He can change all what he said about destruction, quickly. Because of this only, that God the Father Himself proclaimed in this manner. "I yell and tell you to work from today for the increase of the fold of the righteous, and for the moment of removing instantaneously all my revelations announced to you earlier." (19)

There is no doubt that God will get his work executed not only in the Catholic Church, the most prominent one of his churches but also in the other breakaway sects (churches). The Catholic Church, the most prominent one of his churches cannot absolve itself from responsibility for the breaking away of other churches. A father should never be adamant not to accept what his child says, if it is correct. The children should not also be obstinate and allow the family to break away because of the father's faults. That fault has taken place in the history of the Church. Therefore the debates over the Christian sects (churches) should now come to an end. They should be given due consideration in positive frame of mind. Through this revelation Jesus has said this. "Tell my poor sheep to remain only within my own church, i.e. the Catholic Church, my foremost church, which has been established over the foundation, which I had laid. Tell them not to search for salvation within those false churches of different kinds and denominations, which are not inspired by me.” (23) Not only that, but He has said this too. “Walk in to the small churches, which went on searching for my truth. See, the extent they love my words; love my soul. Day and night, in happiness and misery they live in me and praise me. Irrespective of who pulls or pushes them, My Righteous One knows that I dwell in them too. Relate with them. Eat with them.” (19)

Definitely God will rectify all and unite all breakaway sects, even by working through the fundamental Christian sects under the divine activity of the terrible phase of His Holiness. That’s why I told ‘let’s forget all debates and disputes.’ I have stated 11 points in the third publication of ‘Daham Navodaya’ i.e. ‘The Holy fountain and the summit’ about the unification of all breakaway sects (churches). A number of problems have emerged within the Church because of the fundamental Christian sects. Some fundamental Christian sects might have hidden goals. “...fundamental Christianity based on the “Prosperity Gospel” (i.e., an aberrant religiosity which associates prayer and worship with wealth-acquisition and fosters a pseudo-faith in a “Christ minus the Cross”) is one source of the dehumanization process.” If it is true, they will join force, at the proper time with the adversary of Christ, emerging out into the open. The righteous one will join with all those who are in close links with righteousness and transform anew all.

Lucifer will appear as Jesus and perform numerous miracles during the 42 months given to him by God to operate at his optimum as the Lord of unrighteousness. There are only two miracles which the Evil one cannot perform. He cannot direct people to repentance. He cannot direct people to love each other with Agape-type love. The evil one ascending on to the stage will make maximum use of science and technology. In this, the adversary of Christ will appear in numerous forms of Lord Jesus. During the rehearsals of our congregation in which Christ our Lord participated, he asked us to challenge him in this manner. “If you are Jesus, appear before us as the Christ, crucified.” Lord Jesus said that he will never be able to do that. Fear not, even if the Catholic Church faces challenges, whatever they may be, through this war between righteousness and unrighteousness. As Lord Jesus said on that day the gates of hell will never be able prevail upon His Church. These words uttered by Lord Jesus during his dealings, over the last 25 years with our congregation have been recorded in the publication - ‘Footsteps of the Holy Spirit.’ “The early Church will come into being again for the second time. I’ll transform it to be led by the Holy Spirit Himself”. During the period, allowed to him by God, the adversary will operate at his best; God too will dazzle at His supreme magnificence. Therefore, mighty deeds which surpass those of the exodus will take place. Mighty deeds which will surpass those mighty deeds, which happened in the early church, soon after the baptism with the Holy Spirit will take place. People remain stunned and confused because of the Corona epidemic and Easter bomb blast, but they, seeing the power of the mighty arms of the Lord, through the terrible events, arising during the war between righteousness and unrighteousness will enhance their faith and face those events boldly. They will experience abundantly the Fatherly love of the divine holiness, revealed by the Corona epidemic and Easter bomb blast, which remained hidden so far. They will praise the Lord for all these.

12. The Lord of unrighteousness has sought permission from God to test the faith of all, as Job’s faith in God was subject to test. God has given him permission to do that. Was it not this that was initiated by the 2019 Easter Sunday bomb-blast? Read the Book of Job in the Holy Bible. When Job has lost his seven sons, three daughters and all his possessions, Job wept and said this, “Naked I came from my mother’s womb, and naked I shall return; the Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord.” The Lord of unrighteousness failed to discourage and shake his faith in God, even through that great testing and tempting. The suffering which Job could not bear was the second phase of his sufferings. It was the terrible misery, the excruciating pain which he had to cope with when he was confined with loathsome sores from the soles of his feet to the crown of his head. But Job’s faith in the Lord overcame them, and triumphed. The evil one could not achieve victory from that also.

Many, suffering from the departure of their beloved ones through the Easter bomb-blast have so far been unable to face them successfully, and praise the Lord as Job faced them. It is the second phase of Job’s sufferings which is being encountered by those who suffer immensely, having been made disable and immobilized through the bomb-blast. If we are to face all these and emerge victorious, we would have to learn about the sufferings, offerings and redeeming which St. Therese of Lisieux experienced in her life and align them into our own lives. She accepted all the trials and tribulations she had to encounter with calm and composure and offered them to God; she poured them all to the cup of sufferings of Lord Jesus and offered them to the Lord on behalf of others; and we too will have to learn to imitate her diligently. They will rejoice when they realize and experience of their ability to perform a great task for God, even in a state of being made disabled and confined to a bed. That rejoicing will turn out to be a challenge to others. Men will have to face the pangs and perils of the two phases of Job’s testing, in the form of God’s testing and Adversary’s trials and tempting, during the war between righteousness and unrighteousness. I wish to present to you two things to help you to reach your goals, you aim at, as Job faced all the challenges successfully without diminishing, harming his faith of God.

I wish to draw your attention to Chapter 4 of the book of Revelation. It draws your attention to the Lord who was seated on the heavenly throne. The word ‘throne’ appears 14 times in that short chapter. There, mention has been made about the four living creatures, standing before the divine throne. They sang, “Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord God Almighty who was and is and is to come.” The twenty-four elders fell before the one who was seated on the throne and worshipped the one who lives forever and ever; they cast their crowns before the throne, singing, “You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they existed and were created.” The ceaseless divine proclamation escaping the lips of the 24 elders in heaven was, this. Even you might question whether this continuous chanting would not become bitter in the years? Would not it become boring? when the same ceaseless chanting is made by both elders and the four living creatures? No, there is no possibility for that to happen. Because every word they pronounce is made in the Holy presence of God.

I wish to draw again your attention to the last two sentences said by the 24 elders. “For you created all things, and by your will they existed and were created.” Therefore, no one can argue about God’s will. What should happen is - the whole creation submitting itself wholly to His will. Other than men, the whole creation is submissive to God. This should happen even within mankind which has obtained free will from God. You too should come to that point to obtain relief and consolation when the events occurring during the war between righteousness and unrighteousness become more and more intense and terrible. If you enter into that marvelous experience, exclaiming ‘May your will, not mine be done.’ from the bottom of your heart, it will not be difficult for you to face the forthcoming, terrible events. We, on earth, will never be able to perform, at any time a divine worship, matching the ceaseless worship carried out in heaven.

But, the experience, you feel when you exclaim 'Father, not my will but your will be done' from the very interior of your heart is equivalent to the divine worship performed in heaven.

The creator says this. "I have created everything. Therefore, I am the owner of everything. Everything should happen in accordance with my will." Let's acknowledge this and say. "Father, it is you who brought me to this world, when you wanted it to happen. Therefore, you have the right to call me when you want and decide. I submit to your will, totally. Therefore, I do not seek a happy death, henceforth. I am ready to leave this world, at any time, in any manner that you desire. It's you who gave me my children. So, you are their owner. I am just the caretaker. Therefore, you have the right to call them to heaven at any time, in any manner that you desire. I acknowledge your right of ownership. Therefore, I thank you and entrust that child into your hands." If you could reach this experiencing, then you too can face your trials successfully, as Job faced the great testing of God and the temptations of Lord of unrighteousness. As the conditions become more and more terrible, you too would have to enter into that absolute experiencing. No one has a better solution, other than this. Father, your will is your great wisdom. Therefore, placing everything we have in our hands and everybody, in the arms of the Lord, emptying ourselves completely of all claims to those rights, let's say "Father, let your will be done in respect of me, in respect of us and in respect of everything."

The second thing, which I wanted to place before you is this. The dawning of the righteous era is imminent, close at hand. What is happening now is the great pangs for that great parturition. These pangs will continue till the dawning of the righteous era. Those great pangs are for the future. We need a great amount of energy and stamina to bear with those pangs, happily. Collect, all the promises of righteous era made by God, as referred to in the Books of prophets from Isaiah to Malachi. There is no doubt that those divine promises will give us a great strength and energy to overcome the emerging difficult and trying times successfully. It is necessary that the divine promises regarding the righteous era, lead us to the great dream within ourselves. There is no doubt that dream would come true. The speech delivered by Martin Luther King, the leader of the Civil Right Movement of the Negroes in the City of Washington in USA, in 1963 is titled as 'I have a dream.' He drew strength from the nonviolent approach of Mahatma Gandhi and also fortified himself with divine promises regarding the dawning of the righteous era. Quotes from his speech bear witness to this.

"You have been the veterans of creative suffering. Continue to work with the faith that unearned suffering is redemptive, let us not wallow in the valley of despair. Every valley shall be exalted, and every hill and mountain should be made low, the rough places will be made plain, and the crooked places will be made straight; and glory of the Lord shall be revealed and flesh shall see it together. This is our hope, with this faith, we will be able to hew out of the mountain of the despair a stone of hope. With this faith, we will be able to transform the jangling discords of our nation into a beautiful symphony of brotherhood." (We too will be able to go forward, proclaiming that "I have a dream' to the extent that we fortify ourselves with divine promises referred to in the books of the prophets, regarding the dawning of the righteous era followed by the glorious coming of Lord Jesus.)

13. It is not the traditional healing services that are more required now. What is required now is intercessory prayer services. Jesus says the following about this.

“It is a call to bear the cross and melt away on behalf of the world. Now empty yourselves of everything. Dedicate yourselves on behalf of the world. Then the Lord will bring everything about you to fruition.” (49)

“What is meant melting away on behalf of the salvation of all is the victory to be achieved by overcoming all obstacles and challenges. The guiding touch of the Father is needed to achieve that victory.” (48)

“The sufferings you undergo spiritually, physically and mentally, the agonies you face are a prerequisite of the world today for salvation and redemption. You therefore, who are called to suffer is blessed. All what I require from you is that you cry in prayer for the salvation of the people, and dedicate your lives in that course.” (23)

“Now what you have to do is not praying for your own self, but beseeching the Lord on account of all the people of the world. There lies the success of your life. Raise cries not on account of you, but on account of others. When you turn that grief to be your own grief, all will be saved. The Father can do everything.” (50)

All what Jesus said when he addressed our community, (as referred to above), reminds us of the need for intercessory prayers on behalf of all living beings, during these most esteemed, and difficult times. Lord Jesus is the greatest intercessor on behalf of the whole humanity before God the Father. Mother Mary is the greatest intercessor on behalf of the whole humanity before Lord Jesus. It is necessary that we too immerse ourselves in intercessory prayers before our Lord Jesus, on behalf of the whole human race. ‘The only thing that I ask from you all is to cry out and dedicate your lives on behalf of the world’. Then the Lord assures you of success in all your affairs. That is the basis of intercessory prayer. What happens mostly, in healing services is a crying for our needs and wants. What Jesus said was ‘Get rid of your selfishness; take my cross and follow me.’ In most of the healing services, attempts are made to evade the cross, which one has to carry.

It is only to the extent that you increase your awareness about the matters, which I give below, you will gain skills and knowledge in intercessory prayer. ‘Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it’. (Genesis 1:28) It indeed is God, sharing his responsibility regarding his creation with man. It is a delegation of His power. God acknowledges and honours that delegation, greatly. He will not do anything contradictory to the delegation. As God shared his responsibility with man, from that moment onward God acts using man as a tool. There are many people who are willing to fall into the hands of the Adversary to achieve his plans. Now, there are only a few people, willing to sacrifice themselves for the glory of God. What God did to his powers through the process of delegating was only to set limits to his powers. Therefore, God keeps on watching till men become tools in His hands to transform everything. What I analyze here is the situation that prevailed from the moment of delegating His powers (from the creation of man onward) to the moment of dawning of the terrible phase of God’s holiness, through the 2019 Easter Bomb blast. Now, a big change is going to happen. (re-study the notes referred to under number 3.4) The Lord will not continue His crying, ‘Though I searched for a person to console me; none I did find.’, any further. He will get his things done through those who have willingly subdued themselves to Him. No one who has subdued himself into his hands can flee away from this. These new activities of the Lord are designed for the cleansing of mankind.

Intercessory prayers, as well fortresses of praying become important during the emerging phase. What is meant by this is the great supplication, made through by being fortified by the Holy Spirit, and unleashed against the wicked activities of the evil one. A supplication made by submitting the human kind to the precious blood of Lord Jesus. To 'vanquish Jericho', It means the destruction of everything about the evil one, 'building of a new Jerusalem'. It means a supplication, made for the fulfillment of everything, necessary for the glorification of God. It's a supplication made in the presence of the Lord to challenge the powers of the evil one; a supplication made to open the eyes of those who have been blinded by him not to see the truth, to open up the both ears of those who have been made deaf by him not to hear the truth. As the Lord desires the returning of all those who are now serving the evil one, it becomes a plea before the Lord for destruction of all evil forces binding them and freeing them. It's a challenge made against the evil one, reminding him of his utter defeat at the hands of Christ Lord's Calvary sacrifice; reminding him that it's a defeat for all times; reminding him that he the lord of unrighteousness would be defeated, even if he tries to surface, employing attractive strategies; reminding him as being chained for one thousand years, and of his inability to stop the dawning of a righteous era.

The end of the Holy Bible would take place with an encounter, a discussion between the Lord Jesus and the man. 'He who testifies to these things says "Surely, I am coming soon. Amen, Come Lord Jesus. The Lord of mercy be with you all." (Rev. 22:20) This is a discourse between the bride and groom. The groom is the Lord Jesus and the bride is the human kind. The groom says, "I am coming soon." "Lord Jesus, come soon." It's the bride's response. When the intensity of the heat felt at the place where the bride stands increases, and becomes more terrible, then only her utterance "Lord Jesus, come soon", escapes from her mouth ceaselessly. It will become a great supplicating crying when, the most terrible phase of divine holiness, initiated along with the Easter bomb blast and the Corona epidemic reaches its climax. When the war between righteousness and unrighteousness reaches its peak, the words 'Come, Oh Lord Jesus' will resonate from everyone's mouth. Those words will reverberate and echo right through out the world. The birth pangs reach it very zenith, at the moment a birth takes place. It is the glorious second coming of Jesus and the dawning of the righteous era. During the moment of that great birth Lord Jesus will speak to the bride, who suffers exceedingly, amidst immense pain coupled with abundant hope and say, "Now when these things begin to take place, look up and raise your heads, because your redemption n is drawing near." (Luke 21:28) Therefore what is needed now is not to fall, but to raise heads in victory. Let your lips murmur, the Advent season hymn 'O Come divine messiah'. (its chorus only), right throughout the 365 days. Keep it close to your heart and soul. Sing! 'Dispel the guilt of sin, bid us hail the dawn of grace', and fortify yourself with the power of the Holy Spirit, and let us bring that great, heroic journey to a successful conclusion.

14. 2021 March 12, With a great meditative effort, with a great sense of responsibility and under immense divine grace, I fulfilled the task entrusted to me by the Lord Jesus, through His first hand-maid Sujeewa, telling me, "Anthony, do the needful to educate the people on the Holiness of God." Those few words of Lord Jesus led me to add five chapters to the publication 'Footsteps of the Holy Spirit'. (54-58) We mediated on 'Kadosh', the Aramaic term used by Lord Jesus to refer to the Holiness of God. You will be able to understand His works and deeds more deeply and correctly, when you see the immense heights of God's love, not only as His utmost of power, but also as the supreme manifestation of His holiness. Now we will conclude our meditation on God's Holiness. (Kadosh) Now let's enter into the meditation of Lord Jesus Christ, who is the Lord of the whole universe, the redeemer of the whole human race, and the shepherd. Now, I wish to place before you some quotes from 'The Crucified', (Written on Good Friday), a great literary work, authored by the Lebanese Poet and a Philosopher named Kahlil Gibran.

"Today, and on this same day of each year, man is startled from his deep slumber and stands before the phantoms of the Ages, looking with tearful eyes toward Mount Calvary to witness Jesus the Nazarene nailed on the Cross...But when the day is over and eventide comes, human kinds return and kneel praying before the idols, erected upon every hilltop, every prairie, and every barter of wheat.

Today, the Christian souls ride on the wing of memories and fly to Jerusalem. There they will stand in throngs, beating upon their bosoms, and staring at Him, crowned with a wreath of thorns, stretching His arms before heaven, and looking from behind the veil of Death into the depths of Life...But when the curtain of night drops over the stage of the day and the brief drama is concluded, the Christians will go back in groups and lie down in the shadow of oblivion between the quilts of ignorance and slothfulness.

On this one day of each year, the philosophers leave their dark caves, and the thinkers their cold cells, and the poets their imaginary arbours, and all stand reverently upon that silent mountain, listening to the voice of a young man saying of His killers, "Oh Father, forgive them, for they know not what they are doing." But as dark silence chokes the voices of the light, the philosophers and the thinkers and the poets return to their narrow crevices and shroud their souls with meaningless pages of parchment.

The women who busy themselves in the splendour of Life will bestir themselves today from their cushions to see the sorrowful woman standing before the Cross like a tender sapling before the raging tempest; and when they approach near to her, they will hear a deep moaning and a painful grief. The young men and women who are racing with the torrent of modern civilization will halt today for a moment, and look backward to see the young Magdalen washing with her tears the blood stains from the feet of a Holy Man suspended between Heaven and Earth; and when their shallow eyes weary of the scene they will depart and soon laugh.

On this day of each year, Humanity wakes with the awakening of Spring, and stands crying below the suffering Nazarene; then she closes her eyes and surrenders herself to a deep slumber. But Spring will remain awake, smiling and progressing until merged into Summer, dressed in scented golden raiment. Humanity is a mourner who enjoys lamenting the memories and heroes of the Ages...If Humanity were possessed of understanding, there would be rejoicing over their glory. Humanity is like a child standing in glee by a wounded beast. Humanity laughs before the strengthening torrent which carries into oblivion the dry branches of the trees, and sweeps away with determination all things not fastened by strength... And all that Humanity offers to Him is crying and wailing and lamentation. For centuries Humanity has been worshipping weakness in the person of the Saviour. The Nazarene was not weak! He was strong and is strong! But the people refuse to heed the true meaning of strength.

Jesus never lived a life of fear, nor did He die suffering or complaining....He lived as a leader; He was crucified as a crusader; He died with a heroism that frightened His killers and tormentors. Jesus was not a bird with broken wings; He was a raging tempest who broke all crooked wings. He feared not His persecutors nor His enemies. Free and brave and daring He was. He defied all despots and oppressors. He saw the contagious pustules and amputated them....He muted Evil and He crushed Falsehood and He choked Treachery.

Jesus came not from the heart of the circle of Light to destroy the homes and build upon their ruins the convents and monasteries. But He came to send forth upon this earth a new spirit, with power to crumble the foundation of any monarchy built upon human bones and skulls...He came to demolish the majestic palaces, constructed upon the graves of the weak, and crush the idols, erected upon the bodies of the poor. Jesus was not sent here to teach the people to build magnificent churches and temples amidst the cold wretched huts and dismal hovels....He came to make the human heart a temple, and the soul an altar, and the mind a priest.

These were the missions of Jesus the Nazarene, and these are the teachings for which He was crucified. And if Humanity were wise, she would stand today and sing in strength the song of conquest and the hymn of triumph.

Oh, Crucified Jesus, Who are looking sorrowfully from Mount Calvary at the sad procession of the Ages, and hearing the clamour of the dark nations, and understanding the dreams of Eternity...Thou art, on the Cross, more glorious and dignified than one thousand kings upon one thousand thrones in one thousand empires...Thou art, in the agony of death, more powerful than one thousand generals in one thousand wars... With Thy sorrows, Thou art more joyous than Spring with its flowers...Before Thy lashers, Thou art more resolute than the mountain of rock...Thy wreath of thorns is more brilliant and sublime than the crown of Bahram...The nails piercing Thy hands are more beautiful than the sceptre of Jupiter...The spatters of blood upon Thy feet are more resplendent than the necklace of Ishtar.

Forgive the weak who lament Thee today, for they do not know how to lament themselves...Forgive them, for they do not know that Thou has conquered death with death, and bestowed life upon the dead...Forgive them, for they do not know that Thy strength still awaits them...Forgive them, for they do not know that every day is Thy day."

Let us stop lamenting over the death of Lord Jesus. Let's sing in exultation and joy over the redemption, which He has brought about through the sacrificing of his life. Let's abide, always in the graces and favours, which He has bestowed on us through His death and resurrection. Lord Jesus' sacrifice of life on the cross is on behalf of all humans. He has freed the whole human race from eternal punishment through the sacrifice of His life. What is now left is the temporal punishment. Through this, He has opened up the way to enter eternal life, by being cleansed (paid) here on earth and in the holy fires of purifying. Jesus' passion, death and resurrection are His Passover (Pesach). It is your and my Passover, which should now take place. In this regard, we must build up a relationship with Lord Jesus, the man who on behalf of us laid His life, and rose from death. Let's enter into this in this manner. See yourself as a sinner and accept your sinfulness. Realize, that you cannot overcome sin (especially the original sin) on your own. See the immense price, which Lord Jesus paid for our sins. Accept, Lord Jesus as your saviour. Then, you will be freed, totally. Build a strong relationship with Lord Jesus, based on that acceptance. It is your Passover.

Teachings such as that the Heavenly Father did not want the shedding of the blood of His son, as a ransom for sin and that the passion and death of Christ were a man-made enterprise are spreading, especially among those who have studied theology, deeply. This is a dangerous virus, surpassing even Covid-19. This destroys the Christian spirituality. Therefore, we have to think deeply about that. The whole universe created by God, is wholly and perfectly pure, in itself. Think of the moment when sin (selfishness) entered into that absolutely perfect and unpolluted creation. The moment sin entered into the world is a moment the whole creation was subject to a severe trembling and tremor. Therein, the earth produced darnels and thorny bushes against men; even some animals too rose up against men. Who is capable of ending this development, paying a suitable price for this? A simple, meager price would not be sufficient enough. No noble deeds of any man would be able to pay that price. For this cause, God's only son Himself had to come to this world in the form of a man. The blood of the God's son, who became a man was required for this purpose. The blood of the son of man, who remained sinless through his life span of thirty-three years on earth was required for this. It was the only suitable price, on account of the entry of sin into the absolutely pure, unpolluted creation of God. It was a priceless price. Because of that only that God the Father laid the foundation for the redeeming act and took it unto the zenith of success.

The man was created at the Garden of Eden. The fall of man too took place at the garden of Eden. God gave the promise of redemption and deliverance at the garden of Eden. (Genesis 3:15) The first step of God's great redemptive activity too took place at the garden of Eden. What is the first step of redemption, that took place in the garden of Eden? Through their sin the first parents lost the royal garment of divine son hood, which they wore till then. They saw their nakedness. They tried to cover their nakedness with leaves and branches of trees. God gave to both of them two garments made of animal skins and allowed them to cover their nakedness with them, throwing aside the leaves and branches. Though it was the first act of the redemptive exercise, God made it to be a symbol of the last act of redemptive exercise. (Victory of Calvary) An animal has to die, sacrifice its life if its skin is to become a garment for a human being. Lord Jesus through His supreme sacrifice of life restored the right of man to his royal garment of sonship which he has lost through his sin. For this, God the Father prepared a cross and entrusted it to His Son. Therefore, St. Paul comments, 'Cross is the wisdom of God'. Now it should be clear that Lord Jesus' sacrificing of His life in total is a plan of God the Father.

After our Lord Jesus' sacrificing of His life, there are number of ways for us to respond to God Father's love. But, the people of those days had only one way. That was burnt offerings of animals and first fruit of the harvest. For a farmer, it was a portion of his harvest; for a shepherd it was an animal from his flock. The Holy Bible clearly says that God did not want either sacrificial or burnt offerings. But God had to accept such offerings, as the only way they had to return their love to God was that. But God transformed it to be a grand occasion running through the salvation episode. God decreed that the goat, the lamb or the bull, selected for the burnt offering should be a male, robust, and spotless animal. It symbolized Christ who had to die on behalf of sinners. It denoted that Christ was spotless, free of any form of sin. As it was a young animal, God used its blood for man's salvation from sin. What did He do with that? It was ... taking back in to the past, of the fruits of the sacrificing of life on Calvary. Thus, God took backward, into the past, step by step, His salvation endeavour, in this manner. Just think of the scape goat (marked for Azazel), referred to in the Holy Bible. Having selected a young, robust, spotless goat, they assigned all the sins of Israelites to it and chased it away into the wilderness. The suffering and death of that Goat was considered an expiation for the sins of all Israelites. This is symbolic of the sacrificing of life on Calvary. Even the serpent, made of bronze that was hung on a pole in the desert symbolized the same calvary sacrifice. All those who were bitten by a serpent were cured of the venom by looking at the dead, bronze serpent on the pole. It symbolized the cleansing of the poison of human sins by the sacrificing of life on Calvary. Marking of the door posts with the blood of goats too was used as another symbol. It was a powerful statement to the effect that all those who are bathed in the blood of Jesus would be saved. It is very clear that the suffering of Lord Jesus is the plan of God the Father for the salvation of mankind. These words of Jesus confirm that truth. So Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into its sheath; shall I not drink the cup the Father has given me?" (John 18:11)

(I wish to quote from a note I made in the third publication of 'Daham Navodaya', namely 'The Holy Fountain and Summit'.) "Lord Jesus taught us about the kingdom of God, the Heavenly father and the laws of the divine kingdom. St. Paul teaches us about Lord Jesus Christ, the king of the divine kingdom. Acts. 9:1 -19 describes (Saul the soldier becomes Paul the preacher) His experiencing of the conversion brought about in his life. A flash of light surpassing that of the Sun brought the soldiers down and he heard the voice of Jesus through that light. "Saul, why do you persecute me?" "Who are you, Lord?" he asked. "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting." This was the reply. Saul, the persecutor of Christians had heard about the 'historical Christ.' Through this conversation he felt and realized the 'Risen Christ,' i.e. The 'Glorified Christ'. He did not persecute Christ, but Christians, his followers. When Jesus compares the persecution to an aggression against him the truth about the 'Mystical Body of Christ' was revealed to Paul. (that is the Church is the body of Christ, Christ Himself is its head, the members of the Church are limbs of the body, pain and suffering that a limb under goes is felt and shared by the other limbs and the head.)

When Ananias declares Paul as the chosen tool of the Lord to take the Good News to the gentiles, Paul realizes the truth about the 'Cosmic Christ'. The accepted notion of the yesteryears was that Israel was the chosen people of God and the rest are the gentiles. Through the above words Paul realized that all the people of the world are the people of God. Therefore, all those who bear the name 'Christian' should become one with the realization of Paul and gain the experience of Total Christ. Then, all the Christians of the world would be able to unite as one congregation casting away the narrow, divisive and destructive tendencies. All the epistles written by St. Paul are an extension, an expansion the message expressed by (Acts 9:1-19) He sees the arising of the body (the Church) as the head of the Mystical body has already risen. (When the deliverer of a message, a faith is aware of Historical Christ only, his message losses intensity and penetrative sharpness. Possession of knowledge (the experience) about Glorified Christ adds acceptance and sharpness to the message)

I now combine sections 56, 57, 58 and would like to state this. The glorious second coming of Lord Jesus is close at hand. He will come again to a world, which had been purified.

That great purification will be carried out by God the Father himself. That great purification of God was initiated along with Corona pandemic and the Easter Sunday bomb blast. That purification, till its end will be carried out within the war between righteousness and unrighteousness. Two thirds of the world population will vanish from the world through this great purification process of God. Every death which happens on account of this great purification process of God, including those deaths, caused by the Easter bomb blast, will be treated by God as offerings, but not as martyrs. The pangs, which have now emerged far exceed those that happened in the past, and ferocity. Those pangs will continue in peaks and ebbs till the dawning of the righteous era. This is the will of God for end times. None of us have any right to engage in argument with God over his wishes. Therefore, I repeat: This great purification is an act of God's loving hands for the sake of the dawning of the righteous era. Therefore, in those perilous situations do not lose hope regarding anyone or anything. Let's hope, let's pray that all happens for good.

The balance one third will be subjected to the great process of purification. Then the glorious second coming of Lord Jesus and the dawning of the 1000-year righteous era will take place. God will wipe away the tears from everyone's eyes. No longer will there be diseases and sicknesses. No longer will there be death. No longer will there be skirmishes. The knowledge about God will inundate the world, as the waters in the oceans. The people rejoicing through that priceless possession will think that the price they paid, through their pangs and perils is no match for what they experience now. Therefore, let's strengthen our relationship with Lord Jesus who is our Lord, Redeemer and Shepherd. Let's arm ourselves with the power of the most precious and mighty name of Jesus, which excels far above all names, in the whole universe. Immersing ourselves, also bathing others in the redemptive, precious blood of Lord Jesus, which gushed forth through His passion and sufferings and let's go forward boldly up to the dawning of the Righteous Era even amidst the great disasters.

“During these terrible times, I entrust you all to Infant Jesus”

On 20th May 2021, fire broke out on the tanker (Ship) 'Express Pearl' and around June 2nd it hit the bottom of the sea, at a location close to our island. Then I remembered some notes, which Lord Jesus had made through His young maidservant, also which I didn't include in the 1st part of the publication 'The footsteps of the Holy Spirit'. As Lord Jesus commanded me to unveil all, which He has revealed, but which I had withheld from the world, I now intend to share them with you.

8th September 2003

“This country is unable to go forward any further. All efforts taken to go forward will fail and falter. Famous persons of this country, hanging on to power ruthlessly will pass away during this shedding of blood.”

17th September 2003

“This nation should perish if salvation is to dawn on the nation. I, God the Creator has bestowed on your nation, all what you identify as natural resources for your good and benefit. Now I will ensure that all those resources are destroyed. Because the rulers have sold and consumed all those resources which I gave to you. Still, they continue to sell and consume. There are who lead a fabulous life with all material comforts wearing rich, royal garments and come to this nation pretending to have a great courteous posture. But, if their clothes are removed and they are disrobed, Children! you will find the Satan, the Lucifer residing in them.” They are agents of Satan. They are greedy and drugged in pleasure. They are greedy for this nation; and greedy of exploiting its natural resources. It is not because of the love they have towards this nation, but because of their desire to fulfill Lucifer’s intention. It’s a great source of pain and discomfort for me to destroy this Land which I created. But it should happen accordingly, for the sake of my future plans to destroy unrighteousness.”

29th November 2003

“In the face of the violent shakings and turbulences, coming ahead, this nation should descend low and low into the abyss. Because no one endeavours to do something for the sake of this nation in accordance with his conscience and his religion. Everything will be carried out to serve their self-interest and personal benefits. There are only wretched rulers in the country. But what happens through them is my plan.”

18th January 2004

“See the plan, through the great shedding of blood and skirmishes, and commotions to come ahead. This nation is marching towards destruction, not towards peace and relief. All rulers of the nation are going forward in search of destruction. No one is capable of producing a vision for peace. All is doomed and destined for destruction.”

1st February 2004

“Though this is a nation of decay and destruction, you my disciples are walking on a nation of salvation. All is ready, started for the destruction of this nation. None in the nation can revamp and lift it up. Everything has gone from bad to worse, descending low into the abyss. This is a moment when everyone, burning with jealousy, envy, hate and greed for power is trying to reach the top at the expense of all others. Those pretending to act to reverse the declining order and bring normalcy do not act with a sense of sincerity of heart. Those who act in similar manner have completed the task of offering their inner dwellings to the Lord of darkness for him to build his palace therein. Then, how can I rebuild this nation through those types of individuals? How do I use those individuals to rebuild this ancient land of righteousness? This is the moment when everything is being drawn from destruction to destruction.

12th February 2006

“Your nation is progressing in the path of decay and destruction. But, because of the apparent outward prosperity, the real situation remains obscure. But there are even a few learned people in the nation who see the truth as it is. As they speak boldly about the truth that they see, they too will be wiped away from this world, by the power of the dark forces. Then, this fire will erupt and burn wildly, calling for the forces of unrighteousness. Therein, he will become the king. Then, you will flourish in the presence of the Lord.”

These notes which I have penned under section 41 of “Footsteps of the Holy Spirit” will help you to understand more fully the words of Lord Jesus, detailed above. Therefore, I wish to restate those words again. “...In time to come, Lucifer will bring many powerful nations under his control. He is readying to rule over the world.... In time to come, this country will become prosperous. It is caused not by Me, but by Lucifer himself... Prosperity will come, surely. But it comes from the evil one.”

Two people who have gone through the “Footsteps of the Holy Spirit” inquired from me in this manner. “Brother Anthony, why did you believe this so much, which is so unconventional? Neither a clue nor a statement has been made in this publication enabling even to think of that”. Their observation is correct. The reason is that I removed, at the last moment, a note, which I had prepared to be included in the publication. It was laid down under No. 9. I intend to present it to you, again.

29th November 1987 was the first Sunday of the Season of Advent. I felt in my heart that I should engage in prayer and fasting, remaining in the little hut at Diyagala, commencing from that day till Christmas day. I yielded to that urge. It was a time when terror engulfed the country. December 10, 11, and 12 were spent fasting. It was December 12th. The readings for the day at holy mass were (Sirach 48:1-4, 9-11, Psalms 80: 2, 3, 14, 15, 17, 18 and Mathew 17: 10-13). As I was meditating deeply on the readings up to 12th December on the dream which God had deposited within me and on the words that were very dear and near to me in my spiritual life, early in the morning a great inspiration, a great thought sprang in my mind. (I don’t mention it here. As it has been recorded earlier, I removed it that day,) I was surprised over the words which came to my mind that day. Within the thoughts which sprang up in my mind there was an indication regarding the preparation of the world for the second coming. On 12th December I scribbled down notes about that. “It could even be sin, to believe a thing of this nature. Therefore, I don’t hold on to it firmly. If this revelation is from the Lord, He would have to proclaim and publish it to the world through a not simple, but special way”

We entered this unconventional journey, as the community of ‘Daham Navodaya’ on 7th June 1996. On that day when these words ‘Anthony, I have chosen you as my forerunner of preparing the way ahead.’, escaped from her mouth I did not shudder. There is a reason for this. It is that I remembered the words which I scribbled, on 12th December 1987 was the reason. I was not given an opportunity by the Lord to utter even a word about my accepting or not accepting of His call. There is a reason even for that. When that call was extended at Muruthena on 7th June 1996, a period of eight and ½ years had since the receiving of a revelation on 12th December 1987. This is what I told the Lord by the whole length of that period. “I do not ask for greater things from you. If you think that my future, being spent in silence in this manner would be beneficial to you, I am ready even for that. But I am ready even to lay down my life in accomplishing any hazardous, difficult task, as decreed by you.”

In Chapter 51 of ‘Footsteps of the Holy Spirit,’ a note has been made of a fall as well as rising, that I had encountered on 17th February 2018. On 20th January 2019 I fell on the ground as I was preparing to return home following a three-day prayer session while I attempted to set fire to a heap of trash and rubbish. My face got smashed against the floor with a violent thud. It happened at Nattandiya, Pahalagama. I had to spend a few days with a few medical plasters on my face. It was not merely a physically debilitating fall. A few days thereafter, I came down badly, spiritually as well as mentally. It was all, “formless, barren, and darkness over the deep”. On Friday, 6th February I went to the Chair of Jesus (headquarters) for prayers. After Jesus had spoken to a person through Sujeewa, I got an opportunity. This happened during a period of just 5 minutes. In the presence of Sujeewa I called on Jesus and said, “Jesus, look at me, not only my exterior, but my interior self too you can see deeply and thoroughly; Jesus, I feel that I’m very weak and infirm; Jesus, take a drop of oil onto your finger and mark the crest of my head with the sign of the cross.” Lord Jesus fulfilled my request through the hands of Sujeewa; then He said, “Anthony, be happy.”

Then we immersed ourselves in the prayers for the day. As I prepared to leave at the end of prayers, I told Sampath, “I want an old Hymn Book”. “I have a new one. I’ll give it to you.”, so said Sampath. “All I want of the old book is the page containing that message,” I told him so. “I have a new page; I’ll give it to you”, said Sampath. I must tell you something about that page. It was something which happened around seven years before. I was going home, as I used to do once a week. As I felt sick on that day, I avoided tiring my limbs by overworking and spent the day resting. Then, I saw the booklet ‘Come to me’, at home. I read the entire book. I found some contents of the booklet very meaningful. Therefore, I read the book again, and noted down only some sentences which were very meaningful. Then I shared them with our community.

On Sunday, the 10th of February, I recalled those sentences which I had noted down. (Though, I got them on the 6th, I read them only on that day.) “Now you know I have seen the interior depth of your heart.” Those words started to burn within me. Then only I remembered the words, which I said to Lord Jesus at headquarters (The Chair). “Jesus, look at me; not only my exterior, but my interior self too, you can see deeply and thoroughly” Therefore, that note was from Jesus himself. I felt that it was solely intended for me. I spent the whole day with those sentences and memorized them. I realized and understood all what Lord Jesus has done in me and through me. I thought, ... however much the journey is unconventional, nothing had gone wrong. (Who authored the booklet? (“Come to me”). This question sprang to me that day. Author’s name was not mentioned therein.) Now I wish to place that note before you.

“Lord Jesus, coming to you to receive your blessings and comfort in you is one thing and contributing to the great mission of the Mightiest Lord, as Moses and Jeremiah did is another thing.”

I am called the wounded healer. You too, who endured numerous pains and perils for the sake of fulfilling My Heavenly Father’s great plan are now a wounded healer indeed. Therefore, I now choose you as my apostle. My child, I can now release my power through your help. I can propagate my kingdom of love throughout the world. It is through the numerous sorrows and sufferings which you endured that I trained you to give ear to others and bring them hope and healing. I’ll repay you for this in a manner surpassing the highest of your expectations. Now you know that I have seen the very bottom of your heart.

(I’ll heal all your wounds. But what I ask you again is to allow me to do certain things in my own way. The whole plan for the future is now in my possession. I never wanted to burden you with unnecessary sorrows, and suffering at any time.)

It is for the fulfillment of my Father's great plans for the future of the world that these things have happened to you in this manner. Lord Jesus, I now know that You have made me in this fashion on account of that great purpose. Now I am engulfed by a thought about reaching home. Lord, the words that you have given me lift me up. They enliven my life. Your Holy Spirit has been poured upon me like torrential rain.

My child, if you know how long I have waited to do some good to you and to do the maximum to the world through you, you will tell this to me. My ever-loving Lord Jesus, with a heart full of thanksgiving, I prostrate before you and say to you from the very bottom of my heart I thank you Lord."

On September 21 and 22 in 1974, I entered a spiritual journey, accepting Lord Jesus as my Redeemer, Lord and Shepherd. From the beginning of this journey and up to now, this is what I told Lord Jesus. "I like to come up unto the end of the journey for which you have called me. It is on behalf of the salvation of all. I do not expect anything from you either by way of worldly or heavenly riches. All I want is the Dinar, which you promised to all. There is no doubt that it will be received. It is on account of your sacrificing of life." It is the integrity of my goal which stood as a pillar of strength to me, right throughout this journey. 1 Corinthians 3:11 was inspiring to me at the Second Sermon of The Entry Speeches of Pubuduwa. "For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ." From the time I understood that truth, all I wanted was to grow and be built depending on Lord Jesus, Heavenly Father, and the Holy Spirit and to make that the very foundation of my life. All what I wanted was to enter deep into the depth of Lord Jesus' religious doctrines. Therefore, I distanced myself from all external religious pomposities and festive chants and celebrations. If Lord Jesus is near me, Mother Mary too will be near me. All the saints will be near me. It became my firm belief. It became my experience.

This is the 36th year since I was shunned from Pubuduwa. On 12th of November 1985 the thought which filled my mind at the time of my shunning from Pubuduwa was this. "This is your period of your exile. Therefore, do not meet anyone. Especially do not meet associates of Pubuduwa, other than meeting them at weddings, funerals or on the way." I conducted myself accordingly. When the complexities and unconventional nature of the experiences which I passed through are considered, necessarily, I would be compelled to act so. Why do I say so? The first question, raised by a person meeting me after some time is this: "Brother Anthony, what do you do now?" I have some difficulties in answering that question. If I attempted to answer them even with some difficulty, through my words they might feel as if I am suffering from insanity. Therefore, lonely life became my very right, my personal possession. It is being in solitude with Lord Jesus. This my own exile came to an end officially, along with the publication 'Footsteps of the Holy Spirit' become open to the world. It happened on a day in the middle of March 2020. I now have an answer to give to those who raise the question, 'Brother Anthony, what do you do now? That answer is visit <http://dahamnavodaya.com>. Browse and read! Along with opening of "Footsteps of the Holy Spirit" to the world, Lord Jesus has arranged to share my 35 years exile and loneliness with the whole world through lockdowns of Corona endemic.

"Though my exile was brought to an end, it did not leave me mentally. It happened on 2 days i.e., 2020 November 7th & 8th. I had not read the book 'Vaane Pannaraya Lebu Heti', "How the steel was tempered" until then. I got that novel into my hands on November 7th. By midnight, on 8th November I had finished reading the novel. The author was unfolding his life story through the character 'Pavel'. I wish to present you with some thoughts about the novel and some matters, pertaining to the novel, analyzed therein, which made an impact on me.

"There are life size adventures (feats) and adventurous lives. The life of the famous Soviet author, Nikolai Ostrowhisky is such an adventure. His life span was just 32 years. (1904-1936) He spent 12 years, as a patient suffering from a grave illnesses. For the last 8 years of his life, he was blind. But the footprints left behind by him are very deep. His bed was his home for 12 years...The magnitude of power and warmth, reflected by him was such that you rather than being sympathetic towards him, will be filled with a noble attitude towards him... He spent his days happily, even though his illness was incurable: He could not move his hands and feet, he was blind, and suffered physically day and night. A man becomes elegant and more beautiful, solely because of the noble intentions, which he endeavours to achieve. The great French Author Rumen Roland who drew much pleasure from Nikolai Ostrowhisky identified him as a bright beacon of effective activity."

"Acceptance of the depletion of energy, yearly became a painful and grave issue. He had two plans at his disposal. The first was expressing of his inability to emit the special force & energy, expected of him and accepting as a fact his declining physical health condition. The second was continuing with his current work load, till he collapsed. Pavel chose the second option...When writing sheets are placed under a cardboard cover, 8 mm in breadth, and pierced horizontally to make little holes, letters could be written horizontally on the sheets, using a sharpened pencil through those holes. The members of his family, placed 25-30 sheets of paper, under a cardboard cover, pierced with tiny holes and gave it to Ostrowhisky, daily along with a few numbers of sharpened pencils."

This is how Ostrowhisky completed his novel, successfully 'The way, how the steel got tempered and reinforced'. He succeeded in winning the 'Lenin Award'. Nikolai Ostrowhisky appeared to me as a great sage. He lived for the sake of noble ideas, which he thought as correct contributing to the progress of human civilization. "How the steel was tempered" gave a great sense of purpose and reinforcement to me, too. It was the author's bold, fearless life style which reinforced me, embolden me. I took a firm decision to fulfill successfully, till I fall dead, all what Lord Jesus assigns to me, in spite of my advanced age, failing health. It is through this background, that I should fulfill all duties being assigned to me now and emerge out into the world as a 'sprout arising from the desert'. What has now dawned is the 48th year of my new birth, begun along with the acceptance of Lord Jesus Christ as my saviour. There are no miracles in the long journey, being passed by me. At least, not even an angel was seen even in a dream. This merely is a faith journey undertaken, believing in God. When the long journey that I am passing through and its nature are considered, I feel that my creator has a great task set apart not only for my soul, but to my mind too. The words said by Lord Jesus confirms this. "Of this earth, you will be the first man to conquer the Omega point (zenith). Along with this, the narrow, deep path which you walk through will become a broad way for all. Your flock will come to the Omega point through that broad way. They will walk, with great energy and enthusiasm, even surpassing you. From where you stop your task my son, from there on it will be a broad way for all. (38) These words will confirm this, even more. "Father Shardin has stated that transferring of the mental strata of the human kind to higher strata, in a high-pitched manner has already been decreed."

I wish to present you a few excerpts from Professor Anton Meemana's article, which appeared in 'Gnanartha Pradeepaya' (Sinhala Catholic Weekly Paper) of 8th December 2014. These words are source of strength for me. These words bear witness to the correctness of the path along which the Lord has led me.

"She is most eminent and full of grace. But it is clear she never expected any grace. She never wanted to be world famous, to shine above others, to rise above others, and emerge to be victorious trampling others. She was a pious, prayerful character, deep in silence, open, and hidden exclusively in God.....She hid herself from the world, not because she hated the world, but because she wanted to get nearer and nearer to the Lord and to submit herself totally to the will of the Lord... Though not identified instantaneously by the world, it's the person who hides self totally in the Lord and lives in the Lord, silently, calmly and humbly that brings true hope to the world. In the final analysis, it is God who identifies the true mission and rewards it. The mission that which the Lord does not identify is no a real mission at all...It is very rare that a true service and mission will be identified by the world. When such identification is made, it happens through the divine grace of God."

"You have completed 25 years in your journey, carrying as a community, with Lord Jesus who is coming in this manner. At this turning point of reaching 25 years, the whole world is now in dread. Even at this moment, many terrible things are happening throughout the whole universe, without the knowledge of man. Certain things are taking place within the nature. Many things take place because of greed for power. This is a time when various calamities to people happens and increase. Children, whatever might be the danger that crop up, I am your refuge. Man has been sent to this world after being given the breath of life, and after inserting the soul into the body. The garment that covers your soul is your body. It is within the body this soul has been placed. The body which protects the man cannot hold and retain the soul forcibly. A time will come, for the soul to be separated from the body, and ascend up to the Father, when called by the Father. A man does many things to gratify this body, while he lives on this world. It is through this that sin increases. The man tires himself to retain goodness within himself. He likes to obey God's commandments and to mould himself in the likeness of God. But sin, unknowing to him subdues him and holds him captive in different appeals and imaginations."

"My children, all would have to go leaving behind this dirty garment, (the body) stained with sin, at some time. If your garments carry stubborn stains, you will try any means to remove them. If you failed to remove them by any means, you will throw away the garment. Likewise, there are sins in men which cannot be removed. However much we try to erase them they will cling on consistently. Everything is possible for the Lord even among sins that are considered to be indelible; hard to erase. The blood of Jesus and the price paid by Him could do everything. Having been filled with a firm belief of that truth, and having eradicated sin completely by the power of that belief, a decision should be taken to walk immaculately in accordance with the plan of the Father. Then, you will be able to defeat the adversary, completely. Even in the following moment, the world would have to experience numerous terrible developments. Under these circumstances the mind of man will wander to and fro, here and there, greatly. There are difficulties in holding the mind at ease, without wandering. Now man should prepare to focus his mind to spend that moment in God when he is to do so. At a time like this, it would become necessary to give a good fight for this purpose. "

“During these terrible times, I entrust you all to infant Jesus. All of you invite infant Jesus, Come to me, and to enter into me along with my sigh (inhale). During this time, in every country in the world, it has become necessary to be vaccinated against this virus. Earlier, before I have told you not to get caught to this vaccine and avoid it. Therefore, many helpless people including those engaged in jobs are inquiring from me, ‘Jesus, what should we do now?’. This is the suggestion that I make to defeat Satan. If you are called to face such a situation (compelled to be vaccinated), what you would have to do is to invite infant Jesus. Tell this. “Infant Jesus, be part of my sigh and come into me along with my breathing (inhale). Infant Jesus, is there anything in this vaccine that is against You, against me. Remain within my body, gather them all and expel them along with my sigh and breathing (exhale). Remember well, my profound message. That is man must obey the divine law. Secondly, he must obey the state law. Therefore, do not fear to take this vaccine. You will understand that no harmful effects come upon you, as Infant Jesus is within you.”

“When that vaccine is received under the first phase, you will be issued with a card. OK. Receive it. Next comes the dangerous vaccine. Then you will be able to evade it. What is necessary is to have the card, you received, Is it not? The vaccine that comes next is from Lucifer. This is the plan. It is a conspiracy. They try to draw the people towards that; it starts from America. Along with that 666, plans are being made to insert men with a chip. Now the book of Lucifer is being opened. Therefore, everybody should remain alert. I have come at this moment, especially to give this profound message to my children. If you feel the presence of a dangerous ailment within your body, then you can invite Infant Jesus. Be with my sigh and enter me. There are infected spots in my body. You see everything. Touch, with the tips of your little fingers the infected spots of my body. When you reach the deepest ends of your belief and become one with that sensation, you will feel a tickling effect, a little change on the spots being touched. Therefore, fear not, worry not about your body, at any time. This is the way to your remedy and wellbeing. It is easy to get that remedy by inviting infant Jesus. Infant Jesus is able to enter into you by transforming Him as your sigh and breathe through the mighty power of the Father.”

“I told you now that Lucifer’s book has been opened. Even education has been pushed to online mode because of this virus. Therefore, cellular phones have found their place in the hands of children. A dangerous situation is being developed because of this. Parents have been compelled to give to their children what they never wanted to give. In future, numerous more things far exceeding those developments will take place. At the hour of the Father, I’ll bless and allow continuation of education for some time. When a ship was on fire releasing poisonous gases into the sea, a great catastrophe engulfed this nation. Now the heavenly Father is touching the sea bed and blessing it, about one month from now, fish from the sea will be edible and free of poisons. Continue doing what I asked you to do. Submit your body to Infant Jesus Himself. Get the sick spots on your body touched by the tender fingers of infant Lord Jesus, around three or four times daily. It is safer. Scarcity of food items will intensify more than now. Now the cultivators are facing a development which allows them not to cultivate. Problems of this nature are found not only in our nations, but in other foreign nations too. Lives of people are becoming more and more miserable. But God is almighty and can do everything.”

“It is only at the end, that the Lucifer’s vaccine comes. That’s why I told you to receive it for now. When you take it now, no complications and adverse side effects will occur. But, later come. That’s their plan too. Now it has become public all over the world through revelations.

They know it. So, they are subtle. But God is more subtle. Failure to get vaccinated contravenes government rules. Admission to hospitals will be denied if the card is not produced. No food, drinks etc. could be purchased. Sick children will not be able to obtain treatment. The card should be produced for that. These will come in the future. That's why I allow them to take place, at the first phase. Even there too, you do that (seeking refuge in infant Jesus) and get vaccinated. It will not be a problem. Is it not the card that's wanted at first? Later during the last stages, you can evade it. There's nothing to fear because you have the card. Even at the early stages of the Catholic Church there was a period of persecution. Many had to sacrifice their lives because of their religious faith. In all that, there was a positive side too; their sacrificing led to some sort of safety too. A section of the people became victims by disobeying their commands; another section obeys them out of fear. But all received salvation because of the sacrifice made by a section with their lives. In future, a war more devastating in nature will begin. It will begin on a smaller scale, here and there."

"So, now, many adults who have fulfilled their obligations towards their children and needs rest in life are called by the Heavenly Father, very quickly as for them to get rid of these troubles.

(Following that conversation, a dialogue of this type commenced with me.)

You understood, isn't it, Anthony? Now your preparation is to go when you are called, isn't it?

"So, what's your age now?"

"Just passed 81 years"

"Good, how long do you wish to stay with these people"

"No such desire, Jesus"

"No wish, it is only to go that you desire?"

"No, no intention to go too. Only God's plans about me should take place."

"Heavenly Father will not take you, until it happens. Yes, don't feel sad. You will have to face different and different things, even amidst all your clinging. Anthony, then you would have to empty yourself of them, and succeed by overcoming them with faith and hope in God."

How profound is God's wisdom and knowledge? How praiseworthy are His deeds?

1. I intend to develop this chapter as a supplement and epilogue to Chapters 56, 57, & 58. For this purpose I intend to place only essential matters before you. If you have studied the chapters 56, 57, & 58 thoroughly you will be able to understand the great plans of God about end times to a certain extent, even by now. The righteous era will begin, with the binding of the lord of unrighteousness for 1000 years. From the time of the fall of man, streams of thoughts flow into man from two sources. The sources are God and the adversary. "Binding the adversary for 1000 years" means the drying up all what flow from that source. Then, all thoughts will flow towards everybody from one source that is God. It is in this way that the whole world will be filled with knowledge about God, as the ocean is filled with water. It is God, who will create this situation. Before that God will act to transform the world into a good position, using those lives, who have willingly entrusted themselves into the hands of God. It is that phase, which has now arisen. "God, why do you keep watching, allowing evil things and injustice to exist? We have heard that you have done mighty deeds in the past. Why don't you act in such manner now?" Pleas and supplications of this calibre are found in the books of the prophets. These cries and supplications have risen up to heaven through all those who have been affected by injustices and tribulations. In one of the first pages of 'Footsteps of the Holy Spirit', it has been mentioned in this manner. "Injustice is scattered as if always and everywhere, like a wind. Justice comes to the stage late, in heavy strides." It is the beginning of the coming, with heavy strides of the Most Eminent, during the end times that has been initiated with the Easter bomb blast and the Corona virus epidemic. It is God the Father's purification. It is the moment, when the expectations of the people of God come true. How precious are the plans of the Lord, set in motion on behalf of the humankind? Let us now think of how the excellent plan of the Lord, set in motion from the moment of creating man, is rolled over, step by step.

God, when creating man endowed him/her with a body, consisting five sensory limbs, enabling him to join hands with the world. He gave him intelligence and a mind to manage everything effectively. Above all, He gifted him with a soul to proceed towards a grand purpose, which the mind and intelligence could not grasp. He gave him a conscience to distinguish good and evil. Then, He assigned him a responsibility and gave him a mission. He was given a free will either to obey or disobey that. Why did God the Creator give man a free will? God created man, as a being readily responding to His love. It was an invitation for life of Love. A life of love requires free will and freedom to choose. If it is absent, then it will be a life of serfdom. Man can bring down the whole creation to an extreme catastrophic situation by disobeying the call for that mission. It happened by man's disobedience to God. Selfishness, sin and suffering entered the most immaculate, absolutely holy creation of God. Selfishness, sin and suffering are not God-made. It was a product of the man, who disobeyed God. Man lost his right to divine relationship through his disobedience. As the time passes, the man thirsts for that lost privilege. He seeks the lost right, i.e., divine relationship. The truth of this is could be observed in the incident surrounding the building of the Babel Tower. It was an act carried out to regain the lost right, relying on self. It cannot be found through one's own endeavours and attempts. Therefore, it falls apart. But seeking God and thirsting after God will not go waste. When man seeks God with a burning thirst, God comes, searching after him. God came in search of Abraham.

Accordingly, God lays the foundation for the salvation history. It is God's boundless love which led to the creation of man. Only God's boundless love can re-create the fallen man. Therefore, the salvation history, i.e., the history of re-introducing of God's boundless love, was commenced by God with Abraham. Why did God come in search of a single man, when there were many people thirsting for God? "God is the Alpha and the Omega" (Rev. 1:3) (The beginning and the absolute end, the first letter and the last letter) The intention of God was to introduce his boundless love to all mankind. The Lord initiated it at an Alpha level, as a God of a single individual, as God of Abraham. Thereafter, He worked as the God of Isaac and God of Jacob. Then, He changed Jacob's name, to Israel. Then, He raised up the nation of Israel, appointing Jacob's 12 sons, as leaders of 12 tribes. It was the second phase of God introducing His love. Israel passes his life as a baby and becomes a child. Guidance and instructions are often necessary in respect to all affairs, during the childhood. Therefore, the first five books of the Bible (The Pentateuch) are loaded with advice and admonition. Israel becomes a young man (young age), amidst numerous advice and admonition, passing through victory and defeat, rebelling through disobedience and punishment and being tempered by the Babylonian exile. When viewed from the angle of human relationship, the relationship between God and Israel equates to that of a marriage. The 'Song of Solomon', being the best amongst songs in the Bible represents the friendship between God and Israel, as an entry into experiencing the joys of solemn marriage bondage. God is represented, as the fiancé and Israel as the fiancée. Now, they see good only in each other. The meaning of experiencing the bondage of marriage is that. Each one appreciates the each other, at its best. It is love which sees no faults, but only the good. This is how God acts after granting pardon and forgiveness.

The friendship between God and Israel that equated to the rich experience found in marriage bond, fell apart again. From a Christian perspective, following a religion means building up a deep relationship with God. It is a great love affair with God. From a Christian perspective, sin is an act of adultery, leaving behind one's lover and going after another and other things. Israel falls into the status of a harlot. Prophet Isaiah laments over this great fall in this manner. "Hear me, you, heavens! Listen, earth! For the Lord has spoken: "I reared children and brought them up, but they have rebelled against me. The ox knows its master, the donkey its owner's manger, but Israel does not know, my people do not understand. Woe to the sinful nation, a people whose guilt is great, a brood of evildoers, children given to corruption! They have forsaken the Lord; they have spurned the Holy One of Israel and turned their backs on him." (Isaiah 1:2-4) God's love is boundless and it imposes no conditions; therefore, God is a true lover. Whatever the faults, shortcomings she (Israel) might have, He corrects her and maintains the marriage bond with her. Unto the very end He will remain within the bond of marriage. To raise her (Israel) to reunite the divine relationship, God has sent 16 prophets to make preparation for the wedding of this manner. In this manner, the time for the divine-human marriage came up. It has been detailed in the Book of Wisdom of Solomon, in this manner. "For when peaceful stillness encompassed everything and the night in its swift course was half spent, Your all-powerful word from heaven's royal throne leapt into the doomed land." (Wisdom 18:14-15)

The moment for the divine and human marriage arrived. "Becoming flesh" (incarnation) means that. It is the event that tore the world history into two. Humanity and Divinity embraced and became one. Limited things with unlimited things, permanent things with impermanent things, and holy things with worldly things were bonded together. There are many more religions which believe in a creator. But none of them accepts that God became man. Then, what is there is only a limited awareness about the unlimited love of God. Heavenly Father wanted to make the marriage between His son and the humankind a true marriage, rather than it being a pseudo marriage, contracted outwardly. A pseudo marriage means living together during better or richer times only, but avoiding each other at times poorer, worse and in ill health. Lord Jesus became a suffering man (servant), because heavenly Father wanted to make 'God becoming man' a true marriage. As it was a true marriage, the groom was compelled to join his bride (humankind) in all what she experienced. Through God assuming flesh, He became a true man. Can God proceed any further than this to demonstrate His love? God becoming man is not the greatest moment of God's love. God decided to join man in all his sufferings and sorrows, because it was a true marriage. God joined man, emptying him of all his glory and grandeur. It is the basis of the status of emptiness. God became the man who did not sin, but bore the guilt of sin. (2 Corinth 5:21) He became the man moaning with fervent cries. (Hebrews 5:7) Think of the gap that exists between a sacrosanct God and a crying man. God through that experience destroyed that gap. He walked up unto accursed death on the cross - a symbol of curse. (Galatians 3:13) He became the man, experiencing solitude, being the deepest agony that a man can experience. "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" (Mathew 27:46) He walked on till he became food for man for that sake of unifying himself with man. It is the most Holy Eucharist. It is the zenith of God's journey of love. It is an invitation 'Eat me and grow and allow others to eat you and grow.

The Lord did not allow anyone to say, 'you do not understand my sorrows'. Law says a limited love. A great deal of love (unlimited love) was required to save man. It is not ending of sin that He did, but paying the price of sin on behalf of salvation for all. Even though the Son of God came to the world as Jesus, one might ask was it not possible for Him to make the world perfect and wholesome? He did only an 'Alpha-Level' task to make the world perfect and wholesome. Through that He provided all that was needed to proceed up to the Omega summit. Had He made the world perfect and wholesome at once, and then there would not be a mission, left over, to be completed by me and you in that regard. It contradicts the doctrine of love. There should be a mission to be completed even by the last man. Lord Jesus rose from death, prepared the disciples for the advent of the Holy Spirit and ascended into heaven. By pouring of the Holy Spirit, He founded the Church. His Church is His bride. (The whole humanity is His bride. But it is His Church which should provide the real reply that Jesus should receive as the groom.) The bride i.e., His church should persist to stay committed within the marriage with Him (groom) continuously. What is required in this regard is lending of hands, as found in the Holy Gospels, Acts of the Apostles and the Epistles. Lord Jesus promised to take the bride to the divine banquet. The Holy Spirit, "as the wind that blows to the destination of its choice", is ever engaged in a continuous endeavour of preparing the bride. "I'll come soon" says the groom. "Amen, come Lord Jesus", responds the bride. This is how the Holy Bible comes to its end.

It is the fullness in the sacred plan of God about man that baffles us. St. Paul rejoices over that and says, "Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and decisions and how unfathomable and untraceable are His ways!?" (Romans 11:33)

This has been mentioned in Dr. Sarvapalli Radha Krishnan's book 'Religion and Culture'.

"A man becomes a creator of small dimension, when he frees himself from the struggle for the sake of physical security. When we realize that world is more beautiful than the way we dictated it to be in our dreams, the path to new horizons of understanding would be revealed and a proper perspective of our destinies would be made available. New knowledge is an opportunity as well as a challenge to mankind. He should 'not hurriedly, also not lately' endeavour to get closer to the essence of humanity. When the mankind understands the norms of spiritual awareness and human kindness a unique form of peace and harmony, where every group wins and no group will lose would dawn among the people of the world" (35)

2. Lord Jesus prepares us in this manner to face successfully the end-time developments which are now being initiated.

"My children, the future will be very terrible. People, who call my name, who bear witness to my name would have to sacrifice their lives on account of my name. But, my faith (my doctrine) will never fail, at any time or any place. Outwardly, in design and through publications, they [force in league with the evil one] would appear to have won, but their time is running out rapidly. The time for them to accomplish all of them within a short period, to be destroyed, and then to take leave, from the universe, created by the Lord, is very near. That will be a terrible occurrence. It would definitely be a decisive period for my disciples, and my chosen ones, who have the marks of my righteous living. They would start everything in love and peace, of course for outward appearance; they will continue their journey, creating unity in everything; but their internal core vision is not that. They will join in unity and amity, just to entice and enslave everyone to the vile activities of the evil one. Therefore the time has come for you to act thoughtfully, innocently, and intelligently, as I have announced to you repeatedly. The attacks of the evil one will be directed in haste, to all places where the pure truth reigns. You need not fear. My word is with you." (24)

"Remember, how Moses led my people in the past. Recall the manner in which the people rebelled against Moses and rejected their creator, the punishment they earned. This is my way forward..." "Today, a series of mysterious events are taking place in a small country of the world. This is that country. I have chosen a small group of people from this country, and am implementing my plans through series of events, unacceptable to the world. The moment of all what is unacceptable to the world becoming acceptable is just nearing. Just see, the evil one's fires of sins are raging across the world. My process of cleansing has just begun. Rest of the people, I'll purify them by burning them in my holy fire. The accepted Church will break, and fall apart soon. A moment for the emergence of my church, the unaccepted church will come...It is only a few of my priestly sons, devote themselves in serving me in accordance with the promises they have made with me. Plans are being made to appoint another world leader quickly to subjugate even them. This has been written in the scripture. It should come to pass. All of you lead your life during this period carrying the mighty weapon, i.e. the name Jesus. You might have to wage a great war carrying that weapon." (35)

"My Children, bear up and live with the burdens your sufferings and poverty. That indeed is my way of the Cross. Teach your children the worth and value of pain and suffering. When you show the mansion of the evil one i.e. the temporal, mundane things of the world to your children as the ultimate glory and gain they will be destroyed. They being unaware of what pain and suffering means will be drawn to their destruction in and amidst worldly comforts and pleasures. Therefore children! Let your children feel and understand what pain and suffering is. Train them in and on pain and sufferings. Through all these they will be elevated; exalted and made righteous one day. Develop your children to meet the requirements of a righteous era.” (37)

“What would remain in the future jobs will only be manual. The time for the destruction of technology is close. Then, as in the beginning all that remains will be manual only. Don’t fear, stay calm, whatever the changes that take place around you. Children, keep in mind that everything happens according to the plans of the Lord, only. Children, keep watching all His doings till the end.” (42)

“This period of time will be very difficult for you. A more difficult time is ahead. People, having money might think that because of the money they have, they would not fall victim to the famine. There could be money, but food may not be available. Therefore, everybody should become accustomed to life-giving water. (Water mixed with blessed water) Add a drop of blessed water to a vessel containing water, with due piety and respect. See that drop of blessed water as a drop of Christ the Lord’s blood. When you feel very hungry refrain from your meal but with a firm belief, drink the life-giving water only. See it as the life-giving blood of Jesus. A time of great scarcity of food will soon come in the future. Everybody would have to face that. Even the infant may not find milk in his mother’s breasts. Then the life-giving water could be transformed into milk and moisten the lips. Drink the life giving water with great respect.” (46)

“Many are the troubles, sicknesses and many things like these will afflict those who walk with me. Absence of relief is the only relief which will accrue to those who walk with me. There is a great joy within it. It is the joy of suffering. It is the joy of salvation resulting from suffering. It is the joy of defeating the devil through overcoming hardships... Soon, The Father will carry out the purification of the nation too. Therefore, do not speak continually about anything or anybody without knowing anything about it. Let everybody endeavour to deal and dwell in the Father and the Son rather than depending on men.” (47)

“The struggles they will have to face in the future are now being experienced by the children of the righteous era in their interiors. Therefore they are acting as if in a state of confusion. They may be confused now, but thereafter they will remain unconfused and face that challenge...“What now has dawned is a perilous time which greatly oppresses everybody and suffocates them. It is a time to remain vigilant; a time to develop a great thirst for Jesus...The Father has subjected the world to a great test. He keeps watching on His bride (the humankind). The need is not to fall being broken up, but to go on, strengthening all. There should be a great vitality, a great strength.” (49)

“A number of questions and problems will crop up in future. A situation will arise where finding food or medicine will become very difficult...Now there are conflicts among each other; conflicts between different races, conflicts between different states, then conflicts among the different religions and conflicts among the different contents of the environment. In the end conflicts will crop up between the stars and the moon and the sun.” (50)

The following words from chapter 25 of the “Footsteps of the Holy Spirit” will help you better understand the above paragraph quoted from chapter 24 of this. Rev. Fr. Chardin has this to say. "It goes without saying that for mankind, salvation and fulfillment ahead lie in increasing unification and synthesis. But this unification must be distinctly human i.e. not from without, but from within, something spiritual, not material, something free and not forced." Lord Jesus Christ unites the whole creation for the praise and glory of God the Father. He will fulfill it internally, spiritually and through one's own volition and free-will. The evil forces, which come on to the stage will attempt to execute their diabolical plots externally, materially and forcibly. (25)

3. Throughout the whole world, many people could not go to religious places of worship and join the services therein as they had been kept closed for months continuously because of the Corona Virus epidemic. Some might say that this led to a spiritual breaking down. But it should not be so. Let's learn the secret behind this from Abraham Lincoln. I am assisted in this regard by Dale Carnegie's book. 'Lincoln the Unknown'. You will be surprised to hear about his bitter childhood. Though he was baptized in Christian faith, he had not gone to a church till the end of his childhood. The reason was that he had no proper attire in his possession. Even after that he did not go to a church. He said that he did not know how to conduct himself in a church. When he entered the presidential race, an accusation was raised that he was a man without a religion. But he had a religion, not an outward religious appearance but a religious life, embedded in religion. When he was elected as the 16th president of USA, he set out to Washington from the Springfield Railway Station in the State of Illinois where he lived. This is the speech which he, with tears falling from his eyes made to the well-wishers who thronged the station.

"My dear friends, anybody who is not in the state of mind as I am in, will not understand the sorrow that prevails at this parting moment. I am indebted for everything, to this state and the kindness of its people. I have lived here for a period of 25 years. (Quarter of century) I have walked, beginning from my youth till my old age. My children were born here. Here I have buried one. Now I set out without knowing from where and how I did come. At Washington, there is a great purpose, before me. Without the power of divine help, unless finding refuge in Him daily, I cannot achieve success. With that assistance, neither can I be defeated. With great faith, I hope that all will be well with all those who seek well in all places, all those who stay with you and all those who can go with me while believing in Him. As you care for me with your prayers, He will care for you with mercy. From the depth of my heart, I take leave of you."

Lincoln goes to Washington with a firm determination to give equal rights to the blacks, as those enjoyed by the white. Earlier, he had proclaimed it boldly. Therefore, from the time he was elected as the president, there were assassination plots, being hatched to liquidate him. "I tell you that this development, where a section of the people enjoys freedom and another section of the people suffers under serfdom are intolerable", Lincoln had uttered this. When he witnessed a selling of slaves, he told one of his close associates, standing nearby, "Children, in the name of God, let's go away from this place. If I have to attack slave trading, someday, I'll surely, unleash a deadly blow." Lincoln also said, "Surely, I will scorch and heat up this land to such an extent that the one who deals in slave trading will be unable to set his foot thereon." The southern states compelled him to withdraw the bill giving equal rights to the black. They stated unless their demands were met, they would start a civil war, calling for a separate nation for the southern states. Lincoln firmly asserted that he would not withdraw the bill and that he would never allow the division of USA into two. The southern states led the way to a great struggle under the leadership of General Lee. More than three years of his administration, which covered a period of four years were spent in a civil war. He did not have a proper meal, took the Bible into his hands and prayed, throughout the night till early hours of the day. "Wear your belt around your waist, as a man. While I make demands on behalf you, through me you'll have answers." He walked across the White House and prayed loudly, in a screaming voice. With tears, pouring down over his cheek, he prayed fervently on behalf of every soldier, sacrificing his life, their wives and children. By the time the war came to an end, his weight had gone down by 40 lbs.

These words which escaped from the lips of Lincoln at the height of the civil war surprises me greatly. "My desire is to say that I am not bound to win even at last, when I have lost all my friends on earth, with at least one left for me, while I manage these administrative tasks. But I am bound by truth. I am not bound even by victory. But I live bound to the light in me." On the whole it's a statement resembling, "Father, it will be done not according to my will, but Yours." Another side of Abraham Lincoln surprises me. Most of the people whom Lincoln chose as his ministers, and government officials, on being elected to the presidency had criticized him in public, and humiliated him, disgraced him previously. Lincoln's association with them was in fact an act of actualizing the 'Sermon on the Mount'. Even after appointing them to high positions Stanton, Bates, Chase, and Seward can be identified among those who vilified, and tortured President Lincoln. Once, Stanton had said this to his friends. 'Charlie you are a great fool. Why have you gone to Africa to see a gorilla? The real gorilla is at the Whitehouse, seated in a chair and continues scratching.' When Lincoln was shot and waiting in a house in front of a theater house, what Stanton, who vilified Lincoln, calling him a 'sorrowful fool', said about Lincoln was, 'Here lies the person whom the world has seen forever and, who up to now has controlled people, in a most complete manner.'

The author of the book has noted that Lincoln in his dealings with the cabinet and his wife Mary Todd, has acted the real follower of Christ. The life Lincoln led with his wife up to the death is a challenge to those who seek divorce, even for the slightest thing. I wish to quote from Lewi Fisher's book 'Mahatma Gandhi', as a tribute to Lincoln and Gandhi, the two spiritual giants who even in their political and social activities upheld and practiced the principles of the 'Sermon on the Mount'. "On 10th November 1948, at Boston General Omar N Bradley, the Chief of Staff of the US Army, said this. 'We have men of science over and above the required numbers, but few are the men of God. We embraced the secret of the atom. We cast aside the Sermon on the Mount. The world has acquired excellence, devoid of wisdom, and power devoid of conscience. Our world has become a world of giants with atomic power and infants with noble virtues. We know more about war than peace. We know more about killing than living. Gandhi cast aside atomic power and embraced the Sermon on the Mount. He became a virtuous giant and also an atomic babe.'"

Occasions will arise for the closing down of places of religious worship during the war between righteousness and unrighteousness, which has just raised its head now. A time will come to compel us to remain within closed doors of our hearts and to pray. Within that, we must grow spiritually more and more. The support which we can derive from Abraham Lincoln, in this regard is great. It is sincerity of his purpose which predominated in his life. The Holy Bible and prayer-filled life came after that. If there is sincerity of purpose in life, then only the Bible could be clearly understood, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. If sincerity of purpose is present then the Bible will become a way of salvation for him. In the absence of such sincerity, even the word of God will become a stumbling block. It is the same truth that I have to say about other religions and their Holy Religious Books. Let's maintain a close relationship with the 'Word'. 'I'll be with you. I love you. Do not fear. Do not be disturbed.' The 'Word' says so. Let's believe in that firmly and build a close relationship with Lord Jesus (the Word). No doubt, it will be a loving, joyous, and happy experience. 'When I was left with just one friend the least; when I was closely, and intensely bound with him...' It was what Abraham Lincoln experienced. He never acted to earn fame and honour from people. He said this too. 'I told nothing to none. But I have promised myself and my creator.'

4. Humans will find it difficult to come to terms with the departure, from this world, of 2/3 of the world population, within short intervals of time. But the words of Jesus which I have mentioned in Chapters 56-60 of the 'Footsteps of the Holy Spirit' will no doubt provide you with the maturity and mindset to face it. The large number of people all over the world, sacrificing their lives on behalf of Lord Jesus will join the people who are departing from this world. When they see Lord God's future, mighty deeds and the mighty power of His arms, the people who bear the name of Christ will grow firmer in their faith and be emboldened to sacrifice their lives in the name of Christ our Lord. The events that took place during days of the early Church will be repeated. Even if all the churches are closed, the few neighbourly families, living in close proximity, will cast aside all differences and join together, on their own will and volition, as small, mini-Christian units. They will become one in mind in Lord Jesus. It's a source of strength to pray during times of tribulation and to sacrifice life on behalf of Lord Jesus. They will keep their possessions in common. They will divide their possessions with each other. As in the days of the early Church, suffering under all forms of tribulations, they will rely solely on Lord Jesus only. Under no circumstances will they rely on any politician or powerful people. Acts 2; 42-47, 4; 32-37 is a forerunner for what will happen in end times.

Ensure that your small children grow up to match the developments of the righteous era. Direct them to familiarize themselves to a poor but simple lifestyle. Ensure that your children witness sufferings, encountered by the less fortunate, poor children. Then your children will be inspired to share what they get, i.e., chocolates etc. with them. A time will come when all the material possessions which, people have gathered will become useless. Therefore, share them with the poor. Enjoy the joy that surrounds the act of giving. In this regard, the precepts and traditions, relating to the Sabbatical year, Jubilee year and agriculture found in the Old Testament are very relevant (During harvesting/reaping, the grains that fell to the ground are left unpicked, leaving them to be picked by the poor. Also, crop along the border/fence are left un-reaped in similar manner.) This practice is not found in New Testaments times, and indeed it is a misfortune. In those days, this practice helped to minimize economic anomalies. Therefore, during this emerging end times at least, release, on your own free will and volition, as happened in the Jubilee years, all the poor and the persecuted who are held captive in loans and interest payments and get ready for the returning of Christ. (Even during the OT days, the people of God were not allowed by Him to lend money on interest.)

It is possible for you to be shaken, in the presence of the many downfalls that would happen for the sake of God Father's great purification. It is not an act of destroying, but an act of establishing, in which God is engaged. Therefore, fear not about the collapsing that you see in your children's education. Quickly, the children would learn what they have to learn. The ancient religious principles (Primordial Faith) preached by the Red Indian leader Seattle in his famous speech will be enlivened by them in the future. The last book authored by Leo Tolstoy was 'What is Art'. It's a good book worthy of being read by all. He wrote it as a sage / foreseer, capable of seeing in to the past, present and the future. In the book, he says that what will remain in the end will be Christian percepts only. What is Christian religious perception? He describes it in this manner. God is our Father. We all are his children. Therefore, we all, the people of the world are brothers and sisters. Leo Tolstoy therein describes many meaningful matters relating to the emerging new era. Do not stop what you do halfway, as some of the Thessalonians did in the past and wait for the returning of Christ, but continue, up to the end, doing promptly and perfectly, all what you have to do. Complete in good order the house which you are building for your sake. Why do I say so? It is here on this earth that the dawning of the righteous era of the new millennium will take place, following the binding of the adversary for 1000 years. The unbinding of the adversary, after the completion of 1000 years too will take place here on this earth. It is after that the new earth and new heavens will dawn. It is clear according to the book of Revelation. If it is, only the celestial life, to be lived within new heavens and new earth that the prophets had in mind, when they spoke about the righteous era then they need not to give so many promises. They could have written, simply, 'Thereafter they will live in eternal bliss with the Almighty.'

It is here on this earth that all promises regarding the righteous era will come true. God will wipe away all tragedies that resulted through the fall of man. All vicious, venoms and fatal poisons will be eradicated from earth. Fertility in torrents will rain down on earth. The earth will become an inheritance for all, to own and enjoy. All will work, using their limbs, hands and feet. What they earn will be exchanged amongst them. There will be no one burdened with scarcities, needs and wants. All forms of competition, leading to struggles to outsmart and outstand will be no more. 'Small child will stand on the hood of the cobra; no evil will be there. Men will live happily under their fig trees and grape vines.' Prophets have said so. Then the situation, as described by Sarvapalli Krishnan will develop. 'Once a man is freed of his struggle to achieve safety in matters physical, he will become a mini creator.' Then, what Leo Tolstoy said about future art will be fulfilled. Then the future artists will live, developing themselves through their creative efforts, building a deep relationship with God and they will act to unify all men in God. It is within that Great War, to be waged between righteousness and unrighteousness, and to be unfolded before this grand dawning that we all are living now. Therefore, "I say to you what I say to everyone: Watch for Him!", Be on alert (Mark 13:37) This is the occasion in which everyone should hold fast to this warning which, Lord Jesus told his disciples. The creator God is the fullness of wisdom. Therefore, let's accept with thanks and praise the great purification, which God has undertaken on account of the dawning of the righteous era, in spite of the great difficulties that surround it. It is saying that, "Father, Let your name be Holy." I have done all what is required to place all what I had to say on the great purification of God, before you. If there is any fault or shortcoming therein, these quotations will fulfill that too. Jesus has said through Maria Divine Mercy, "My death brought you life, though it has been killed by crucifying Me on the cross. My body would have to bear the same sufferings, during this time, of My second coming. During this time, that will happen to my mystical body that is my Church." (27th March 2013)

5. Rev. Father Oscar Abayaratne, director of 'Kithu Dhana Pubuduwa', having completed 89 years, breathed his last and entered the heavenly abode on 4th November 2021. He was my Guru. (Teacher). Today it is Friday, the 12th of November 2021. By now, 36 years have passed since I broke my links with Pubuduwa. It was a 36 years of fasting/boycott/passive resistance, which I experienced. I am pleased that it ended in such a way, where no one won, neither any one lost. I like to re-quote from what I recorded in the 11th Chapter of "Footsteps of the Holy Spirit". It is not for my own personal salvation that I submitted myself to all forms of breakings and moldings, in his sacred hands; and submitted myself to be led by Him till now. It is not for my self-satisfaction, but for the salvation of the mankind, and to facilitate and expedite the second coming of Lord Jesus for this purpose. It is through the second coming of Lord Jesus that relief and consolation will come upon the human kind, which is now caught up in a catastrophe. Even if I fall into an abyss while inching, step by step along the path, shown by the Lord, and accept the fact that the Lord has his own great plan through this fall, also allow the Lord to lift me up from the abyss when he wants, the Lord will be compelled to move at least His small finger in my favour. The whole universe will be shaken through the ensuing activities. That's why I chose a path clinging on to the hands of the Lord, not for anything less than this. It is the great expectation, the great dream which the Lord has kept in me." I am happy that this dream is now being realized.

The journey in which I am engaged, from 7th June 1996 is unconventional. Therefore, everything will happen in an unconventional manner, until this unconventionality/nonconformity is made conventional. It is Lord Jesus who makes nonconformity, conformity. Lord Jesus has said, "You are my community, chosen through flattening of hills and mounts, and I'll lead you forward. I'll do all what is necessary for that. You must do only what I tell you to do." I do know without any doubt that Father Oscar will intercede, before Lord Jesus through his prayers on behalf of us, throughout the whole perilous journey, which we have to cover as the congregation of 'Daham Navodaya'. In the book 'I sought and I found', Carlo Carretto praised the mother Church in the following manner. Using the same words, I praise my beloved Guru, Father Siri Oscar Abeyratne. (I have replaced Carretto's word 'Mother' with the word 'Father'.)

"Father, how much I must criticize you, and yet how much I love you!
You have made me suffer more than anyone,
and yet I owe more to you than to anyone.
You have given me much scandal,
and yet you alone have made me understand the Holiness."

If you are to overcome this terrible situation, you must be well advanced in prayer. The power of prayer should be made visible. It is through that passionate prayer that the Father touches everything and brings about victory.

It is not only to the Catholic & Christian people, but to all the people of the world, irrespective of whether they follow a religion or not that I spoke through Chapters 56-60 of the publication 'Footsteps of the Holy Spirit'. Now all the people of the world are facing the repercussions of the great war between righteousness and unrighteousness (good & evil) and the great divine act of purification initiated in this regard. Thus says Lord Jesus: "Despair and despondency should not be your lot during the great commotions and destructions that are to take place in future. Because they all have been arranged to take place for the fulfillment of Holy Scriptures and my great plan." ('Footsteps of the Holy Spirit' - Chapter 40) What arises now are the birth pangs, ahead of the dawning of the great righteous era. In one of her articles, the reputed author Kathlene Jayawardena, analyzing a profile of injustice of our society based on two books, says this. ('Anidda' – A Sunday Newspaper – 08,05,2022) This is the last paragraph of the article.

"Today, it's the developed humans who would accept the fact that all species of life have equal rights to live. We think that along with the expansion of this understanding and acceptance towards a new direction, someday in future, the men will move towards extending kindness to all living species of life rather than anchoring around humans only. We believe that therein men will be able to propagate the spirit of equality among all creatures as well with human beings. It is therefore throwing aside all forms of race differences and group differences are viewed by us as an exercise of total refinement. But for this, man would have to wait for a long period."

With a sense of deep responsibility on the last mentioned sentence, I express myself in this manner. Waiting for a long time for this purpose would not be necessitated. It will happen in the near future. It will be good news for all who are suffering under the yoke of social injustice. It is the dawn of the righteous era. It is for this purpose that God the Father's this great purification, this great refinement takes place. Lord Jesus says thus.

27th April 2022

"So, how are you, my children? Is the current system good? Father's purification is proceeding with great speed. A situation more perilous than this will dawn, for the whole world. The purification covering a two third of the world has been announced. It is now, that it is being expedited. So, every nation has been put under this purification. But, I have stated, sometime ago. Alas, the magnitude of the disaster that will affect this land. Now those disasters are on their way. Haven't I issued some special messages before? Through those messages I specially addressed the heads of states, engaged in ruling the nation. What have those heads of states done for the people? What have the people done for them, confiding in those leaders? I allowed them to ponder over those questions. What would happen to them if they failed to fulfill faithfully the promises they made to the people? Now, God the Father is ready to expel them totally. Therefore, God is prompting them all to speak for justice, by stirring, agitating the people. This is great purification set in motion by the Father. All that has caused ruination of the nation should be changed for the sake of purifying this land. This is what is happening now. Therefore, my beloved children, all including children, elders the young and the old would have to undergo sufferings for a short duration for the sake of this battle.

In spite of the many challenges which you have to face, you will be protected if you are with God. The one who lives in Dhamma (righteousness), will be protected by Dhamma (righteousness). Purify yourself as to walk even clinging on to the little finger of the Lord come what may. Don't point your finger at others, but focus on your own self and examine your interior disposition. Beg for Father's mercy against all your weaknesses. Everyone should come unto the point of saying 'Amen' to the will of God through a self-initiated preparation. Before long, a more perilous situation would develop. Long ago, I have said that a scarcity in food too would have to be faced.

At this moment the half closed eyes of the Father are opening. It is therefore that the world has been plunged into a great Test of this nature. It is with fully opening of the eyes of the Father that the earth feels the touch of His divine feet. That moment is at hand. When the divine feet of the Father touches the ground (earth), the whole surface of the earth, will shake for a few minutes. Therefore, stay with God. Your breath lies in the hands of the Lord. Within a short time, a great turbulent situation will develop in this country. Therefore, turn your attention more towards prayer. Now the people are turning towards deep praying. The mercies of the Father who answers the prayers of His people are now towards the nation. Bestowing good upon the people by enacting a great purification expeditiously, is happening now. Especially, I'll ensure that justice to this nation very quickly. This year too is put into a great test of this kind. I will establish a purified nation and accomplish them all quickly. Then you will be able to engage in the activities of your children freely. Till then, the perilous situation of the year will persist and continue into the future.

Activities of the Anti-Christ have now begun. It is one of its parts that has crept into this politics. It is his cohorts who exist here. It is with their support that these people are trying to act without any fear. It is therefore, that the Father is carrying out his tasks as He sent David towards Goliath. Then, David went there armed with the word of God. He went there and spoke the word of God. It is this that is going to happen. The Father has now stirred the people. You might be reading the Holy Bible. Haven't you? What is found therein is now taking place in this country. At a particular moment, all cast, creed and race based divisions and differences would fade away, and the point where everybody will join together is slowly emerging. Now preparations are being made for all of them to join together and defeat this Satan. Now, it is not the time for cast, creed and race based confrontations and fighting. Now all have joined together to chase them to defeat Satan. Now people are aroused and agitated. In all of these goodness is going to emerge out through evil. People are now seeing what they have failed to see so far. It is only now that the eyes of the people are wide open. Going after different hues and colours of political factions, the people were divided. Only now the people have understood that no benefit is accrued from any of them. It is only suffering, what the people endure. Even through those sufferings none is benefited. It is others who enjoy the fruits of those sufferings. Therefore, the great purification of the Father has begun. It is that great purification which is now happening. The next message to be given to all Heads of States as well as the people by the Father, I will deliver soon to Chathuranga, to be uploaded to that Web Site."

“Children, do you see the Father’s test and the purification process, rolling out smoothly in a very perfect manner? The Father had been keeping on watching over this nation and its people. The Creator kept on watching over His whole creation. Man is the summit of the creation. With remorse and sadness, the Father keeps his gaze over the exceeding pressure, the frauds and deceptions experienced by man and how he suffers greatly through them. The people choose their rulers. The people trust that they will fulfill the promises made by them. But those rulers went ahead, prospering through the people, and did the best for their sake, but never looked after the interests of the people. They started to harass, harm and oppress the people. The Father has now created a very terrifying situation and begun cleansing of the whole nation. (land). The Father will continue this task until the expulsion of not one or two but all the members of the parliament from that. The Father has emboldened and made stringent the young people who are to accept future of the country. The youth of today are educated and knowledgeable. They see clearly who stand for truth and who are treacherous. The Father is using these youth as an instrument for the dawning of the righteous era in future. These youth have been emboldened to stand for truth and justice. God the Father has granted them self-confidence and the courage to go forward, in spite of the pressures and perilous situations they might confront, even sacrificing their lives in this cause. God the Father has strengthened those parents to support their children in their forward march.

This struggle will not cease from this point. These people will take forward this struggle till the emergence of a person, close to the heart of God as the leader of the country. God the Father is carrying out a great purification process in this regard. Till then, disasters greater than those we which witness will happen. Blood shedding will take place. It will turn out to be a great catastrophe. But at the end the plan of the Father will definitely culminate in success. The devil keeps on doing his part for the success of unrighteousness. Before that I had spoken about the state administration. Alas, the magnitude of the calamity that befalls on them in the event of their failure to fulfill the promises they had made. It is that calamity, which now is taking place. Now, frauds and deceptions too are being perpetrated. Setting fire to their homes is carried out from within themselves. Such things happen because of their belief that they would get them back. Their plan is to implicate the youth engaged in the struggle to those crimes. But, I’ll defeat that plan. It is for this reason that I turned the legal system of the country towards the people. Group of lawyers have now been made to turn their attention towards the just struggle by Me. They will receive their might and support also in future. I will never allow them, struggling for justice to face defeat. It is right to comment that as the injustice the people have become frustrated. It is neither a frenzy nor a rage. It is their right. They are fighting for their right.

I repeat to the heads of states what I have announced earlier. Those leaders of states too are the creation of God the Father. Irrespective of the religions they follow, they are one people. If they are to save themselves from the imminent, great danger, they have to enter into a deep examination of conscience and see the sinful state in which they are immersed, also meditate deeply as to whether they have conducted themselves justly or not, and then get back and handover to the people who are engaged in a just struggle. The moment has now arisen for this to happen. It is now time to pave way for the young strength involved in a struggle for the sake of justice. As I am your creator and you are my beloved children, I request the rulers of the nation (land) that they humble themselves; get back; and leave the scene honourably by handing over to the young people who stand for justice. If not, the situation will become very decisive and dangerous. Those who draw the sword will die by the sword...So is the saying. That's what will happen in the future. Through rampant lies, daylight robberies and unending acts of terrorism, this nation has fallen into pitiful state over which we are scorned and despised by the world. Many in the world have already become aware of the caliber of the rulers of this Land. Further, there is no room for lie.

Children, now what I ask from all of you is prayer. During that prayer, you should become one with those young people in your soul. They are fighting for justice, not for their interests. They are fighting on behalf of the entire people. As the people of the congregation (community), chosen by Me, your prayers should be more intensified and made more powerful. At this time when you pray either alone or as a group you should become one with those young children, bound by souls. As they fight for justice, you must unite with them through prayer. This is what I expect from you at this moment. Because the situation of the country is becoming more and more perilous. In future there may not be anything to consume. This situation will further deteriorate and become more extreme. If you are to overcome this terrible situation, you must be well advanced in prayer. The power of prayer should be made visible. It is through that passionate prayer that the Father touches everything and brings about victory. Before this I have told you that more prayers are not necessary, if you are in a tired and exhausted state and just exclaiming 'Jesus' mightily, is enough. At this time, I don't tell that to you, who are my disciples. Children, this is the time that the prayers are required more intensively.

Send all the Saints in your prayers through your minds to the ground for the sake of their safety where those children are fighting for justice. Through prayers in your minds call the archangels to that protest ground as a strength and protection to the children engaged in the struggle for the sake of justice. Through your prayers invoke the archangels to possess the hearts and minds souls and every limb of them. Beseech them to empower them, through their might and power to fight against injustice and achieve success and establish justice. Through your prayers, call all the heavenly armies of angels; ask them to possess this children and empower them; and to help them to take the flag of truth and justice to the winning post. Also cry aloud before the presence of the Lord God, to choose, place and confirm amidst them a leader, capable of raising the nation and doing good for the people. Gather together all the messages I gave to all including rulers of the world, nations and religious heads; prepare a volume adding thereto the message I will be giving soon and send them soon for them to change themselves at least now. Place it in their hands, to be message from the Creator Lord."

A Looking back, again

It completed 26 years on 7th June 2022 for these activities of Lord Jesus, in participation with us as the Community of "Daham Navodaya". These activities had been initiated in the month of August 1991. For these revelations, Lord Jesus has used two as maid servants and one as men servant as His aids. This is a special divine revelation having a special pattern and design of its own which hitherto has not been observed in other divine revelations. It is a revelation pattern wherein Jesus Himself enters into, through His Spirit after placing, either his or her soul in the hands of the God the Father. Therefore any word emanating from her mouth at that moment is not from her. She has no memory of any of those words. Because this is a special revelation pattern, there should be a special harvest for the sake of people. For being able to proceed so far, through a special and unconventional revelation pattern of this kind, I as the shepherd of the congregation (community) and we as its disciples are very happy and rejoice. But this unconventional journey which we have traversed over the last 26 years is not acceptable, not tolerable for human minds. When some of the revelations discouraged and demoralized some disciples, there came instances where I as the shepherd of the congregation had to say this. "It is not on the small Jesus that we stand, but on the big Jesus, referred to in the Holy Bible." On 15.11.2012 Lord Jesus, said this through Sujeewa. "I have spoken to you, at times, as the One and Only God Creator, at times as one of your friend, then as your brother, and then as a small child. At times, I also spoke as a fool. In this manner, I have spoken as a mighty one, also as a weakling." After Lord Jesus has spoken to us in this manner, I avoided using words such as small Jesus, and big Jesus, regarding some revelations in order to prevent some members of the congregation from becoming discouraged.

I had deep discussions and conversations about the above mentioned of our Lord Jesus, with the members of the congregation. Through those 33 years, which Lord Jesus, the Son and the Word of the Heavenly Father spent in human form, the Heavenly Father revealed Himself to His Son only as the Heavenly Father. But, why Lord Jesus had to reveal Himself to this congregation which was chosen by Lord Jesus not only as God, but also as a friend, a brother, a child and a fool? There was neither any sin nor selfishness in Lord Jesus' holy and immaculate birth. There was no defect to be mould and reformed in Him. But as members of a congregation we are merely a group of people, who are tainted by the original sin and selfishness. There are many things within us, which need to be broken down and rebuilt. That's why Lord Jesus used all other means referred to therein rather than acting as God alone. Through chapters 1-61 of 'Foot Steps of the Holy Spirit', I have given to the what He revealed to us as God. It has been mentioned chapter 44 of the 'Foot Steps of the Holy Spirit'... Lord Jesus said this, "The land you live in is the Garden of Eden, which I created in the past, the earthly paradise where Adam and Eve lived. The person who named this country as 'Garden of Adam', and 'Paradise', for the very first time, did so through a divine revelation." (We inquired, who he was?) "Know through books and chronicles. I am pleased on mentioning made on the beauty of a garden even in your national anthem." The nation which later known as the 'Land of Righteousness' is this. Then it was the granary of the east. Lord Jesus says this.... "The war between righteousness and unrighteousness will begin from this nation. This is the Land of redemption." During the war between righteousness and unrighteousness, righteousness will emerge victorious, leading thereby to the dawning of the righteous era. This Land is now going through immense intense child bearing pangs for the dawning of salvation to the world. It is the great war between righteousness and unrighteousness. During these developments, many people who have right means and methods would leave the country and go abroad. The result of these birth pangs is that they would come back to this blessed land in great joy and happiness. They will praise the Lord God on account of this nation.

Here is the Message given by the Lord God to the Nation of Sri Lanka

23rd July 2022

“This is a divine decree. This is the message given by the Lord God to the nation of Sri Lanka. This is directed towards all leaders. Where does your leadership stand? This the revelation which each one of those leaders should know. If you are a part of the government administrative setup, now you should inherit this and hold on to it deeply and firmly. The message is... Leaders of the government, your destruction resembles a raging fire in hot pursuit after you. I will execute the process of cleansing the nation in this manner. It will come, at times like as a wild fire, at times as a devastating storm. Beloved children, I love you. But, I do not see an emergence of fear of God in you even amidst the great mercies of God. Oh the great magnitude of the devastation that awaits you, who are filled with selfishness and greed for the power. Now, one will fall over the other, engaged in fighting. It will not stop. Because the people have violated the divine decrees and commands, the earth has been spoiled and made polluted. I, the Lord God, therefore with a view to cleanse and bring about a clean and a righteous nation, will make the young sons and daughters, elders and the whole population united and stringent.”

“All government leaders, the great woe that awaits you who have adorned yourselves with status power and selfishness. The number of the living will gradually come down, for they will be laying their lives for the sake of justice. Blessed are those who suffer on account of justice, for the kingdom of God is theirs. The joy and contentment has deserted the nation. A long fight and hard striving is necessary to re-establish it. The earth is burdened with sin. The weight of the burden of sin has increased to such an extent that the earth is on the verge of exploding and ending up in total destruction. The severity of sin is such that its time that powers in heaven punishes rulers on earth. There is a limit to God's patience. Lord God is love itself, but also wrath. The gaze of the Father is now upon this Land. It is in this Land that in ancient times, the divine plan, regarding Adam and Eve has begun. The task of cleansing this nation which has been desecrated by unrighteous influences has now fallen on the shoulders the Lord God. It indeed a task owned by God. Now the time has come for the commencement of the workings of God. Children, now you have to lead a righteous life. My duty is to teach you the lesson on My righteousness, from time to time. The ocean may erupt up violently at times, and may remain calm at other times. So is the wrath of God. I the Creator gaze upon the entire creation and all happenings patiently and on observing disobedience will mete out punishment with mighty, violent waves, coupled with strong winds as the oceans do and purify all. So, what happens now is the rolling out of Lord God's process of purification.”

“I speak to you, Children at the protest ground. I bless you all who have forsaken everything, all your desires and rights to fight for justice for the sake of all the people. Be not afraid, you will win. Truth will triumph rising defeating all lies and fabrications. You will continue fighting, even if you fall one upon another while fighting, bleeding profusely, soaking the sin in your blood, until the righteous head of state of this land is brought forth. I will establish that leader from amongst you. At a time like this, where everything has rotten immersed in lies, and deception, I have sent the friends of My kingdom to you. They will make stringent all and every young sons and daughters. My powerful forces of Angels have surrounded you. I hold you securely within that mighty grasp. I will make you an instrument in my hand to cleanse the Land. All people! Stay awake. Awake, not for your own sake only but on behalf of all and go out, assemble in groups, unite as one, be of one mind. Because, it is for your rights that they are fighting.”

“All religious leaders, this is the time to unite as one. This is not the time to worry about cast, creed and nationality barriers. All obstacles could be defeated and overcome when everybody unite as one, as the children of one mother. Let us hold hands together. I will pour upon you all powerful blessing in torrents. Gather as a commune and unite as one. Fear not, come forward. You will have a place in my kingdom if you have to sacrifice your life. Awaken all ye who fight in the cause of others, on behalf of the future generation, and clamouring for justice for the dawning of the righteous era. I have made you stringent. This struggle which is continued for building up a righteous Kingdom, amidst much bleeding, with no food for hunger, no water for thirst, sharing of sorrow, much dedication and whole hearted unity will not come to an end from this point. Let's continue fighting till the dawn of the true righteous Kingdom. It will reach it's successful culmination very soon. In this way, the new State will be set up. Let's provide a message to the world from this Land. This will be a mighty blow for all heads of states of the world. With awe and admiration, all people of the world will watch this. One day in future, all people of the world will talk about this small nation which will shine like a light unto the world.”

“All heads of State, delay not any further. Still, there is time for change, turning back and repenting. All what is defiled is unrighteous. It is diabolic force. Do not be victimized by it. Repent and retract entrusting all to the young sons and daughters, allow them to proceed. I will give you further time. Though you enjoy all comforts and conveniences now, a day will come when you will have to enter into great weeping and clamouring. Therefore, you rulers, awake! Direct your eyes of mercy and compassion towards all. Stop piling up things through unjust and covetous means. Let this be a turning point in your life. Entrust all and be silent. If not, alas! Great will be the woe that await you. The wrath of God will pursue you as a wild fire. At time it will surround you as a violent storm. Yet, you have not realized the gravity of your sins. That will be made to be felt to your conscience. This is the most frightening revelation which has been made by Me. Be awake, at least now. I bless you, all Children engaged in the Struggle. All my friends in heaven will assist you; Hosts of my heavenly Angels have surrounded you. They will guard you, strengthen you and become an effective weapon in your hands. Because, the Lord God turned you to be an instrument in His hands in leading you to cleanse this Land. Amen.”

I,

Jesus Christ, your Redeemer.

Even if terrific things happen, My Church will never become inactive. Because, I am with the Church. But resembling the sufferings I underwent, the Church too would have to face the dark hour and the might of the terrific events.

I quote a few sentences from the revelations, made by our Lord Jesus to Maria Valtorta, of Naples in Italy, in the fourth decade of the 20th century, in which I also was born. It is based on, 'The End Times', translated to Sinhala as 'Kaalaye Awasanaya haa Kristhu Punaraagamanaya' ('The End of Time' and 'The Second Coming of Christ') by A. D. S. Wijetunga).

"Even if terrific things happen, My Church will never become inactive. Because, I am with the Church. But resembling the sufferings I underwent, the Church too would have to face the dark hour and the might of the terrific events."

"The Church was lifted up again, nourished by the spiritual might of its eminent children, though it was subjected to trials and tribulations during the early days. Even during the end days, children of such might and strength will stand by the Church. The church will be safeguarded, will be delivered it from the clutches of Antichrist's emissaries, nourished and lead by these children."

"The manifestation of the anger of the nation is a pre-warning of my own anger. This hour is a painful hour. All my children should walk through this hour of pain and sorrow. It cannot be avoided. Because, everything has to be perfected and accomplished."

"Therefore the people require a force, a power to overcome the devious activities of all these evil forces. Therefore, I will provide cover to protect the ones who seek Dhamma (righteousness) until they are sufficiently tempered in (Dhamma) righteousness, enlightened through me."

"My Glorious Second Coming will be manifested in all might and majesty, with a new force and through a new methodology as to suit the present."

"I will provide them with a final set of teachings through a new apostolate, for their fullness and perfection. The Good News which I gave you earlier will not be changed. But you will be able to easily understand it with a new force. You would then understand what you cannot understand today."

"The beast and the dragon would come forward to challenge God through those who are deceived by the false, temporary miracles brought about by the teachings, designed to divert wholly the souls to the demonic forces. At this moment, as the devil would act to show the works of the nether regions, as those of heaven, and try to deceive you, man should be extra vigilant and cautious."

"The Antichrist will be defeated for once and man will have a short period of peace...Adversaries of Christ will enter the scene for the last time and the devilish, diabolical acts will escalate to the highest levels. It is Satan's last attempt."

“As I fulfill my promises, my kingdom of peace will definitely come in the right time as I have promised.”

“For, the ceasefire that will exist for a certain, limited period of time, between the hour of the Antichrist and the coming of Christ Our Lord will be of a short duration. In fact, the last oppressive days will be shortened, on behalf of the chosen people. A short period of peace and tranquility will be given to you to get ready for the battle against Satan with a new vim and vigor.”

“The first stage of the destruction will be carried out by the forerunners of Antichrist. The required background for my coming will be set up by my forerunners thereafter. The forerunners of Satan will appear in supreme majesty with all human honors and adulations. The forerunners of the Son of God will receive the same crown as their king did receive. Their crown is the sufferings and sorrows that they will endure on behalf of others.”

The message delivered by Lord Jesus to our community on 19th May 2022, has been stated in Chapter 61 of ‘Footsteps of the Holy Spirit’. In that message, the Lord Jesus said further... “In future the situation will become more terrible than in the present. People would have to face more difficulties and troubles. Those troubles would come to an end, at least temporarily and a happier time, a prosperous time will come thereafter. (Jesus, is it the dawning of the righteous era? Is it something that happens before it? I inquired so from Lord Jesus) “It is something that happens before that. A happier time will be given in proportion to the extent of the troubling times, endured by everyone. Many things are set to happen, a little time afterwards. Now, three of the seven seals of the Book of Revelation have been revealed. It is right to say that the fourth is in progress. What has now begun is it. There are more terrible things, set to happen in future which are connected to it.”

I intend to enter into a meditation on the future developments of the war between righteousness and unrighteousness (good and evil), using the words of Jesus which I have referred to above, and what I have stated under dates 27th April 2022 and 19th May 2022 in Chapter 61. “The war between righteousness and unrighteousness will erupt from this land.” It is that, which has now begun in this nation. The one true God, the universal creator has placed his almighty hands upon this struggle that is being carried for justice in this land. Therefore, this people’s struggle, carried on for the sake of justice will definitely achieve success. The defeat of the lord of evil, who reigns supreme in our land will definitely happen. It is a group of people who has made money, power and popularity (Mammon) as the only focus in their lives, who will become tools in the hands of the Lord of Evil (Lucifer, Satan, the Devil, the adversary of Christ, the Antichrist, the beast, and the terrorist, [thug]) for the victory of righteousness. The struggle of the youth, launched in the cause of justice, on 9th April 2022, at Galle Face Grounds, amidst all forms of obstacles, threats and challenges, will grow day by day, cover the whole country, develop into a grand, arms free, people’s struggle. Though, those who have become tools in the hands of the lord of evil, would use the might of their political power and money, to defeat the struggle for justice and accomplish the intentions of the lord of unrighteousness, all their efforts will fail and the lord of evil will face an ignoble, bitter defeat. That defeat would be a grave wounding. He would need a ceasefire for the healing of that wound. This is the reason for that. The beast becoming more frustrated and violent, on being wounded to re-emerge powerfully on to the world stage, as the beast, recovered from the wound. It is for his last, terrible and ferocious fight. "For that, permission has been sought from God. God has given him permission for that."

A period of time, similar to a ceasefire will come along with the defeat of the evil one, in the first round of the battle, between righteousness and unrighteousness in our country. I said that such an interval is needed even to the beast, wounded under a sore defeat. Even God too needs a similar ceasefire. It is on account of two major events. It is to give happiness and prosperity, even for a limited period of time to the people of our nation who underwent an elongated period of time, experiencing rigorous pains, and numerous perils. The second reason for that is this. It is to pave the way for the re-establishment of righteousness before the final horrendous battle of the devil starts. It is a training, a reformation to face bravely the oncoming confrontation of the evil one, by taking vigorously the correct teachings of all religious founders to all people. Following that ceasefire, the battle of the beast, wholly recovered from the wound will begin. The books of Daniel and Revelation in the holy Bible bear witness to the fact that it will be a terrible time, covering a period of 3 1/2 years or 42 months. The Lord of unrighteousness will do his utmost to eradicate the belief about a creator God wholly from the hearts and minds of people. He will deploy his utmost power and might in this regard. Even the creator God too will bear witness, with mighty deeds, surpassing those of Him found in the Old and New Testaments of the Holy Bible. The evil one will face ignoble defeat even at the last battle; and then will be tied down for a period of one thousand years and along with these the Second Coming of our Lord Jesus will take place, in tandem with the dawning of the righteous era. Let us wish that the leadership, chosen by the Lord, for this nation, while giving victory to the people, engaged in a just struggle, through this first confrontation will be a leadership that leaves no room in any way, in our nation to the future activities of the Lord of unrighteousness. Then this will be the "Land of Salvation" for the whole future world. (I think that I should say a few words about "the righteous leadership which the Creator God will choose for this nation." 'All do follow a religion. But it is only God who has no religion.' - few words uttered by Rev Fr. Marceline Jayakody. It is true. It is the Creator God who has sent all religious founders to this world. He is the righteous one. It is He, who sent all religious founders to this world. The teachings and precepts of Him (the righteous one) has spread through all religions in different measures and portions. He has neither a cast nor a creed, based divisions and differences. People of the whole world are His children.

I looked back into our journey in chapter 61 of the 'Footsteps of the Holy Spirit'. Through that I have found a few things, which I should share with you. As Lord Jesus told me to educate the people about the Holiness of God through Sujeewa, I prepared Chapters 54 and 55 of 'Footsteps of the Holy Spirit' in this regard. It is through that endeavor that I realized that almost 40 years have passed since I have gained an insight into the Holiness of God. Lord Jesus did not tell me to come out with chapters 56-60 of "Footsteps of the Holy Spirit". Through these revelations He has told me, over and over again to develop His sharp and sensitive voice within me, more and more. It is with the aid of the directions, provided by the sharp and sensitive voice of Jesus within me that I compiled those five chapters.

Even briefly, I have to make reference to Our Lord Jesus' first handmaid, Sujeewa, whom He has used to give this revelation. Now, she is a mother, in her 50's. From the very beginning of these activities, in spite of all her ailments and sicknesses, amidst all forms of pain and suffering, she is yielding herself to Lord Jesus, for Him to work through her. Lord Jesus says these on that. "I saw the way, how she my daughter, who allowed me to work within her did say 'Amen' to all my requests. As little children, fight amongst themselves, but later join hands as friends, she lives with Me in similar fashion. She weeps. Again, she yields herself to me. Through my activities, what volumes of tears would have she shed through her eyes? She too has her own human thoughts and desires. But, she loves Me honorably. She obeys Me. She even obeys the shepherd to whom I entrusted her with humility. I keep on watching how she weeps at times like a small child. You too become like small children. That is the real life." (Chapter 33)

Someone could view this as a cheap, gimmick like matter, as Lord Jesus speaks to us through a woman, Absolutely, it is not a matter of that nature. It is a complex thing; a Holy thing. I would like to place two examples before you, in this regard. This journey, through which Lord Jesus leads us, is - He himself tells as not bearable, not only to the mind but also to the earth. Though we, on becoming tired, sought some directions from Jesus, due to the travails of travel we heard not even a word from Him. At last, the Lord gave some indication to sister Srinthi Kurera, who was not even a member of the congregation. (She was the eldest daughter of Victor Kurera, an expert teacher of drama and stage plays.) That message is such. "The main feature of this community, chosen by Me is its foundation. Now what's happening is that. In future, a building will come up on that foundation. Then, the attention of everybody will be directed towards the beauty of that building. Then, the foundation would be forgotten by many. There are not many visible things, in the journey, now being carried on in this community." (Chapter 51), While giving that message to her, Lord Jesus advised her to go to our 'three-day' prayer session and give the message to the shepherd and the other members of the community. She revealed the message to us on 13th May 2018. It became a resuscitating and reviving message to us, who were almost dying under immense suffering, while passing through our unconventional journey, which was reaching the 22nd year on the journey, by then. It was like Lord Jesus instructed Mary Magdalene to announce His resurrection to His disciples after his resurrection. What I hinted through that was the complexity, found in this pattern of revelation. I must also tell a word about the Holiness, lying therein. If a disciple, asked anything from Lord Jesus, in a reckless manner, something undesirable, He laughs loudly through her for about a minute that face will become so ferocious and violent in the next minute, that nobody will be able to look at it. I have come across three, such incidents. Soon after this a sense of holy fear will gasp you intensely. The disciples behave in this manner.

Lord Jesus says that except for the occasions, when Jesus works through her, she is just an ordinary woman, not ought to be enjoying special honors. Lord Jesus, added that anyone who ventures to examine these revelations made through her, will receive, no answer but gets a tests and only.

I must also speak to you about the community of 'Daham Navodaya' too.

'Daham Navodaya'

'An open door, which no one can close' against the great struggle of unrighteousness.

The above statement is mentioned at the very beginning of our web site. It is the theme that Lord Jesus gives by himself for the mission of 'Daham Navodaya'. The fingers of a single hand are quite sufficient to count the present number of disciples of 'Daham Navodaya'. But it causes no problem for us. Lord Jesus says this. "Anthony, even if all those who are with you, leave you and go away, you come along the journey, even by yourself. Then I will do everything.” There were some others who stayed with us as disciples of ‘Daham Navodaya’. They have dispersed, because of the unconventional nature and difficulties associated with the journey. Lord Jesus says thus about the nature of this journey. “I thought of taking you in this very manner, along the journey through which I lead you, on account of the holy plan and the holy responsibility. Because, neither a standard nor a principle can grasp it. No philosophy can contain it. The journey on which I lead you along, is similar to a tangled twine ball. But the Lord God, has placed the untangling within you and keeps on guiding as to how you are going to untangle them one by one. This is a journey proceeding on account of the absolute truth, a journey going in search of absolute truth itself. This is a journey wherein you become a tool in my hand for the salvation of all humanity. (42nd Chapter) ‘Daham Navodaya’ has no Head Quarter; no office facilities., neither vehicles nor money. ‘May you be filled with the wealth of poverty and immerse you and overwhelm you!’. This is what our Lord Jesus wishes for us. This is something that happens within the walls of the houses where one is stationed. It’s a life of the moment spent in submission to the holy will of God, after having placed everything in His hands. I, as the shepherd of the congregation, have placed before you all that I have to say now, clearly, simply and truthfully. (‘Footsteps of the Holy Spirit’ 1-62) I have nothing more to be placed before you at this moment. You might ask me, ‘What’s hereafter?’ We will do all what the Lord Jesus asks us to do, irrespective of how unconventional they are. It is the very rhythm of the way of life of ‘Daham Navodaya’, till the dawning of the righteous era. Lord Jesus will do more things through that.

“Today, the world has become full of struggles, because no one gives priority to religion...What I meant by religion is the noble vision of emptying oneself (one’s ego). The true life that the individual and therein the society becomes luxurious from within. The one who gives priority to religion is the philosopher [the one who has the correct vision] who tries to unearth the truth. He is the one who paves the way for freeing the world from deception, while remaining undecieved...Whatever the means, employed to direct the mind to focus on a single purpose, it will only generate a temporary gain or a satisfaction / pleasure, but not help to burst out of the so called bubble of deception, i.e. ‘self’, and attain self-awareness, which will ensure eternal bliss and tranquility. If one or two persons understood the true meaning of correct meditation, implements and practices it, a great deal of blessings will accrue to them, and others through environment where they live in...The man blessed with awareness will remain within the society and endeavor to enliven and heal the others of the society, where they live in, rather than making an exit from it. One or two can change the world. On delving deep in to history, it would become apparent to you, that bizarre changes of the world have been brought about by one or two, rather than the general public.’ (‘Sudharshanaya’ [‘The Correct and Clear Vision’] – I. M. R. A. Eeriyagolla)

If your faith is firm, God is manifested therein.

2022 November 19

“This is the moment where the most difficult phases of the testing have begun. A great, mammoth disaster is right in front of us within this country. Most potent and powerful events will take place in the future. This country will fall into a dreadful situation in the future, although there seems to be silence. By next year, the stage will be reached where the entire universe will be shaken in various aspects. God is God, I AM WHO I AM! Today, many people like to be accepted. No one comes to an unaccepted place. But God chooses not in acceptance but in rejection. The journey gone on with the Almighty God is not public. It is a journey gone on in oblivion. But one day the entire world will see its depth. If that is so, this is a path that should be traversed like a simple, small child. If you commit yourself to God, trust in Him and walk in faith with God, I will take you to the next step. The faith that is in you is God. If your faith is trembling, it will be hard to walk straight, you will fall. If your faith is firm, God is manifested therein. Then you will be able to traverse the path up to the end with strength and might. Who was the person whose faith was tested up to his skeleton? It was Job’s faith that was thus tested. As you know his faith triumphed. You also will have to pass a similar journey. In the end you will reach that point, as if nothing were left. If you have an unwavering faith everything can be overcome.”

“This is the journey of contempt. There is no acceptance in all things. In most instances, you face rejections and contempt. It is a journey that has to be gone on experiencing death to one’s rights, desires and will. For this we should get rid of all things. Now, God’s wrath is on its way. It is not easy. Now the wrathful eyes of the Heavenly Father are being directed towards dreadful steps. The anger of the Lord is approaching everyone, homes, all villages, all nations, and the entire world. Who will be caught up and trapped, in the wrath of God? Therefore, stay awake! Be awake. The savage moment is on its way. An extremely dangerous moment will crop up against all of you instantaneously. You might face extremely dangerous, terrible judgments on this very earth, surpassing the judgment which you might face after your life on earth. One might think that such judgment would come only after your exile from earth. No It is possible for such divine judgement to take place within this world itself. Heavenly Father knows everything about men, even from the hairs on heads. Heavenly Father knows every thought in your mind. He knows all about you where you stay, where you move about. You can do nothing without the knowledge of the Father. He the Lord God keeps on watching...He knows your thoughts, your desires, your needs and wants, your expectations, and what you think at this very second. All what I have to do is to reveal, to expose the message, which the Father has given to His Son, to the world. Suitable persons have been chosen from various parts of the world for this task. God the Father has anointed her for Him to do something powerful. These are the words I announced through my spirit, by entering into her for some time. It is your responsibility to grasp them, acquire them and walk along.”

“Now there is no room for avarice and covetousness. Free yourself from all your rights and armed by this emptiness and say...Here I am Lord. You brought me to the world, naked. Today, I am filled with many possessions. Now I cannot lay them down. Oh! Father, anoint me, prepare me, that when I am called by you, I may come to you armed with the same simplicity with which I was brought in. Now my burden is heavy. I find it difficult to walk forward, because my clothing, jewellery, interior cravings and desires, and many other things bog me down. Prepare me Oh Lord, from now on for that moment; relieve me of my weighty garments; adorn me with light garments and help me to ascend to heaven. I would like to come as the simple me that you sent. Then, I was a little infant, knowing nothing. I like to be prepared to come to you as the very same infant.” It is this, which should take place in you today. Meditate deeply. I am tired and tied down by commitments and I am crowned heavily. They are so heavy that I cannot get rid of them. Relieve me Lord from those burdens. Save me from those sinful garments and clothing. I like to be that simple, infant, with no attire, no clothing you sent me. As I grew up gradually, day by day commencing from that day, the weight of my body too has increased. I was filled with earthly desires and cravings. I am tired of the burden of my sins. Father, transform me to that simple infant, adorn me with simplicity, clothe me in simple attire and lead me. This is all that you have to ask for. You are unable to extricate yourself from many things. You are full to the brim, unable to put them down, you have no intention of leaving them behind. So great are the cravings within you. Covetousness and greed slowly creep in. Selfishness, which make me say that is mine surrounds me and binds me. Father, deliver us from all these. Save humankind. Pray, beseeching to remove the clothe of guilt and sin of this world that covers you. Cry unto the Lord daily in this regard. Meditate on it, step by step, moment after moment. Why do you become emotional; why do you enter into confrontations; why do you become angry with others and why do you weep? You would have to go, leaving all these behind. You will never be able to go, taking them with you. It is only to hell, not to heaven that you could take them. Therefore, my beloved Children, be awakened. Be awakened, the time has approached.”

What I perceive, when I direct my attention to these words of Lord Jesus, is that the condition which I described in Chapter 56 - Numbers 3 & 4 and Chapter 58 – Number 11 are set to unfold on the world stage. Therefore, it is most fitting in this instance that those descriptions are revisited and studied again. It is the responsibility of all in this nation and the world to study them all and to prepare themselves to face that most esteemed, and most dreadful phase. What Lord Jesus tells us in this regard is to turn to the correct, righteous path preached by all religious founders. It is absolutely necessary to keep away from religious fundamentalism and religious extremism. There is no redemption in defacing the correct teachings preached by the religious founders. In this critical moment, the most wanted, important development should be the conversion of hearts, change in life patterns that should take place in everybody, with a view to attaining goodness in everything. It is ... a real repentance, a true contrition is what is wanted. The one and true God, the creator God owns the lives of every human being. He rejects and repulses sin. But He does not reject the sinner. Even in a state of utter defeat and dejection, He does not reject the sinner. He invites all to abhor sin and evil and return. With love, He embraces them all who return genuinely. Now has dawned the time where God's wrath pursues. If anyone is blind or deaf to the generous and kind invitation of the Lord, he would necessarily have to face divine contempt.

The message which Lord Jesus gave on 19th November 2022 and which I mentioned in the beginning of this chapter has been given, on behalf of us to brother Sunimal Chathuranga. It was on 12th December he gave me a copy of a handwritten note of that message. My attention was drawn more towards the few words found at the beginning of that lengthy message. “But I have a regret therein, Son. Anthony has so far not come to the deepest stage of the deep faith regarding this activity of mine. Son, these people have already seen the plan of God before the world sees it". Why did Lord Jesus say so? Though I contemplated this over a number of days, I did not receive a proper answer. I do firmly believe in those unconventional proceedings which we, as a congregation, have been facing over the past 27 years. "I will flatten all hills and mountains and prepare the way for the community to go forward. I, myself will do all of them. You must do, only what I ask you to do." I firmly believe those words which Lord Jesus said. "It's Lord Jesus only, who transforms this unconventionality into conventionality." Also, I believe in the words which Lord Jesus uttered. Then, why did Jesus say so, about me? Though I contemplated this over a prolonged period of time, I got a proper answer only on 24th December, during my morning prayers. I remembered a certain idea which Lord Jesus expressed during these proceedings. "How happy you should be, about the activity that I carry out with you, whom I have chosen from among millions of peoples?" I perceived the deepest stage of the deep faith regarding the activity of Lord Jesus. It is necessary that I should ignite with great happiness and thanksgiving in Jesus. There is a slump in me, in giving thanks to the Lord, and being happy in the Lord, on this activity. Therefore, the idea expressed by Lord Jesus on 19th November is true and correct.

At times, frustration and regrets engulf me. I think that those feelings have pierced through my flesh and reached the bone marrows. At times, life blooms like a flower. But within a few seconds it withers. Why did this happen? The reason for this could be the following: (1) the long difficult route I had to take to come to the Lord, (2) all rejections experienced, (3) the 38-year exile and (4) loneliness. It is the 49th year now, that I have reached since I began a new life in Jesus. This is the 38th year in my exodus experience since I broke away from 'Pubuduwa'. I have spent 27 years of those 38 years, in that unconventionality of Lord Jesus. It was a very difficult exodus. Psalms 31:11, 12, 14, 15, depict those experiences very beautifully. "I am the scorn of all my adversaries, a horror to my neighbours, an object of dread to my acquaintances; those who see me in the streets flee from me. I have passed out of mind like one who is dead; I have become like a broken vessel. But I trust in thee, O Lord, I say "Thou art my God." My times are in thy hands."

I have noted down the glorious contents of the doctrines, which have spurred me towards my objectives, over the last 49 years. I have continuously meditated upon them. Amidst all these, I stood out as a poor, little soul who yielded not to the frustration that tried to put me down, but relentlessly fought to overcome it. Now everything is ready for that important stage of the journey, on which our Lord has led us through this unconventionality. It is the moment when the mighty arms of the Almighty Lord will shine upon the nation and the world. At the stage, which is set to emerge, the task of turning nonconformity to conformity will be completed. Then only, the exodus which we face, and nonconformity will come to a practical end. I know that when those signs begin to appear we, as a community, will be elated in joy praising the Lord wholeheartedly. In like manner, I know that I will reach the deepest level of that firm belief about this process. Now on, with a firm belief, I must work to reach that goal.

It is in 2020, that Lord Jesus opened up this process to the world through a web page. Of late, we have distributed volumes 56-62 of 'Footsteps of the Holy Spirit', with a profound sense of dedication. We were advised by Lord Jesus to do so. Though we have posted them to many, none of them have acknowledged receipt. Even those whom we met did not give any indication as to whether they had read them. It happened so because they know that I am within this unconventionality. Though they have been sent to church dignitaries and priests, they remained silent. The reason for this stance might be their allegiance to notes 65-67 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church - CCC. When I even hand-delivered these notes to some, what I said was this. "Read this. If not, keep this safe. I know that you will read this someday." I was active in 'Pubuduwa' for 10 years. Though they receive these notes, it is possible that many of them will not even look at them. The reason is 'Pubuduwa' shunned all connections with me, while spreading a negative story, about me all around 'Pubuduwa.' "Anthony, Anthony Mary and Sampath are thinking of themselves as special individuals. They persist in their stand, but do not free themselves from this attitude. Therefore, it is an evil spirit. It is an evil spirit with a superior spirituality. Prayers can chase away evil spirits of sensuous lust, and cravings. But evil spirits with superior spirituality cannot be chased away by prayers. Those who associate with them too will fall victim to them." Those who are strongly engrossed in that opinion will never read these notes.

This activity of Lord Jesus, which is being enacted among us is the birth pangs that lead to the dawning of the righteous era. There is a possibility that some might not agree with this idea. They might see it as a nuisance. Those who knowingly serve the unrighteous forces will not be happy at all with these actions of the Lord. Therefore, they would begin to hunt for the mastermind. The mastermind is Lord the Creator God, himself. They will search for the main person responsible for these developments. Lord Jesus said this. "This activity of mine began in 1974. Around September 21 & 22 in 1974, I entered an awakened life, accepting and acknowledging Lord Jesus as my redeemer, Lord, and shepherd. I said this in the presence of Lord Jesus. "Lord, I will allow you to continue leading me in the way you lead me now. It is good for the future of humankind that even one individual wholeheartedly allows you to lead him in the way you take. In this regard, I do not expect anything from you, either on a worldly basis or on an eternal basis. The dinar which you have promised to give everybody is enough. Surely, I will get that dinar. It is not on account of any of my qualifications, but solely on account of the sacrificing of your life." The Lord is leading me to the 49th year too. No one among the inmates of our home, relations, neighbours, or friends is responsible for this turn of events. Because, I have not encouraged anyone, even by a word, to fall in line with this unconventional journey. In this matter, all what I got from them is only discouragement and dissuasion. There were around forty in the 'Daham Navodaya' community. Most of them rejected those activities and left the community. The number of those who remain now with us could be counted using the fingers in one hand. They encouraged me towards this unconventional journey always. Therefore, it is I and those few who are still with me who are responsible for this process. It is the experience of a man being lonely amidst a group that I have been going through from a long time. Many people have only to talk with me about the day-to-day weather condition when they meet me. This happens so because they know that I am amidst a deep unconventionality.

The Lord has chosen me for a life to be filled and perfected with the experiences of the divine pauper and the suffering servant. I have not received any deep understanding about this façade through any one of the sermons, I have listened right throughout my life. I got this understanding deeply on reading the book titled, 'Vimukthiye Piya Satahan' 'Footsteps of Liberation', authored by Rev. Fr. Doctor Leslie Fernando. The following are a few lines picked from the book. "Divine pauper (Anavim), its usual meaning is insulted person, lowered person. The best way available for a man to get closer to God is the spiritual poverty. A poor man of this nature places all his expectations and energies on God. The Holy Bible says that the Lord always listens to the poor in heart and the persecuted. The Lord manifests himself to them as the Lord of all mercies. This poverty provides the opportunity for him to engage in the service of God spiritually. The person who accepts divine poverty in all its aspects is the servant of God. His divine poverty becomes immensely powerful in God. He believes that justice will be done to him, not by the world but by God. The servant of God faced everything with equanimity and bore up everything on behalf of the people. He regarded his life as a sin offering offered for the people. The servant of God, through his poverty offers a great prayer in the presence of the Lord. The suffering suffered by the servant of God is not an occurrence that happens accidentally or that is merely caused by human beings. It is a sin offering. God will establish His kingdom through the sufferings of the servant of God. It is an offering of sacrifice made willingly. The servant of God journeys in the path of defeat and reaches victory. His ways are different from the normal ways.

I remembered what Lord Jesus said through His young handmaid in 2005, about this step of the divine plan that is set to unfold. We were discussing the episode of Mohamed going to the mountain rather than the mountain coming to Mohamed. Then, Lord Jesus said this through her mouth. "What is going to happen in the future is not like Mohamed going to the mountain, but something like the mountain beginning to jump to the vicinity of Mohamed. In this regard, you as a congregation will have to pay a big price. God is not constitution but Love. Today, my church is becoming not Love but constitution. Peter, in heaven is lamenting over this." (What is meant by a big price is a great dedication, sacrifice, suffering, offering). "Injustice has spread like a wind everywhere and always. Justice comes to the stage late and with heavy strides." This is mentioned in the second page of the 'Footsteps of the Holy Spirit'. At the height of the crying out for the Lord to deliver the people of Israel from the great oppression when they were living a life of extreme burdens of Egypt's inhuman slavery, the Lord Almighty came with heavy strides. (Exodus in the Holy Bible). The Almighty came with heavy strides at the time the resurrected Lord Jesus began His Church and was consolidating it. (Acts of the Apostles in the Holy Bible). Now the Creator of the universe is ready to come with heavy strides for the grand purification that is happening for the dawn of the righteous era that will take place at the end of the current era. The moment, when, I as the shepherd of the community and the disciples praise the Lord regarding this unconventional process of Lord Jesus, wholeheartedly and overflowing with joy is imminent. Lord Jesus says this. "I will do everything. Your dedication and beseeching is required for this. It is not only the prayers said in groups, but the prayers said alone, from where you are located, when you are free, always, and everywhere, coming from the very depth of the heart are necessary. Then the Lord from above will look upon you mercifully; bless you and provide you with his protection, enabling you to act when you have to act. If the Lord has assigned me responsibility, I must walk forward in the stern determination that I will fulfill it to the very letter. (Footsteps of the Holy Spirit - Chapter 53)

“Now is the time when the struggle between righteousness and unrighteousness is intensifying. Therefore, remain in God the Creator, more and more deeply.”

1. 2023 May 13

(Speaking to Brother Sunimal Chathuranga, through the First handmaid, at Lord Jesus' Headquarters - The Chair)

“Now is the time when the struggle between righteousness and unrighteousness is intensifying. Therefore, remain in God the Creator, more and more deeply. It is necessary to go forward, while clinging onto His hands, and drawing strength from the mighty power of His right hand. Now we cannot loose. But the adversary is on his guard to defeat us. Therefore, something terrible is about to take place in this country and the entire world. A moment, capable of shaking the whole universe is coming from distinct aspects. On many occasions, I see her (Sujeewa) engage in her morning prayers. I keep on listening words such as these escaping from her whispering lips. ‘I do not know what lies beneath the earth. Jesus, control them all. I do not know what happens within the seas and the heavens. You, Oh Lord, control them’. The purification process of God the Father begins in combination with all of these. Now, that terrible moment is on the march and coming. Even within the Church, many things keep on changing without being noticed. It is for this reason, I told you to release and make the revelations available, quickly to the church. Now, they ought to understand these. Among them are a few who understand these who eagerly and with intense interest go through these publications. Your responsibility is to release these publications, translated into English to the international media. You may use your friends for this task. You would have to endeavor a lot in this regard. It is necessary that you protect yourself, too. I receive a great service from you during your youth. It is with this selection of mine, that satanic attacks on you have been intensified. This is what you must understand. You must carry on your cross when you walk with God. The weight of the cross will increase day by day. You will fall under the weight of the cross. The Lord lends His hands to raise you up and walk forward. Today, the man is not satisfied, despite all what he gets. It is a state of sin, indeed. A particular day will come, when light will be no more and the whole world would be plunged into utter darkness. All these will happen in the future. Though everything appears calm and silent, there are great many terrible things, which are to happen in the future. For most of the time, the earth will not remain silent. Even the heavens and seas will not remain silent. God Father unleashes His wrath in this manner. Keep on carrying your publishing activities, with great care and contemplation.”

Terrible things will happen to Government Leaders and Church Leaders. Now, they grope in darkness. Now, everything within the Church is changing. Think of Mary. She knew that her only son will be crucified and would have to face shame and humiliation and undergo numerous sufferings and sorrows. But she never cursed the soldiers; never clamoured to bring the offenders to the courts of law. She never boaster with pride about her son, defeating death and rising from the dead. She kept them all in her heart and radiated love to all and all around. All my apostles who built their lives on her great, exemplary lifestyle never faulted ever and reverted back. Think of the early church. The early church embraced with great fervor and enthusiasm the eminent, exemplary lifestyles of the apostles. They faced great persecutions and oppressions over a prolonged period; faced ignoble deaths; they never cursed anybody; and they offered all the sufferings and injustices endured by them to God only. They expected justice from God alone. They never petitioned to the rulers against their sufferings. They never sought any relief from them. But they emerged victorious. But now what is happening within the church? Then, I forgave Peter and Judas. Why cannot the Church forgive now? Why do they assemble the people and go after the offenders? Son, is not this what the church is doing now? Take for example the recent bomb blast. When the internal, burning wounds of the people, caused by the bomb blast is on a course of being healed, why should it be pulled back even after one year. Wounds are being reopened. It is a big mistake on the part of the church indeed, and it is not a forgiving process. Under these circumstances, what the world would think about the priestly sacrament? Under these circumstances, what would the world speak about the Catholic Church, today? If so, is not the world and my church, alike? Therefore, the devil has made his way into everything in a very destructive manner. He plans to do something grave, by entering this country, the church and state administration. A big war would erupt, in the future. Even by now, the church has not taken steps to contemplate over the question of why God the Father has allowed an incident of this nature to take place, during the services in three Christian churches, on the day of commemorating my resurrection. Then what you must do is delivering these messages to the world, quickly. Continue everything, carefully. I will always stand by you.

At the initial stages of Brother Sunimal Chaturanga's calling by Lord Jesus for this mission. i.e., in September 2019 Jesus said, this to him. "The creator and designer of the world has chosen a shepherd and says now you must lead the sheep whom I choose and bring them. You are a shepherd, feeding this flock. Join with these disciples together and lead the bride (humankind) to the bridegroom (Lord Jesus). Within this lies a great depth. This is not a journey, going on while turning back to look into the faults of others. This is a journey, going towards God in total submission to him, becoming wholly empty, by rejecting all and sundry. The shepherd should empty himself to the extent of being able to hear the voice of the Lord. Your journey will become easy to the extent the Lord's voice begins echoing and reverberating before you by emptying yourself. If you fill yourself with worldly affairs and go after them, you will become stagnant and remain in the same place forever. There will be no future. The group should become totally empty in order to prepare the bride and hand her over to the groom. All must join as one, in a firm bonding and binding. It is only a few, from the whole world who has been chosen for a noble endeavour of this magnitude. How greatly should the ones, favoured by God, and chosen from millions and millions of people to receive this grace, rejoice within this calling for discipleship? People cling on to places where money and power abound. Therefore, it is through the marginalized that I extol everything and take forward. The one, who is empowered by the precious blood, is nourished by God and he experiences a great power daily. His interior is pure. His soul is pure. You, tell this to me. "Here, Lord! I'm, the one created by you. Therefore, I belong to you. Do whatever you want within me and take me to the direction with total emptiness where the way you go."

The message Lord Jesus delivered on 19th November 2022 has been recorded in the 63rd chapter of 'Footsteps of the Holy Spirit'. Within that message itself, these ideas have been included. I think it is my duty, as the shepherd of the community of 'Daham Navodaya' to place that before you. Jesus said these words while addressing brother Sunimal Chaturanga. "From the womb of your mother, by the Father has brought you up, with some powerful talents. Unrighteousness is pursuing you. You must be very mindful about that. God the Father is going to accomplish something great through you. It could be seen that you are becoming a servant of the Lord in total obedience to him, without being a coward, and going forward. But, one day the Lord of unrighteousness will come to oppress you. Therefore, you must become strong and powerful. A mighty army will rise up to conquer you. You must join hands with Michael the Archangel to defeat that. It is for a great purpose that you have been chosen by Me. Now, when you get a chance, participate in the gatherings of the community. There, you will have to speak bravely about the shortcomings you observe. They should all be reformed and revived. When you observe shortcomings and faults of the disciples, even of the shepherd himself you should endeavor to rectify and reform them. The grownups (elders) could be rebuilt through little ones. Transform your countenance to be a sharp two-edged sword, to announce these revelations to the world. You must empower yourself with the ability to revive the weak, the powerless members of the community and lead them. You haven been entrusted with a missionary and go forward by uniting all, around you through cordial discussion. It is according to the will of the Father that your life has been chosen for that great missionary effort. So, speak with Anthony. Show him the way, strengthen him, and energize him. 'I am who I am.' The Almighty Father has brought you out, anointing you with sacramental power, in order to display and express the might of His powerful hands and you were kept hidden. Therefore, you have now been tasked with the plan, the mission to save the whole village and the whole nation. You would also have to propagate these revelations to the whole world and take it forward. You have been anointed for a very important, dominant journey. You are being hidden in many places. In many places, you are exposed and taken forward. Many are attracted towards you, now. Many like to hear your voice. There is a thirst emerging for this. In future, a vast number of people, thirsting for your message will throng around you."

On 21st May 2023, at the headquarters (Chair of Jesus) addressing the daughter and the sons of the first handmaid and a few members of the community, Lord Jesus said this. "Today the man is burdened with his life. Why? This weight has increased through many bonds and bindings. More the bindings, lesser will be the ability to bring them down. You want to walk with the Lord, but you are unable take the next step. The weight pulls you back. When you entreat the Father to reduce the burden, the Father will lessen the burden and will carry and take you along the journey. During these terrible times, all of you would have to plead St. Michael the Archangel to come to your aid, bringing heavenly Father's graces. St. Michael the Archangel as you, joined hands with mother Mary and defeated evil, join your hands with us and be the guardian of our hearts, be the protector of our bodies, be the guardian of our homes, our places of work, through our journeys, our lands, our villages and our nation, right through our existence on earth. Become one with us to provide protection to all people and defeat evil. In this manner, you begin the journey with him. Next, invite infant Jesus. In accordance with your age, invite Jesus when you are confronted with issues which you cannot discuss with others. "Lord Jesus, this is my age. Lord be of my age and come to me. Be my friend and take me O Lord. With your divine spirit enter into me, as I breathe in. Cover me wholly with your divine presence. You know my weaknesses; you see all that oppress me and debilitate me. Lord deal with me as You discuss matters with your best friend." You can enter into a conversation with Him in a very silent surrounding. He listens. He speaks. Definitely, this experience, you will receive from me. As Lord Jesus remains closer to me, you too help all those who are around me, because we all are brothers of the same clan. Think of His infancy, think of the time, He grew up, stage by stage and bring Him into your life to suit your age. That friendship surely will protect you always. Whatever difficulties you encounter in life, you will not be harmed, as son of God stands by you.

Participation in mass is inadequate. The Holy Mass should be triumphant within you, by your non-criticizing of others, seeing your own faults and correcting them. In these days, this is very essential, because the future will be very frightening. Holy Mass is the occasion wherein you are given a meal to nourish you with the body and blood of the Lord. The Lord comes into you alive in the form of bread, bringing a divine force to heed to His words and to experience might of those words deeply. You must feel the taste of His body and blood at the tip of your tongue. A depth, an extensive, extraordinary depth should be created within you. If you receive the Lord with great belief and respect, miracles, curing you of all your diseases would happen in the future..."

On Pentecost Sunday, 4th June 2023, we assembled to pray. Around twenty-five people who associated with us too had come for the prayers. Lord Jesus, using Sujeewa engaged in a pleasant discussion with all those who had assembled. Then, Lord Jesus said this... "Children, it is with a great sense of sadness that I say this to you over and over again. A decadent state of this magnitude is not observed in any other religion. They go to a place of religious worship, dressed in a simple, decent, and suitable attire. A priest is human too. Dresses of some women, belonging to the church which is mine and carries my name spoils the mind of the priest. If so, what else could be said of others?

2. In a number of chapters, beginning from Chapter 56 onward, in the "Footsteps of the Holy Spirit", I have described about God the Father's great process of purification that will take place in preparation for the dawning of the end times, returning of Christ and a righteous era. The great process of God the Father's process of purification which is to take place in preparation for the dawning of the righteous era means remaking, along with the collaborative efforts of men, of the paradise which the man lost through his act of insubordination against God. Therefore, even the most perilous stage of God the Father's process of purification will be for the good of the human family. Now I desire to end in this manner, the lengthy mediation, of which I have mentioned earlier. Let us enter into a discussion, meditating about the end time period of misfortunes (a dark era). A few paragraphs, dealing with the subject of 'Maitree Concept (Loving kindness) of the Buddhist Times,' extracted from a letter authored by Professor Gunapala Dharmasiri, attached to Philosophical Division of the Peradeniya, University have been presented to you by me in Chapter 56 of 'Footsteps of the Holy Spirit'. I intend to place before you some notes which would have either been presented or not presented there.

'Loving Kindness' (Maithriya) could be identified as the most important thing, needed by not only Sri Lanka, but the entire world. Because, if there is anything capable of facing and eliminating the terrible times which torments the world today, that will be 'loving kindnesses' but nothing else...A prominent feature observed in this era is the moral decadence of humankind, reaching its highest point. In short, righteousness has become unrighteous, and unrighteousness has become righteous...The moral decadence of the present era is so grave, that no further decay could take place. In Buddhist sermons, we come across eras, wherein moral decadence has plunged into such terrible depths. The Maha Supina Jataka preaches about these future words through a symbolic exposition of the sixteen dreams of King Kosol. The Chakkawaththi Sihanada Sutra (a sermon) speaks of the emergence of an era where wars, evil, acrimony and death will reign supreme, during a certain stage of the cyclic process of the world.

Philosopher, yogi Sri Aurobindu and Father Shardine have stated that it is destined for the mental level of mankind to transfer into a well-advanced level during this era. In support of this idea, Sri Aurobindu presents evidence based on societal facts, and as a scientist Father Shardine presents evidence based on biological facts. Some are of the opinion that it is essential to have faced disaster and death to enter into this high mental transformation...It is on account of an important matter that eras of misfortunes come into the world. The Bhagwat Geetha states that eras of misfortunes come into the world from time to time in order to reestablish righteousness in the world when righteousness is threatened, and it is on the verge of being wiped out. Therefore, one purpose of this era is educating people about righteousness...Therefore, we must treat this era that has dawned as a fortunate event. It will turn out to be fortune only if people are inclined to derive maximum benefits from it...Maithriya – Loving kindness will be the sole answer for all the problems of the era of misfortune. Because the righteous force capable of defeating and winning over this era of misfortunes could be generated only through loving kindness. There are predictions and futuristic saying about this era in other religions. Everybody who speaks about such eras tells that the only remedy, protection and the solution against such eras is moral, righteous behavior. The only way taught and recommended to overcome the evils of the era of misfortunes and to draw help to change even the era of misfortunes itself and to bring about an eminent era is leading a life, upholding moral behavior. The central concept of morality is loving kindness. In the face of righteous energy and force, all worldly forces, will be surely and definitely defeated...A person is a minute particle of the universal totality. It is possible for the minute particle to make an impact on the totality to match the extent of the impact of the totality on the minute particle.

By now, every country in the world, is faced to a lesser or higher level, with the era of misfortune. What appears below is a brief description about the era of misfortunes, which Sri Lanka, where we live in is faced with. (an extract written through his preface in 'Diyanaya Apasu Yai' a collection of short stories by Author K. Jayatilake) "...Ruling by a state machinery is not present here. State employees go to work as and when they feel right, as if they are coming for an amusement park. Forgetting forsaking their assigned duties, they discuss, through the entire day about the corruption prevalent in higher places; and grab them in haste if they get an opportunity to it. Even the poor, ordinary farmers have placed their trust not on the gains to be derived through their efforts, but what could be grabbed for free. Everything has turned upside down. A great tempest of this kind is now blowing across the country. Though, this could be a phenomenon, observed right across the modern world, we think that there is no country in any part of the world as severely affected as our nation. Amidst all these calamities, we, as if entangled together in a mass of webs and weeds, miserably and pitifully, keep on staring at each other's grief-filled faces. What shall we do?

There is nothing we can do as individuals, against this floods and torrents that ravage the lands, coming along with thunder and bolts shattering the skies, quakes and tremors shaking the ground and roaring and riotous winds. An attempt made in this direction would turn us into victims and drag us low, down into the flood itself. Its effects will be the same on organizations as well as on institutions...Are we able think of anything more powerful than these diseases prone forces? Yes, in fact. The world history teaches us, repeatedly, how evil forces of this nature have affected the world in the past...The undefeated force is time. At a certain time, the ineffable intelligentsia, which has turned upside down will reach the sublime point which is due unto it. It is impossible to suppress forever the might of the mind (intelligence), and wisdom, which the man has accumulated from time immemorial...What we can do till the dawning of this eminent moment is very little. Present day society is not ready to listen to what we, as writers say, even standing on our heads. Eyes have been blinded; ears have been locked in the presence of the myth of globalization, modernization, and new technology. All what we can do now is to climb up the firm rock of yester year's contributions and heritage and keep a record of what see today for the benefit of our posterity...Some might criticize this as an evasive act, similar to fondling a parasite rather delivering a knockout blow with an axe. I think of it as a reasonable criticism, even against any one of my own creations. Because all what happens through them is just pointing a finger to where a sickness is, and not treating the sickness. Treating a sickness is a function to be performed by a qualified doctor, at a suitable occasion. My duty is to show the symptoms of diseases, as far as I know." ('Divayina' 1999.08.01)

The 'Ravaya' of 15th Sept. 1999, carried on its first page, in a top down bottom up, lopsided position, a photograph of the Chief Justice's swearing in with the following comment below the photo, 'This day will be a decisive day for all men who care about the independence and character of the Judiciary'. An article in the paper of the day helped me to get a sense of the era of misfortunes, which an economically developed, but a morally decaying nation is faced with. Robert Bock answering a question about America's progress towards decay and destruction said this, 'Now, what poet W. Yates, transforming himself to be an author of the future, said in 1919 is becoming true. American society is gradually entering into a phase of destruction which indeed is Satan's mouth. The reason for this is the different route taken by our age-old moral traditions. This demon has gulped our religion, which we have safeguarded with our lives and all the moral traditions referred to in the religion. Today, we as a race are proceeding gradually, but unstoppably, not towards the city of Bethlehem, but towards Gomorrah, the city of sinners which was destroyed by God on account of their sinful lifestyles." Therein, this had been stated. "He has always stated that the west developed so quickly, because of its formation on the solid foundation of Christian religion, which enriched morality, centered around the family." It has been said about Robert Bork, nominated but not appointed to American Judiciary that his non-appointment was related to his sermons based on these religious lines. I think that Robert Bork's ideas, referred to above are relevant not only America, but also to all economically developed, morally decadent nations, and to all who forsake religion totally and bow down before wealth and power in economically underdeveloped nations.

Sri Lanka has now reached the era of misfortunes, 100 %, from all sides. Though all countries are exhibiting the characteristics of an era of misfortune, no country has experienced the effects of the era of misfortune, as totally as Sri Lanka. Democracy in our country was plunged into chaos and confusions through the constitution of 1978. Way was opened up for the political party which came into power to plunder the country. All social norms and values were washed away by the open economy. This situation developed in the background of a promise given to build up a just and righteous society. Beginning from 1978, right through 44 years, this country has been pushed to experience full effects of the era of misfortunes. Can we look at this very difficult situation, wisely and indifferently? You could do so, if you can understand thoroughly all what I present before you. Our country is the Garden of Eden where Adam and Eve lived. (Chapter 44, "Footsteps of the Holy Spirit) It is this country which, turned out to be the island of righteousness, later. It is the nation which now is facing the full effects of the era of misfortunes. Dawning of an era of misfortune is a sign for the re-establishment of an era of righteousness. Experiencing, in full the effect of an era of misfortunes signals the re-establishment of a righteous era. It is the Creator himself, who re-establishes the righteous era after ending the era of misfortunes. It is not something which could be accomplished by a human hand alone. For this purpose, an almighty hand is needed. The country where we live now is the new, righteous nation which will emerge out, following the re-establishment of the complete righteous era. It is this country where we live, that will become 'the country of redemption for the whole world'. It is the plan of the redeemer for this nation, the garden of Eden of yester years. Therefore, it will definitely happen, accordingly. All what man thinks as impossible, could be performed by the Redeemer Lord, instantaneously. "So that my word goes forth from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose and prosper in the things for which I sent it." (Isaiah 55:11) Then, should we not be happy about this blessed land even in this hour of darkness? Let us dedicate ourselves to the victory of the righteousness in the war fought between the forces of righteousness and unrighteousness, as a prelude to the dawning of a new beginning. It should completely be a task performed by Maitreya and love.

I like to draw your attention to some of the ideas expressed by Lord Jesus through this unique pattern of revelations, which take place in our country.

“God the heavenly Father is readying the moment for my second coming by commanding everything within a great plan. This moment is not about criticizing this politician or that leader; instead, what should happen is ‘seeing self.’ (‘Footsteps of the Holy Spirit’ Chapter 53) (Now, what should happen is taking an inward look and seeing self deeply. What should happen is.... not only the politicians but all religious leaders too, should see themselves. If the correct teachings of the authors of religions are reflected precisely, through every religion they preached, there is no room for the political establishments of the countries to decay and decline to these extents. Now, everything including religions will be reformed and made perfect by that terrible stage in the purification process of the Lord, which is about to be launched.)

“The nation’s purification is now in progress, in haste. Therefore, everything will take place in a manner, as never ever happened before...The most dangerous phase of the nation’s timeline will begin in the future. Those who pass their lives, immersed in worldly comforts will oppress and intimidate those who live in the paths of righteousness. Amidst strife and infighting, the truth will emerge out. Do not pay attention to what you hear and see about them but beseech the Lord for mercy on their behalf. Those tragedies will repress you if you oppress them and speak evil of them. Look at them with eyes filled with mercy and beauty. The world could be beautified with noble thoughts.” (49)

“God the Father will purify the nation very quickly. Therefore, let no one speak relentlessly about anyone without knowing the facts precisely. Everyone should endeavour to deal with God the Father and God the Son without depending on men.” (47)

3. (Following is quoted from ‘Viratha Ratha’ and translated back to English [a translation from English – 1987], “Reminiscence of Leo Nicholaevich Tolstoy”. This is a part of a dialogue between Maxim Gorky and Leo Tolstoy)

Leo Tolstoy: “Why don’t you believe in God?”

Maxim Gorky: “Leo, I do not have any belief about God.”

Leo Tolstoy: “It is not true. According to nature you are a pious person. You cannot live without divine grace. Very soon you will find it. You are cunning, a shrewd guy. That’s why you do not believe. You are angry in your heart about the world being not made, as you wish it to be. Some do not have fervor and piety, out of shame...Piety and love require a sense of bravery and moral rectitude. Piety is the summit of love. Love, a bit more. Then your love will turn into piety...It is a useless effort for you, who were born as a pious person, to walk against your own natural characteristics. Very often you speak about beauty. What is beauty? It is the creator God who is the most supreme model of beauty, perfect and full in all aspects.”

4. [Paolo Coelho - “Notes from the life journey of pilgrimage.” Juan Ariyas, Sinhala Translation by Sumithra Rahubaddha] I intend to place before you some extracts from this volume.

“Paulo Coelho could be described as a spiritualist, rising above the status of an author.”

“The greatest lesson learned through that pilgrimage was the ability gained to understand simplicity as a beauty. The greatest beauty is simplicity.”

“According to my thinking, the humankind in the next 100 years will be attracted more towards explorations in spirituality. I see that as against the past century, men have now been attracted more towards this development.”

“Now we are understanding that the statement ‘religion is an intoxicant’, [opium] is not true. Specially because those who said so, have not tested it.”

(It is I who put the word opium within the brackets, in order to emphasize the gravity of the idea.)

5. (I came across these words as I read the ‘Lankadeepa’ Literary Column. I forgot to note down the date of publication.) The great scientist Abdul Kalam wrote his biography, titled ‘Fiery Wings). “Why are we born? We all have been born with a divine fire. Our endeavor is to provide wings to that fire and to enlighten many through the flames of that fire.”

6. “Many saw Mother Therese of Calcutta, as a living saint, during her lifetime. In 1968 Malcom Muggeridge, a British author and film producer, visited Mother Theresa. Though he did not care much about religion, Muggeridge, together with his production crew carried on filming her activities. Mother Theresa, having come to know about his doubts about God, wrote a letter to Malcolm in 1970. ‘..... Though God lives in the deepest interior of your heart, you try to keep Him away from you. God loves you abundantly. Instead of keeping God at a distance, try to understand Him. Malcolm did so. By 1982, he had become a believer in God. Mother Theresa was revealed to the world by the film he produced in 1969, named ‘Something beautiful for God’, and by the book he authored under the same name in 1971. [Udeni Senevirathna, ‘Muthuhara; October 2007]
